William Cross Heads the Republican Ticket for Burgess—The Other Successful Candidates

The Republican primaries were held on Saturday evening for the nomination of borough officers and also to elect delegates to the county convention which is to be held at Towanda on Thursday next. In the fourth and second wards there was a fair sized vote cast. In the first ward there were only 85 votes cast while in the third ward the attendance was exceedingly light. The principal contests were over the offices of justice of the peace and tax collector. For the former office W. T. Carey, Sereno Nelson and C. S. Gay were the contestants. The first two mentioned received the highest number of votes and were declared nominated. J. L. Plumstead, W. P. Hause and Jos. Bowman were candidates for tax collector. Plumstead won out with a total of 207 votes.

William Cross was nominated for Burgess, having no opposition. C. C. West and Miles Ellis were nominated for councilmen in the first ward; Coleman Hassler, second ward; J. H. Pritchard, third ward; Attorney I. N. Evans, fourth ward. R. C. Cook won by one vote over William Meixell for school director in the first ward. John Babcock was nominated for auditor and judges and inspectors of election were nominated as follows: First ward, H. H. Mercereau and H. Stanley Winlack; second ward, W. W. Saphar and R. S. Bennett; fourth ward, Charles K. Mills and E. M. Mason.

Delegates to the county convention were elected as follows: First ward, G. L. Roberts, T. P. Maney, S. A. Blish, C. L. Francisco; second ward, E. J. Connelly, J. E. Waltman, Charles Wolf, Elmo Daly; third ward, Charles Bull, Robert Fenner; fourth ward, Attorney C. C. Yocum, Spencer Brougham, Eason Plumstead and E. M. Mason.

PRINCESS BEGGAR

Edward Paulton, the author of Princess Beggar, in which Paula Edwardes will be seen at the Loomis on Thursday, has endeavored to write a complete and consistent farce independent of the musical setting, but he has at the same time skillfully provided for the logical and legitimate introduction of songs and ensembles so that they seem germane to the piece and not merely interpolations. Alfred G. Robyn, the composer, is well known by his beautiful ballads which are sung by countless thousands. His best known operatic work is The Yankee Consul, which scored a great success. Paula Edwardes has both the vocal ability to interpret Mr. Robyn's score and the comedy talent to realize every phase of the admirable part which Mr. Paulton has fashioned for her. The Messrs. Shubert have lavished money on the production of Princess Beggar and Miss Edwardes starts her new season with everything in her favor. The company includes Eddie Garvie, Edward M. Favor, Stanley H. Ford, Robinson Newbold, Helen Marvin, Edith St. Clair, George Tennery, Guy B. Hoffman and 80 others.

STRICKEN WHILE AT WORK

An Italian known as No. 3019, employed by the Lehigh Valley, while working down the line yesterday was suddenly stricken unconscious. He was brought to the hospital at this place and since has been lying in comatose condition. The surgeons at the hospital are of the opinion that the man's condition is due to tetany.

FRACTURED HIS WRIST

Edward Kitchen, a South Waverly lad, fell from a tree on Saturday afternoon and sustained a fracture of the left wrist. Dr. LaPlant of this place was summoned and reduced the fracture.

GOSSIP - CONCERNING STATION AT TOWANDA

Many Rumors Are in Circulation Regarding Location of Lehigh Valley Depot at the County Seat.

Interest in the new railroad bridge soon to be built across the Susquehanna river at Towanda has caused many rumors to be circulated, among them the report that the contracts for masonry and super structure have been let, and that the new station will be above the present one. While it is the general impression that the bridge will be located above the present one, yet up to date no contracts have been let for building the bridge, said today's Review.

Representatives of the real estate department of the Lehigh Valley are trying to secure options on more land between Wysox and Towanda, one purpose being to prepare for a four track road when the same is needed, and the other purpose being to secure an entirely new line from the Lanning farm to the Coolbaugh cut south of the present line, thus reducing the curvature.

As to the location of the main railroad station, officials of the company are trying to work out a plan whereby the main station can be located at the east end of the present wagon bridge, about 1,600 feet from the corner of Main and Bridge streets. If the new station is built at North Towanda it will be 6,000 feet from the same corner. Of the two locations Towanda people prefer the one at East Towanda. It is expected that shortly after February 1st the Lehigh officials will give out plans for publication.

TOLD TALE OF HARDSHIP

This forenoon a rather well dressed stranger approached Chief Walsh and told a tale of suffering that he had endured the past week. The man, who failed to divulge his name, said that he boarded a freight train at Chicago one day last week to go to Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he claimed that he could secure work. He had never been in Grand Rapids but claims that he had obtained a general description of the town. This morning he landed in Sayre on a Lehigh Valley freight, and as the town looked like Grand Rapids he left the train. Since boarding the train at Chicago the stranger claimed that he had not tasted food, and this was several days ago. The chief thought the story a good one and bought the man his dinner.

GROUNDHOG DAY

Next Friday is groundhog day, the day on which the hibernating little animal is supposed to wake from his winter's nap, go out of his hole into the open air and if he casts his eyes on his shadow, return to his winter quarters and continue his snooze for six long weeks, thereby conveying the impression to the superstitious that the weather is to be cold and disagreeable. This year, however, it is said that the groundhog will remain in his hole, as he does not desire to take any chances on being overcome with the heat.

SAWDUST ON FIRE

A pile of sawdust on fire near the Erie tracks in the northern part of the borough on Saturday night caused an alarm of fire to be turned in. The firemen responded but before they reached the scene of the conflagration the flames were under control and the services of the fire ladders were not needed.

Local Aerie Makes Preparations for a Smoker on Thursday Evening Next.

The Sayre Aerie of Eagles will hold their regular meeting on Thursday evening next, at which time twenty-five candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the order. It is expected that a large delegation of Eagles from Ithaca will visit the local aerie on Thursday evening, an invitation having been extended to them to be present. Preparations will therefore be made to give the visiting brethren a royal welcome and a smoker at which refreshments will be served will follow the regular business session.

CITIZENS' COLUMN.

COMMUNICATED

Editor Valley Record:

To the Voters of Sayre borough: This evening the Democratic primaries are held in each ward to nominate candidates for borough offices. In all probability in the next three years to come the sewer and public building question will materialize; therefore it behooves the taxpayers to be careful in selecting their chief executive. The friends of Mr. A. B. Shearer insist on his running for Burgess and he has given his consent, he is the man we want; he is ripe in experience in such work and is an honest, upright citizen, and a large taxpayer. He is a man that is not obligated to no man or corporation and will not shirk his duty as an official. Don't fail to come to the primaries tonight and support him.

THE DANCE THAT LED TO DEATH

Among the many brilliant scenes that the production of The Holy City presents, none is more sensationally superb than the one in which Salome, the beautiful daughter of Herodius, dances before King Herod and his court. In diaphanous drapery, kaleidoscopic as butterflies' wings in rainbow rays, its folds rising and falling around and above her nimble feet like clouds caressed by summer winds, bending and swaying in harmonious motion to the enticing music played, the royal dancer floats like a bubble on the palace terraces, bewitching the intoxicated monarch, who first offers half his kingdom, but finally grants the head of John the Baptist, as a reward for sensuous delight. Exquisite as are the surroundings of this situation, its dramatic intensity is never lost; the conspiracy and its fateful ending hidden for the moment by the alluring beauty of the scene, burst upon the senses in a climax of tragic acting seldom witnessed on a stage. Marie de Beau, the French emotional actress, specially engaged to play Salome in the east, gives to the difficult role that fire and intensity which the character demands.

BROKE INTO PARSONAGE

Since the removal of the Rev. Ira W. Bingham to Norwich the Baptist parsonage building on North Elmer avenue has been unoccupied. One day last week several young boys broke into the parsonage through a cellar window and were making merry when frightened away by people residing in the neighborhood. Chief Walsh was informed of the occurrence and if it is repeated arrests will follow.

Political Announcement

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of tax collector subject to the rules of the Democratic primaries. B. L. Lewis, 215
