BULLET NARROWLY MISSED WOMAN

Street-corner Loafers Who Amuse Themselves by Shooting a Revolver to Annoy Pedestrians

Between nine and ten o'clock last night a shot from a revolver in the hands of a member of a gang of street corner loafers, congregated at the corner of East Packer avenue and South River street, narrowly missed striking a woman who was passing along the street, and caused consternation among the peaceful inhabitants of the neighborhood. For some time past, and especially when the nights have been warm, a gang, composed of boys and young men, whose ages range anywhere from 10 to 21 years, has been in the habit of congregating at the corner named and when not located at this point amuse themselves by prowling about dwellings in that neighborhood, peering into the windows, knocking on front doors and otherwise annoying the residents. Last night they assembled as usual and when they saw the woman, who had been to a store on an errand, one of them fired a revolver in her direction. The bullet whizzed past her in close proximity and spent itself in the air. The woman screamed and the gang laughed, and then ran to their respective domiciles.

The people residing in the neighborhood rushed to their doors to see if any one had been shot and this morning complaint was entered to the police. It is likely that complaints will be made against members of this gang as their names are all known to the authorities and in the event of their arrest there will be a job for the grand jury.

MOVANHO CLUB MET LAST NIGHT

Plans Effected Whereby the Club Will Temporarily Suspend—Furniture Sold and Rooms Abandoned

At a meeting of the members of the Movanho club held in their rooms last night, measures were adopted by which the club is temporarily disbanded. The club was organized over four years ago for social and athletic purposes, and for a time great interest was taken in its affairs by the members. For the past year, however, the membership has fallen off perceptibly and last night it was decided to abandon the project for a time at least. This step on the part of the members was deemed advisable as at the present time the club's finances were in good shape and dissolution could be effected without embarrassment.

According to a statement given out this morning the charter will be retained by the present members so that if at any time in the future it is desired to reorganize, and do business a meeting can be called for the purpose, and a reorganization effected with but little trouble.

At the meeting of the club held last night the furniture and other paraphernalia was disposed of to the members, nearly all the members buying one or more articles.

The rooms in the Wheelock block which have been occupied by the club for some time will be abandoned as will everything else that has been an item of expense.

The dissolution of the club will be regretted by many of the members. The rooms were nicely fitted for the purpose and they have been a source of much enjoyment to the younger members who made it a point to spend many of their evenings there. It is hoped that ere another winter passes interest in the club can be renewed and a reorganization effected.

MRS. HEN IS BUSY AND EGGS ARE DOWN

The Fresh Product of the Prolific Fowl Is Now Being Sold at the Regular Spring Prices

"I lay two eggs every day and have to go barefoot." It ever Madame Hen was justified in making her long famous retort to Sir Chanticleer's high keyed boasts, that time is now.

It has been many, many springs since Mrs. Hen has been as busy as she is now. Perhaps she has been influenced by the result of the recent municipal election in Sayre, and decided to take a fall out of the cold storage speculators. There are added minds, however, that will not admit that the hens of the country are laying as never before from purely ethical motives. They insist that the mild weather is the cause of the incessant cackling the country over. Storage eggs that were sold a year ago at the rate of 20 cents a dozen are being sold at from 8 to 10 cents per dozen. Many speculators, like Humpty Dumpty, have toppled from the wall of high prices with disastrous consequences to themselves. But the unfeathered biped who likes eggs for breakfast is well pleased, as he can now get strictly fresh eggs in most places at the regular spring prices. For that reason the farmer hen syndicate is squeezing the cold storage speculator as he has never been squeezed before. At present it is estimated that there are 200,000 cases of eggs in storage at various points throughout the country and speculators fear that the present low prices will prevail until spring.

MR. CADY'S LAST SUNDAY

The Rev. F. T. Cady, who has been rector of the Church of the Redeemer for the past five years, will conduct services in that church tomorrow for the last time. Next week Mr. Cady will go to Ambridge, this state, to become the rector of the Episcopal church in that place. During his pastorate here Mr. Cady has made scores of friends, not only among his own congregation but with the people of Sayre generally, and all will exceedingly regret his departure. He will be followed, however, by their best wishes. He will probably remove to Ambridge some time during the coming week as his pastorate is to begin in that place on the first of next month.

HIT BARTENDER WITH CANE

Between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning Thomas Hassen, a bartender at the Sayre House, went to the office of Dr. Higgins and had several stitches taken in a contused wound in the back of the head, the result of having been hit with a cane in the hands of a man whom Hassen had ordered out of the hotel late in the evening. It is said that the man was a cripple and that he came to the hotel with several others. Shortly after the arrival of the crowd they got noisy and the bartender told them to be quiet or leave. The bunch refused to move and the bartender, it is alleged, attempted to forcibly eject them. During a scuffle which followed Hassen was hit on the head with a cane. The bunch beat a hasty retreat—and Hassen visited a doctor.

THE SUNNY SOUTH

The great cake walk, a gorgeous gathering of genius in grace, style and action. You have never seen anything like this show. It is both novel and unique. An entertainment of such positive merit and matchless mirth that it actually defies comprehensive description. This company is carefully selected from the best of colored talent. Come and see a realistic picture of slavery days. 10 buck and wing dancers, 20 cake walkers and pickaninies, 10 plantation dancers, 8 jubilee singers and coon shouters, 2 quartettes, 15 musicians, 6 guitarists and banjoists, and a grand finale of 30 people. Up to date in everything. At the Loomis on Monday next.

ICE HAS MOVED OUT

The ice has moved out of the Susquehanna river, the warm weather of the past three or four days having caused it to break up rapidly. Today the weather has been balmy and springlike, and there are those who declare that they heard the musical notes of the robin.

THANKS AND A REQUEST

The ladies of the M. E. church desire to return thanks to all who in any way contributed to the success of the birthday social. If those receiving pockets, who could not or did not care to attend the social would return them with any contribution they felt disposed to make, it would be greatly appreciated. We desire to make as large a payment as possible upon the parsonage debt, and any assistance from anyone will be thankfully received. J. F. Warner, pastor. For Ladies' Aid Society.

NOTICE

I do not wish any of my customers or friends to think that the retirement of J. W. Arthur from the firm of Arthur & Company and the dissolution of that firm will make any change in the business, it is only a progressive step in the same line. I shall in the future endeavor to serve my patrons better and keep all I now have and get just as many more as I can. Give me a trial, and I'm sure you will come again. D. M. ARTHUR, 416 Stevenson St., Sayre.
