OLD COMRADES

Athens-Gabe Mullock and as old army comrade, Joseph W. Adle who served in Battery F and I First New York Light Artillery, were in Athens yesterday. Comrade Adle resides in Jackson's Hole, Unita county, Wyoming, where he is surrounded by the Rocky Mountains, and has had many hair raising encounters with bears, mountain lions, and elk. He says these wild animals have become quite docile now and he enjoys their society very much. There are millions of them but they do not harm anyone when let alone.

It is proposed to conduct a whiriwind campaign throughout the state, starting with a large mass meeting is Albany by leading pastors. Governor Higgins affirmed the claim of the backers of the bill that he stood with them in their effort to suppress race track gambling.

"When the Percy-Gray bill legalizing poolselling at race tracks was passed several years ago," said the governor "I was one of the four or five senators who opposed it. I believe that, in spirit at least, it was not constitufrom a moral standpoint it is impos sible for me to understand how the act of a man on one side of a fence can be legalized while on the other side of th fence it is a crime."

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 17 .- A mis laced switch at the west end of the Bavens yard, about twenty miles from Albany, came near causing a serious loss of life on the West Shore road. Train No. 4, known as the Continental Limited, eastbound from St. Louis to New York, crossed from the east to the west tracks by mistake and, going at the rate of sixty miles an hour, crashed into a heavily laden coal train which steed on a side track near by. The passenger engine, baggage ear, combination and day coaches left the track and were piled high in the air with the wrecked coal cars.
