ATHENS.

Comrade J. L. Young is very ill at his home in Sheshequin.

The oil well was 782 feet in depth at midnight yesterday.

E. W. Bishop and wife spent yesterday at the home of William Erk.

Dr. F. W. Rice of Rome was in Athens over night, returning home this morning.

Mrs. E. A. Cole went to Towanda this morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Eilenberger.

Don't forget the Valentine social at Mrs. W. E. Daw's tonight. Come and bring your friends.

Mrs. George L. Pendleton gave a party this afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. C. W. Ballard of Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Miss Leona Bradley and Miss Georgia, teachers of East Athens schools, had a box Valentine social today for the scholars.

Mrs. Joseph McDaniels returned from Elmira last evening and says that Erastus W. Kellogg is getting weaker every day and will not survive much longer.

Comrade E. P. Gillette of Lawrenceville, who did valiant service in the Ninth New York Heavy Artillery, is in town visiting his sister, Mrs. D. A. Harris.

The debate last evening at Sanford's hall called out some very excellent talent and was very interesting to those who listened. The question was decided in the affirmative.

Col. Millard Hunsiker, manager of the Carnegie interests in London, telegraphed his father that he would sail for America on the Oceanica today to remain in this country one month.

The Valentine social at the Presbyterian church last evening was a delightful event. The young people spent a good many pennies shooting at the heart target and seem to think they made some startling bits.

The regular weekly meeting of the Lincoln club will be held Thursday evening, Feb. 15, at 8 o'clock, when the president desires the attendance of all the members.

Major Gore received a letter from his grandson, H. Roger Gore, last evening, stating that he had gone to Richmond on an athletic adventure and has won a gold watch and a silver medal.

TRAIN RIDER INJURED

Athens—The story of a mysterious tragedy came to Athens from Milan this morning. A man had been found with his clothes shot full of bullet holes and his head mangled and bloody that was taken up by the railroad station and carried to the hotel in an insensible condition.

ELECTED OFFICERS

Athens—The Athens Cadets met last evening and elected the following officers: Captain, Will Hosmer; first lieutenant, Marion Sawtell; second lieutenant, Leon Munn; first sergeant, Roy Van Scoten; quartermaster sergeant, Thomas Kelley; corporals, Harrison Benjamin, Ralph Kane and Harry Voorhis.

HIS "TOUCHING" STORY.

How Dr. MacArthur Once Secured a Large Offering from His Congregation.

So apt was the story told by Dr. Robert S. MacArthur in the pulpit on Sunday that it resulted in one of the largest collections of the year, says the Press.

"Out of his salary of $50 a year he gave large sums to charity," said Dr. MacArthur. "On one occasion the secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, when paying Eliot his quarterly stipend, sought to do him a service. He hit upon a plan of safeguarding the missionary's money, knowing that in all likelihood Eliot otherwise would give away every penny of it before he reached home."

"It chanced that Eliot on his way home fell in with a worthy woman, whose appearance told of dire poverty and distress. He stopped to speak to her, and pretty soon, his heart being touched, pulled out the handkerchief. He intended to give a sovereign to her. For some time he tugged and strained at the knots, but, try as he might, the corners refused to come untied. Then, calmly rolling the handkerchief up into a ball, the missionary placed it in the astonished woman's hands, saying: 'My good woman, I think the Lord meant you to have it all!'"

A BASTILLE NO MORE. Russia Removes Last Prisoners From Schlusselburg Fortress. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 14.—Five political prisoners, the last inmates of the Schlusselburg fortress, were taken from their cells last night and sent to Siberia to serve the remainder of their sentences. They were Karpovitch, who killed Minister of Education Bogaleff in 1901 for forcibly enrolling student demonstrators in the army; Gershunin and Melnikoff, accomplices in the assassination of Interior Minister Sipiaguine and organizers of the fighting organization of the special revolutionists; Sasonoff, the murderer of Interior Minister Von Plehve, and his accomplice, Sekorsky. The sentences have been materially ameliorated by the emperor's amnesty decree of November last.

A PEACEFUL REVOLUTION. Policy of Reconciliation Accepted by Irish Nationalists. LONDON, Feb. 14.—William O'Brien, the Irish member of parliament, in the course of an interview here said a peaceful revolution is going on in Ireland. The policy of conciliation, he said, is now almost universally accepted by the Nationalists, including the Orange democracy. The change had not attracted much attention in England, but every one in Ireland knows the change has taken place.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Katharine Poillon suddenly decided to answer the questions as to the sum she received in the settlement of her breach of promise suit against W. Gould Brokaw. The queries have been asked in supplementary proceedings by a judgment creditor of the little Frenchwoman. She admitted the settlement, then declared that her lawyers had "robbed her" of most of it. She declared that while Brokaw paid more than $20,000 she got only $3,000. Her lawyers, Black, Olcott, Gruber & Boyce, got the rest, she declared.
