GENEVA WITNESSES DAVID GARRICK

Smith's opera house was packed from orchestra rail to gallery last evening, to witness the production of David Garrick, under the auspices of Geneva Chapter, No. 83, Order of Eastern Star. From the hearty rounds of applause that repeatedly arose from the audience, it was evident that they were pleased with the production, which was fine from start to finish. The scenery, costumes and effects were truly beautiful and added much to the effective acting of Mr. Mallory and his assistants. Miss Genevieve Dean, who plays the part of Ada, is a clever young miss and well adapted to the part. The extravaganza which preceded the play made a hit which reflected much credit upon Mrs. Mallory's musical ability.—Geneva Evening Times, May 8, 1905.

The Tioga Hose will give the above production at the Loomis, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Feb. 21 and 22. Matinee Thursday, Feb. 22, at 2:30.

BUSY WITH COAL TRADE

At present the Lehigh Valley railroad and other coal carrying roads are busy rushing the output of coal from the various collieries in both the anthracite and bituminous regions to the market and storage places in order to have a large supply on hand should a strike be declared. This rush will continue until April, when strike or no strike, there is bound to be a lull. All the power and rolling stock are now being pressed into service and collieries are being pushed to their capacity.

CASEY SENTENCED TO AUBURN FOR LIFE

Was Convicted of Murder in the Second Degree at Elmira Yesterday Afternoon

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Elmira Harry Casey, who says that his right name is Joseph O'Donnell, was sentenced to Auburn prison for life for the murder of Charles Keough, a bartender in a notorious resort known as "Ted" McCann's hotel on Railroad avenue. After a trial lasting six days the jury convicted Casey of murder in the second degree which carries with it a life sentence.

The history of the crime is well known to newspaper readers in this section. On the night of June 3, 1905, Casey, in company with two women of disrepute, went to McCann's hotel. Drinks were ordered and for a time hilarity reigned supreme. Then Charles Keough, the bartender, ordered Casey from the place. A row ensued and Keough was shot. The jury says that Casey is the one that did the shooting. Casey escaped during the excitement that followed the shooting. He was hatless and this fact assisted the officers in capturing him two or three days later near Big Flats.

Casey, or O'Donnell, is 23 years old, and was born in Philadelphia. He is a well educated fellow, and was a piano player of considerable ability, but prostituted his talent in this respect by hiring his services almost exclusively to houses of ill fame. Throughout the entire trial Casey maintained a stolid demeanor, and when he heard the words yesterday afternoon which means imprisonment for the term of his natural life his cool nerve did not desert him.

Shortly after sentence was pronounced Casey's attorneys, Messrs. Knipp & Aldrich, moved for a new trial on the ground that the weight of the evidence was not in accordance with the verdict of the jury, and also that the court had misdirected the jury in a matter of law. The court denied the motion for a new trial and Casey will probably be taken to Auburn today. Whether or not Casey's attorneys will appeal in his behalf is not definitely determined. The motion for and a denial of a new trial simply furnishes the grounds for appeal, but it would appear from the evidence presented to the jury on the trial that justice has been done and that Casey has been given the benefit of every doubt.

During his confinement in the county jail Casey has been a model prisoner and when sentence was pronounced yesterday afternoon many of those connected with the jail who were acquainted with Casey wept out of pure sympathy.

ENGINEER HILL SCALDED AT BUFFALO

Injector on Engine Broke and Escaping Steam Burns Engineer Severely

Richard Hill, the well known Lehigh Valley engineer, who resides in Sayre at the corner of Elmer avenue and Mohawk street, is lying on a cot in the City Hospital at Buffalo suffering from severe burns which he received near that city late yesterday afternoon.

Hill was the engineerman on the engine which was drawing B.J.G. and when a short distance out of Buffalo he began to operate the injector on the engine. While so doing the injector broke and instantly Hill was enveloped in steam, and before he could beat a retreat was severely scalded about the face and shoulders. His hands were also badly burned. He was taken from his engine by the fireman and hastened to the hospital. While the burns are not of a serious nature they are very painful. It will be several days before he can leave the hospital.

Mrs. John Hill and Mrs. Henry Champion, relatives to the injured man, went to Buffalo today.

MCCRACKEN HELD TO COURT OF SESSIONS

Charged by His Wife With Failing to Support Their Two Small Children

John C. McCracken was held to court today in the sum of $200 bail, charged by his wife with failing to support their two children, aged three and six respectively. McCracken and his wife are living apart under articles of separation, and she has caused his arrest several times, alleging nonsupport of the children. Two weeks ago McCracken was again arrested and when arraigned for a hearing he entered into another agreement whereby he was to provide his children a suitable home. Pending the fulfillment of this agreement the case against him was held open until today. This morning his wife appeared in court and stated that he had not kept his promise and at the conclusion of the hearing McCracken was held to court.

WAS LYING IN THE STREET

Last night shortly after twelve o'clock a man was found lying on the sidewalk in front of Vanduyne & Hawkins' restaurant on Desmond street. He was helplessly drunk, and as the weather was somewhat against outdoor sleeping purposes, he was taken to the lock-up for the night. This morning Officer Corner took him before Justice C. S. Gay. The man refused to give his name but said that he was a soldier and that he was on his way to Washington, D. C. After a few words of advice as to the danger of drinking, especially when the thermometer is at the zero mark, the man was allowed to go on his way rejoicing.

TWICE ARRESTED, TWICE DISCHARGED

H. Jacobs Had Rather a Strenuous Time Yesterday on a Board Bill

Arrested twice in one day is the record which H. Jacobs established here yesterday. Jacobs has been boarding with John Touhey, landlord of the Touhey hotel on Thomas avenue, and the landlord alleges that Jacobs left the hotel without paying for his board and lodging. Yesterday Touhey went before Justice C. S. Gay and secured a warrant for his ex-boarder's arrest. When arraigned Jacobs was represented by Attorney C. C. Yocum and he moved his client's discharge on the grounds that the complaint did not allege that a crime had been committed. The motion was granted and a new complaint and warrant were issued and Jacobs was again arrested. He was released a second time on motion of his attorney and then Mr. Touhey took another course to collect his board bill. He caused an attachment execution to be issued, and now Mr. Jacobs will be unable to secure wages due him for labor performed for the Lehigh Valley Railroad company until after the matter is adjudicated.
