An Innovation and an Invitation

About nine persons out of ten find it hard to furnish the home and pay spot cash for Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, and the heavy house furnishings, as all run into money rapidly. In view of a desire to increase business and publicly grant a request very frequently made by many of our best patrons, we have opened an installment proposition for those desiring to buy their furniture, etc., on the installment plan, thereby enjoying its use without charge of interest or the employment of solicitors. And reasonable payments only are expected.

Our policy of cash buying and cash selling cannot be departed from on other lines, or in other departments of this store, as the small margins upon which we operate would not justify our naming the prices we do were we to do a general credit business. Under this policy, with the advantage of buying, you have and always will get the same goods for less money or more goods for the same money than you get at small stores. Is not this reasonable reasoning?

EXTEND CALL TO REV. VON TOBEL

Athens--A business meeting of the Presbyterian church and congregation was held last evening for the purpose of hearing the report from the committee of seven appointed to select a pastor. Rev. E. L. Petrie of Sayre, was appointed moderator after which the committee through S. R. Payne, chairman, made the report. There have been nearly thirty applications for the pastorate and the committee have used great judgment in their work and the conclusions reached has been made after a most careful and thorough investigation. After hearing the report it was unanimously decided to extend a call to Rev. A. F. von Tobel of Camden, N. J. Mr. von Tobel recently preached for the church and he made a very favorable impression, and if he should accept the call, the church has every promise of a most excellent pastor and preacher. F. L. Estabrooks has been to Camden and made a most careful inquiry into the character, ability and christian standing of Rev. von Tobel, and it is of the highest order.

COLLIER AND MANN.

Only One Chapter in Court Version of Town Topics, Says Publisher.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30--It is authoritatively stated that no further criminal action will be taken against Colonel Mann, the proprietor of Town Topics, until the issue in the perjury case had been determined. If Robert J. Collier should fail to get a conviction on the perjury charge it is understood that proceedings may then be instituted against some of those in the Town Topics--'Fads and Fancies' combination for blackmail or extortion. 'We have only had one chapter in the court version of Town Topics so far,' said Mr. Collier. 'Colonel Mann's trial will be the second chapter. We are making up the book a chapter at a time. It depends to a large extent on the result of the second chapter whether or not there will be other chapters in the story.'

It was said that Mr. Collier had given his lawyer, Mr. Osborne, a free hand and had instructed him to spare no money until he had finally tumbled the doughy Colonel into his own David Crockett basket. 'Have you seen Colonel Mann?' some one asked Mr. Osborne. 'No, but I could hear him roaring before I left my hotel,' replied Mr. Osborne.

Colonel Mann lives on West Seventy-second street near Riverside drive, and Mr. Osborne makes his home at the Marie Antoinette, a few blocks south from the corner of Seventy-second street and Broadway.

Mr. Collier said that as a matter of fact only a small part of the evidence which he had obtained in connection with the Town Topics inquiry had been brought to light at the Hagwood trial. According to information from authoritative sources, Justice Joseph M. Duell of the court of special sessions will resign from the bench this week, thereby avoiding impeachment proceedings before the appellate division of the supreme court which otherwise would be instituted by the district attorney.

MURDERED MISS ALLINSON.

Rufus Johnson Confesses He Killed Moorestown (N. J.) Girl.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 30--After days of strenuous denial, false statements successively disproved by the police and earnest pleadings that he be not taken to New Jersey, Rufus Johnson, colored, gave up the fight and confessed to the murder of Miss Florence W. Allinson of Moorestown, N. J. He declared that he had no accomplice.

In his statement Johnson said that he went to the Allinson barn very early on Thursday morning, Jan. 18, and that while he was lying in the hay, between 6 and 7 o'clock, a woman, he does not know whom, came to the barn and fed the cow. At about 11 o'clock, he said, Miss Allinson came to the barn. He choked her into insensibility and was about to leave when she showed signs of returning consciousness. He again attacked her and after she once more became insensible he cut a strap from a blanket and fastened it about her neck. He says he then went to the house, which the child, Bessie Walker, invited him to enter. There he secured Miss Allinson's watch, a brass hand mirror and a small amount of money.

As he was leaving the house the child showed him her little savings bank, which he took and broke open to secure the triding amount of money it contained. He afterward returned to the barn, intending to loosen the strap he had placed about his victim's neck, but found her dead. He then took a car to Camden and crossed the ferry to Philadelphia.
