Growing Evil

An "Anti-Cigarette Club" was formed last night at the home of Mrs. Reynolds, corner of Lincoln street and Keystone avenue. The organizers and members of the club are all little fellows whose ages range from nine to fourteen years and their object is a highly laudable one. They intend to hold meeting and do all that they can to discourage the use of the vile paper covered weeds that are doing so much toward destroying the youth of this country. The following officers were elected: President, Harry Ademy; vice president, Leon Shedden; secretary Rodney Stedje; treasurer, Douglass Vanderpool; committee, Howard Sinabough, Herry Slater.
After the regular business meeting, refreshments were served.

The Packer band will hold their dance on Tuesday evening next instead of this evening. It will be the last dance of the season.

will be completed in a few weeks.
The track has been considerably

There will be a meeting of the Sayre High School Alumni Associa-

There were about forty-five couples in attendance at the hop given in the Movanho club rooms last evening. The affair was in charge of a committee of the club and a most pleasant time was enjoyed. The hall was very tastily decorated and Kram's orchestra furnished the music.

NEW SCHEDULE IS NOW READY

The Valley Grievance Committee Finished Its Work at Wilkes-Barre Yesterday

The grievance committee representing the various branches of the brotherhoods of the Lehigh Valley Trainmen held a very brief meeting at Wilkes-Barre yesterday morning and then adjourned to meet the officials of the company at some future date to be determined by the latter.

While absolute secrecy was maintained, the members did not desire to hide the fact that their business was about completed and the amendments to the schedule arranged almost satisfactory to the present management. However, this will not be done for several weeks, as there are a number of minor matters to be taken up and discussed with the various division superintendents before any general plan is agreed upon.

It was decided to seek an audience with General Manager M. B.
Cutter for the purpose of reaching an agreement on the demands of the trainmen and conductors, as formulated at Buffalo in October.
In presenting these demands the trainmen and conductors will fed-erate. There was talk of the conductors breaking away from the federation proposition, but it was realized by the conservative ones that their only hope of securing their demands was the federation plan and accordingly it was decided by them to unite forces with the trainmen.

THEY LIKE THE DANCE

The young people of Sayre admire the dance. The inspiring strains of the two step and waltz fascinates them to a point beyond comprehension. Yesterday afternoon 80 or more couples attended a matinee dance in Eighmey's hall.
Dancing began at 2 o'clock and continued, with only fifteen minutes intermission, until 6. In the evening the Movanho club, prettily and tastily decorated for the occasion, was the scene of another terpsichorean event, and it is safe to say that nine-tenths of those in attendance were also present at the afternoon dance. There is only one way to explain it: The boys go because they know the girls will be there, and the girls go because—well, because they like to dance.

PAT QUINN AGAIN

Pat Quinn of Laquin quaintly quibbled in Athens last evening and queerly wandered around for quarters. He had been invited to leave several other towns in this vicinity and had a quantity of querosity as to where he would hang out. Chief Mulligan quietly took him by the collar and invited him to quit. He complied without any further compliments but with many qualms of conscience.

EDGAR E. WALKER

Edgar E. Walker died at the residence of John Dezutter, 248 Spring street, at about 7 o'clock last evening, aged 24 years. He was an unmarried man and leaves no family with the exception of two brothers and one sister. The funeral will take place from the Dezutter residence Sunday at 2 o'clock, p. m.; interment in Tioga Point cemetery. Rogers & Miller, undertakers, in charge.

MONTH OF HOLIDAYS

February should be called the month of holidays. It is the shortest month in the year and has three holidays: Lincoln's birthday, spring election day, and Washington's birthday, to say nothing of St. Valentine's day and groundhog day. Talking about the groundhog, the little beast certainly made good this year.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
WELL ATTENDED

The Sayre Methodist Church Was the Scene of a Brilliant Affair Last Evening

About five hundred persons attended the birthday party given in the church parlors of the Methodist church last evening. This birthday party was a general affair, and was intended to include everyone who cared to be present, the only obligation imposed being that each one who came should contribute as many cents as they were years old. The collection taken would indicate that several of the donors had reached the century mark.

A speaker was chosen to represent every month in the year and was expected to show conclusively that his month was superior to every other month. The reasons given seemed satisfactory to everyone and caused much merriment.

Mrs. Nona Gray Rice gave two readings, The Debating Society and The Parsons Philosophy, both of which were highly appreciated.

After the entertainment an excellent luncheon, which had been prepared by the ladies of the church was served.

FITTINGLY OBSERVED WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Tioga Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, celebrated Washington's birthday with a meeting at the home of the First Vice Regent, Mrs. Elmer, in Waverly. There were twenty-seven members and a number of guests present. Photographs of George and Martha Washington and his mother, Mary Washington, occupied prominent places.

Mrs. Elmer presided at the meeting. The regular business was transacted. It was voted to send $25 for Memorial Continental Hall.

Mrs. Brooks read a short article on Washington. "How George Washington Spent His Birthdays" was read by Mrs. M. P. Murry.
The first popular celebration of his birthday was in 1784, and there was some celebration of it each year after that. In 1799, on the last birthday before his death, he attended a public gathering in Alexandria in his honor. Mrs.
Sheldon read an interesting article on the character of Washington.

Miss Finch read a very interesting paper on "Historic New York" which was written by Miss Fannie Millsbaugh. It gave the history of Bowling Green; of the leaden statue of George III which was run into bullets to fight against him; of Trinity church and churchyard; of King's college near Columbia, and of many other interesting places and events.

The meeting closed with the singing of "America." Refreshments were served during the social hour. At the meeting of the executive committee six new names were accepted.

NOTICE

I do not wish any of my customers or friends to think that the retirement of J. W. Arthur from the firm of Arthur & Company and the dissolution of that firm will make any change in the business, it is only a progressive step in the same line. I shall in the future endeavor to serve my patrons better and keep all I now have and get just as many more as I can. Give me a trial, and I'm sure you will come again.
D. M. ARTHUR,
416 Stevenson St., Sayre.

ELECTED A DIRECTOR

At a meeting of the Valley directors, held in Philadelphia yesterday S. P. Wolverton, former member of the Pennsylvania legislature, and attorney for the Coxie Brothers Coal Company, was elected a director of the company to succeed the late Alexander B. Coxie.

MUSICIANS MAY ORGANIZE UNION

Meeting Will Be Held in Stone's Hall, Waverly, on Sunday Next to Discuss the Matter

The musicians of Sayre, Athens and Waverly will meet in Stone's hall, Waverly, on Sunday next for the purpose of discussing the feasibility of organizing a musicians' union. For some time there has been considerable agitation of the subject, and so persistent has it become that it has been decided to call the musicians together and dispose of the agitation either one way or the other.

The meeting will be called to order at 5 o'clock, and it is earnestly hoped that all the musicians in the valley who are interested in the matter will be in attendance, as it is desired that all may have opportunity to express their views.

Strictly speaking there are no professional musicians in the valley, the word "professional" being interpreted as applying to one who gains his livelihood by following this or that profession. On the other hand, however, there are any number of amateur and semi-professional brass and string instrument players, pianists, etc., who are desirous of forming an organization whereby a schedule of prices can be adopted and maintained that will protect all concerned.

If an organization is effected it will be affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

THE J. C. ROCKWELL CO.

The Sunny South company at the Clement Theatre last evening was not only greeted with a large house, but a very enthusiastic one.
Manager Rockwell, in his new enterprise, gives one of the cleanest colored shows that ever visited the town. The street parade in itself was a pleasant picture. The wardrobe being new, bright and fetching. The brass band did good work and the orchestra rendered some good selections during the evening. The Turners were a very clever sketch team; James proving a comedian of no mean merit.
Louise has a full contralto voice, her bass part in the ladies' quartette being a pleasant surprise and worthy of much praise. Drake and Carrington, both good singers and dancers, were a card in themselves and received a warm reception. The male and female quartette received numerous encores.
The old southern melodies sung by different ladies of the company gave great pleasure. The first part ended with a whirl of genuine darkey dancing. Every member of the company is a good singer and dancer.

Manager Rockwell has given us one of the best colored shows that ever visited our town. The wardrobe is all new and pretty, numerous changes being made during the performance. The last act especially a ball room scene, where all are dressed in evening costume.
The Sunny South is all right.— Sherbrook Record. At the Loomis on Monday night.

DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT

Harvey Gray will give the fifteenth of a series of dances in Eighmey's hall on tomorrow evening. The Loomis opera house orchestra will furnish the music.
It will be the last dance before Lent and a large crowd and a fine time is anticipated. The dances will be resumed after the Lenten season is over.

RICHARD HILL IMPROVING

Richard Hill, the Lehigh engineer who was quite seriously scalded while on his engine near Buffalo one day last week, still continues to improve, friends in this place having heard from him today.
It is stated that it will be at least ten days before he is able to leave hospital at Buffalo.
