MRS. LUCY E. ARNOLD Athens--Mrs. Lucy E. Arnold, wife of A. C. Arnold, died at her home 109 North street, this morning at about 6 o'clock, after a short illness. Her maiden name was Lucy E. Lent, and she was born in Rome township, March 17, 1845. Her father, Smith Lent, was one of the pioneer preachers of that region and a noted divine who had a very great influence in the civilizing agencies of early times. Deceased was married to Addison C. Arnold Nov. 18, 1863. She was a person of fine social character, and in church and society she was always found among the workers in the benevolent agencies of the community. They removed to Athens in 1884, where they have resided ever since. She was a member of the Methodist church and also of the Rebecca lodge and the W. C. T. U. The societies and church always found her wherever work was to be done and have come to regard her as one of their most ardent supporters. Her death causes profound sorrow in the whole community. She leaves beside her husband the following children: Mrs. Leon K Lane, Athens; Elmer Arnold, Bumpville; Bernard Arnold, Vawter; Mrs. U. J. Raub, Athens. Mrs. Arnold, although she has been a sufferer for a long time, she was attending to her duties about the house yesterday morning feeling as well as usual. Later in the day she was prostrated and her symptoms became so alarming that her children were telephoned for, and they all arrived at her bedside before she breathed her last. Her family were very dear to her, and it must have cheered her dying hour to have them close to her. A short funeral service will be held from her late home tomorrow evening, Rev. Dr. Simpson officiating, and the remains will be taken to Bumpville Sunday morning, where the main service will be held, Rev. Dr. Simpson preaching the sermon. The stricken family have the heartfelt sympathies of the whole community.
