ONE HONEST MAN

Athens—Sanderson Burns came to the Robert's hardware store day before yesterday to buy a pair of horse blankets. Hyatt Satterlee brought out a large number for him to select from, and he finally decided on two which were hastily rolled up and he went home with them. When he came to undo the package he found an extra blanket that in some way had got mixed up in the package. He was frightened and drove to town through the snowdrifts and cold yesterday to return the blanket, and all of the way his heart was in his throat, fearing that an officer would be after him before he got to Athens. He is a pretty straight fellow to do business with.

STRUCK BLUE SHALE

Athens—We had a talk with G. W. Warner, one of the firm who are putting down the oil well, this morning. He informs us that they have drilled 360 feet and are now in a blue shale rock, and that they are putting in the 6 1/4 inch curbing. They also commenced drilling a well on the J. G. Pemberton farm near the old creamery at Tioga Centre, a few days ago. He was on his way to close a contract to put down a well at Mehoopany. They have five drilling outfits in different parts of the country.

"PEACE ON EARTH," HE WROTE.

German Delegate to Algeciras Signs Evidence of Kaiser's Good Intent.

ALGECIRAS, Spain, Feb. 7.—Count von Tattenbach, the German minister to Portugal and the second of the delegates of Germany to the Moroccan conference, and the Marquis Visconti Venosta, the head of the Italian mission to the conference, figured in two little incidents last evening which show Germany's desire to avoid a rupture with France and the neutral powers' desire to maintain European peace. The count, who was chatting with the wives of the ambassadors, remarked: "I have been painted as a sort of devil throughout the Moroccan affair."

One of the ladies replied that if people could see him in his present amiable mood it would remove such an unfavorable impression.

"Perhaps so," answered Count von Tattenbach, "but this legend has become so firmly fixed that I fear history will picture me with horns."

Just after this Countess von Tattenbach passed her autograph album, in which she was taking the signatures of the ambassadors, to Marquis Visconti Venosta, who leads in the efforts of the neutral powers to effect a reconciliation. He took the album and wrote in Latin the following:

"Peace on earth to men of good will." The marquis passed this pacific inscription to Count von Tattenbach, who smiled grimly his approval.

This glimpse behind the scenes gives the keynote to the present efforts to reconcile the Franco-German relations.

FALL OF COUNT DASHKOFF.

Village of Osetin Bombaraded by Czar's Artillerymen.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 7.—The fall of Count Vorontzoff Dashkoff, viceroy of the Caucasus, whose weak kneed policy is held responsible for the prevailing anarchy in the Caucasus, is announced. Count Vorontzoff-Dashkoff has left Tiflis for St. Petersburg. General Malama, his military assistant, who carried over to the Vorontzoff-Dashkoff administration the anti-Armenian traditions of the regime of Prince Galitzin, also has resigned.

The detachment of troops which was sent to reduce the Osetin insurgents in the vicinity of Vladikavkaz, capital of the territory of Terek, bombarded three villages with artillery. The Osetians are surrendering their arms and stolen property.

At Libau thirteen revolutionists were condemned by a drumhead court martial and executed. Among the number was the number one lieutenant of the Grubinsk district.

Near Rostov-on-Don agrarian disorders have broken out anew. A squadron of Cossacks has been sent to repress the disturbances.
