LEHIGH MAY REMOVE THEIR FREIGHT DEPOT

Objections of Residents to Laying a Track Along South Lehigh Avenue Said to Have Caused the Decision on Part of Railroad Company

The Lehigh Valley officials may remove the freight depot at this place from its present site to a point near the trolley bridge; at least this is an assertion which they are said to have made recently and which is also common rumor about town.

Last summer the Lehigh's attorney appeared before the Sayre borough council and asked permission for the company to lay tracks along a certain portion of South Lehigh avenue in the rear of the freight depot. It was stated that the track was an indispensable necessity in order to handle the freight that is daily coming into Sayre. It was also stated that unless the permission was given it might result in the company removing the transfer platform to another town, which would mean throwing out of employment a number of Sayre men. The council discussed the matter to some extent and finally passed an ordinance granting permission to lay the tracks.

It appears now, however, that certain citizens on South Lehigh avenue object to the tracks being laid in front of their properties and have served notice on the company that if any attempt is made to lay the tracks an injunction will be immediately applied for. The attitude of the residents referred to places the company in a quandry.

At the time the permission of the council was secured it was thought that all obstacles in the way of laying the tracks had been removed but the threatening attitude of the property owners is an unlooked for complication. During the fore part of the week the Lehigh Valley officials, it is said, have made an effort to bring influence to bear on the property owners, requesting them to withdraw their objections, but thus far it is said that they have refused to recede from their original position and that if the company attempts to build it will be the signal for an injunction to issue.

As near as can be learned, however, the company intends to remove the depot if the consent of the property owners cannot be obtained. In the event of such action on the part of the company it will mean serious inconvenience to Sayre's merchants. In its present location the freight depot is a most convenient object for the local merchants, who each month receive large consignments of freight, and they are hoping that the residents of South Lehigh avenue, who are making the objections to the tracks, will withdraw the same.

WELL-KNOWN COUPLE MARRIED LAST NIGHT

Austin Wolcott and Miss Cora Lena Wilcox Were United in Holy Bonds of Matrimony by Rev. E. C. Petrie

The marriage of Austin Wolcott and Miss Cora Lena Wilcox occurred last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Wilcox of No. 619 North Elmer avenue, the Rev. E. C. Petrie, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The ceremony was solemnized at eight o'clock in the presence of only the immediate families of the contracting parties. The bride was attired in a neat suit of white silk while the groom wore the conventional black. Miss Frances Wilcox, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Lyman Wolcott, brother of the groom, was the best man. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper of rare excellence was served to the guests.

Mr. Wolcott is one of Sayre's best known business men being a member of the firm of Gaige, Norris & Co., while his bride is an estimable young woman of Sayre, who was formerly a teacher in the schools in this place, and both have many friends who will extend congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Wolcott will be at home at No. 122 Bensley street, after February 14th.

CHARGED WITH HEINOUS CRIME

Wesley Robinson Arrested on Complaint of a Fourteen-Year-Old Girl

Wesley Robinson of Terry township has been taken to the Towanda jail charged with one of the most hideous crimes on the calendar. The complainant is a fourteen-year-old girl who resides in Terry township. Robinson was given a hearing before Justice Smith and was sent to the county jail for trial. The offense with which Robinson is charged does not admit of bail, and the penalty is not to exceed fifteen years in the penitentiary. The prisoner will probably be tried at the next term of court.

LOOMIS OPERA HOUSE

Among the many real novelties of stagecraft, as viewed in the instructive light, that will be presented next week in our playhouse the Chicago Stock Company will produce on next Thursday evening Jacob Litts' famous play of the race course, entitled "The Suburban." It is from the pen of C. T. Dazy, author of "In Old Kentucky." There is an abundance of good comedy in the bill and it is a play which never fails to please all classes. To all who are familiar with the race course, the name Suburban recalls what is undoubtedly the most famous and interesting of American races. Naturally so important an event, even chosen as the title of a play, must have a large share in the development of the plot, yet it would be an error to suppose that "The Suburban" is simply a racing story, devoid of other interest. It is more than all else a story of the heart in which the great race is one of the principal incidents, but which contains many others of nearly equal importance.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD NOTES

Doings on the Iron Rail That are Matters of Interest to All

All the collieries of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company suspended last night for the balance of the week. It is difficult to understand this suspension as the present cold wave has created a brisk demand for coal and it can not be said that there is an over production in the face of this demand. It is believed by many of the mine workers that the object of the company in suspending at this time when a new agreement between the operators and miners is to be discussed, is to indicate the possibility of slack time in the future, hoping thereby to discourage the mine workers in their demands.

The case of Kunkle Bros. vs. the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company was called at Hazelton yesterday. The action is to recover damages for the killing of a team of horses on the Lehigh Valley's crossing above Drifton two years ago. Ray Bemy, the driver of the team, has also brought an action against the company for personal injuries sustained at the time the horses were killed.

Superintendent Gildroy of the Lehigh Valley has issued orders for the tearing down of part of the roundhouse at Drifton. This will mean that the capacity for the storing of the D. S. & S. engines will be limited to a meagre space, and that the report given out a short time ago that six crews would be removed from Drifton to Hazelton will prove true.

GORGEOUS SCENERY

It is safe to say that Joseph Shipman is this year taking out the most gorgeous set of scenery for his great production of "When Knighthood Was In Flower" that has ever left New York city. Five sets are required for the piece and all has been prepared after excellent descriptions of the country where the play is laid during the time about which it is written. The properties and settings have been made exact copies from originals in French and English museums and are simply magnificent. The five sets represent Windsor Park, London, on Monday, 1513, Mary Tudor's apartments at Bridewell House, London, one of the most beautiful palaces of the time, the great room of the famous Bow and Strong, Bristol, the ball room of the Palace Des Tournelles, Paris, and the morning room of the Greenwich Palace, London. At the Loomis on Friday.

COURT NEWS

Orse Carpenter, charged by a Mr. Wickizer with the larceny of a pail of butter, was acquitted by a jury at Towanda yesterday. There was only one witness for the prosecution. He swore that while Wickizer's wagon was standing on the streets in Athens, Carpenter extracted a pail of choice dairy butter therefrom, and proceeded to carry it away. A witness for the defence, however, swore that Carpenter was not the man, but that another fellow unknown to the deponent, was the thief. The jury thereupon discharged Carpenter without even charging him with half of the costs. H. F. Maynard & Son appeared for the prisoner. The cases against Game Warden Shoemaker are occupying the attention of the court today.
