TOOK POSSESSION
THIS MORNING

Messrs. Higgins & Sullivan Are Now Dully Installed as Proprietors of the Park Hotel

Messrs. Higgins & Sullivan, who recently rented the Park hotel, took possession of that hostelry this morning and are rapidly getting into shape to serve the public in a first-class manner. Under the direction of the proprietors, both of whom are experienced men, the entire building will be overhauled, renovated, repapered and painted, and new furniture and fixtures, including better lighting facilities, will also be added until the entire interior of the building has been completely transformed into a modern hotel. Mr. Higgins has for the past three or four years been connected with Wiltse's cafe, while his partner, Mr. Sullivan, has been engaged in a similar capacity at Hill & Beibach's saloon on Lockhart street. Both men are well and favorably known, and The Record can assure patrons that they will conduct their new enterprise on strictly modern principles and for the benefit of the public. In fact, patrons of the bar or cuisine department will find the best of service. Miss Dowd, who has been conducting the hotel for the past eighteen months, will go to California to reside.

ICE BUSINESS BOOMING

There is no second thought taken by the ice men this year regarding the thickness of ice. Usually it has been the custom not to harvest ice less than 8 inches thick, but this year the object is to get ice of any thickness obtainable. Make ice while the weather is cold, appears to be the maxim, and the harvest has been on the boom for the past three or four days. Throughout this section of the country hundreds of men are engaged in cutting ice and it begins to look as if the supply stored will be fully equal to the demand.

HOWARD HALL'S A SOLDIER OF THE EMPIRE

Charles Roskam's ability as a manager has been clearly demonstrated by the patronage accorded this popular company upon its annual visits to this city. This is largely due to the fact that each year better plays are added to the repertoire and the company steadily enlarged, until this year Mr. Roskam has a list of extraordinary shows which cannot fail to command standing room audiences at each performance.

The company this year supports 22 acting people, which is an increase of six people over last year. Norbert Dorente and wife will again be in the leading parts. Mr. Dorente is a favorite with our audiences, as his acting is of an excellent quality, and never fails to please.

WILLIAM WALLACE IS MENTALLY DERANGED

So Decides the Commission Which Was Appointed by Judge Fanning to Inquire Into the Man's Sanity

The commission in lunacy, consisting of Dr. H. A. LaPlant, I. N. Evans and A. B. Shearer, appointed to inquire into the sanity of William Wallace, the ex-member of the Sayre borough council, who has been acting strangely of late, met in Attorney C. C. Yocum's office on Saturday evening to take evidence and make an inquiry. After listening to the evidence the commission decided that Mr. Wallace is incompetent to care for himself and the decision has been sent to Judge Fanning for his confirmation. It is expected that the findings of the judge will be received here today. In the meantime Mr. Wallace has been remanded to the custody of Frank Terwilliger, who will personally care for him. Mr. Wallace's condition has excited considerable sympathy among those who know him. Until his mind became unbalanced he has always been known as a good citizen, and that he should lose his reason is a matter of great regret to his many friends.
