

Are You Troubled With Eye Strain?

Eye Strain is Not a Disease

But arises from mechanical defects in the construction of the eye or its controlling muscles. Relief in such cases can only be had through application of suitable glasses made to correct all existing defects. I make a special study of eyesight testing in all its branches and can assure a perfect correction wherever it exists.

I Do Not Use Drops

Belladonna, Atropine or other mydriatic, injurious drugs, all of them, and belonging to a past stage in the science of optics as applied to eyesight testing. I make use of the latest and most improved scientific instruments for determining the possible presence of disease, and to measure accurately all errors of refraction and muscles.

I Recommend Glasses

Only when positively needed and clearly promising good results. Considering the character of the work I do my charge for a thorough examination of the eyes and glasses is moderate.

W. H. BAIRD, Eyesight Specialist.

Badly Homesick.

Lydia Sturdevant Sterling, a contralto, became suddenly homesick at Milan, Italy, 15 days before Christmas and started for Berkeley, Cal., at once. Just as her family had sat down to the Christmas dinner she walked in, not having allowed a servant, who had opened the street door for her, to announce her. She canceled European engagements to make the trip, and returned in a week.

Non-Smokers.

Neither President Roosevelt nor Vice President Fairbanks use tobacco, a coincidence which somewhat discredits the assertion that smoking is becoming almost universal. It is so suggested that the social smoke is not absolutely essential to "getting along" in the world.—Youth's Companion.

Absent-Minded.

A policeman going his rounds in the early morning in Bath, England, saw a clock standing on the doorstep of a house. He rang the bell and found that the occupant had taken the milk pitcher up to his bedroom, leaving the clock where he had intended to put the pitcher.

Oldest Woman Writer.

Mrs. Francis Alexander, of Florence, is one of the oldest women, if not the oldest, writing to-day. Mrs. Alexander is in her ninety-third year and has just translated from the Italian more than 120 miracle stories and sacred legends.

On the Common Highway.

We are learning that a standard of social ethics is not attained by traveling a sequestered pathway, but by winking on the thronged and common road where all must turn out for one another, and at least see the size of one another's burdens.

Too Much of It.

The Doctor—So there's bad blood between you and the new cook already, is there?

The Professor—Well, to tell the truth, she does serve the steak too rare.—Chicago Tribune.

THEY GOT 15 DAYS IN THE COUNTY JAIL

Waverly—A Waverly young man is in trouble at Owego. On Tuesday night a warrant was sworn out for Joseph McHale and an Owego young man, charging them with unjustifiably running horses on the public highway. Officer Horgan made the arrest and they were brought before Justice Loring. They plead guilty and were sentenced to fifteen days each in the county jail. The young men had hired a livery rig of Liveryman Voorhis and drove about the Owego streets at a high rate of speed, and brought the horse back to the livery in very bad shape.

WARREN--NELSON

Frederick E. Warren of Buffalo, and Miss Vera B. Nelson were united in marriage by Rev. George A. Briggs, pastor of the Baptist church, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Nelson, in Pine street, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Warren is a popular Lehigh brakeman and his bride is one of Waverly's most accomplished young ladies. There were about thirty guests present and the young people were the recipients of many presents. After their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Warren will take up their residence in Buffalo.

LOST CHILD IS FOUND

Jerome, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh, wandered away from his home on Lincoln street about 11 o'clock this morning and occasioned quite a large stir for such a little chap. Members of the family searched without avail until past the dinner hour. Then Mr. Walsh, who is Sayre's chief of police, got busy. The child was finally located in South Waverly about 1 o'clock. The Waverly police put him aboard a trolley car and his arrival at Sayre soon after brought back peace and happiness to the Walsh household. The chief is still engaged in figuring how the child got so far away from home.

IN-THE SUNNY SOUTH

Manager Jackson's last attraction at the opera house, in the Sunny South, presented by one of J. C. Rockwell's companies, was by far the best show he has ever played. The house was all sold before the curtain was raised and several hundred were turned away. The company kept the audience in roars of laughter throughout the evening. James Turner, the leading comedian, has a style of his own that wins the applause of the house repeatedly. Manager Jackson expects to book the company for a return date—Saranac Lake, N. Y.
