SOME HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Simple Suggestions from "Smart Set," Which May or May Not Work.

To make biscuits light—drench with gasoline and ignite before serving.

How to keep servants—chloroform them and lock in the cellar.

Quickest way to get rid of peddlers—buy all they have.

How to remove fruit stains from linen—use scissors.

To keep rats out of the pantry—place all food in the cellar.

To entertain women—Visitors—let them inspect all your private papers.

To entertain men visitors—feed the brutes.

To keep the children at home—lock up all their clothes.

To keep hubby at home—hide his toupee.

In order to prevent accidents in the kitchen—all the kerosene can with water.

To stop leaks in pipes—send for the nearest plumber.

To economize on coal—get a gas range.

To test the freshness of eggs—drop them on some hard surface.

To propitiate the janitor—it can't be done.

Franklin and Germany. Few Americans know what our German fellow citizens brought out in their celebration of the bicentennial of Franklin's birth, that he printed the first German newspaper on this continent in 1732, and that later from his office were issued important German books.

Woman's Love. "Love," remarked the moralizer, "is the strongest passion of a woman's heart."

"That's right," rejoined the demoralizer. "She's got to love something, either a new bonnet, a pug dog, a baby or a man."—Chicago Daily News.

Kissing Barred. In Russia it is unlawful to give kisses in public. A kiss in the street is penalized by a fine of $3.75, and on a street car by a fine of $5.25.

Declaration of love on a postal card renders the sender liable to a fine of $2.50.

Water Cow Drinks. Experiments show that a cow, when in full flow of milk, drinks from 1,500 to 2,000 pounds of water a month, the average quantity, determined by testing a herd, being 1,660 pounds for each cow.

Her Position. Knicker—How long was Bridget with you? Bocker—Never; she was always agin us.

Disease from Rice. Rice eating causes a wasting disease, a kind of debility, called kanka, among the Chinese and Japanese.

APPOINTMENT OF BONFOEY CONFIRMED

His Name Was Sent to the Senate Yesterday and He Will Be Sayre's Next Postmaster

The appointment of George D. Bonfoey as postmaster of Sayre has been confirmed by the United States Senate. Mr. Bonfoey's name was sent to that body yesterday by President Roosevelt and was immediately confirmed.

A GOODLY SUM REALIZED

Waverly—A goodly sum was realized at the supper and mite box offering at the Methodist church last evening. The mite boxes, which were supposed to represent contributions for some good fortune, contained over $20, and included 775 pennies and one paper dollar.

PROMISED TO KEEP SOBER

Waverly—A man named John Kennedy, who resides at Ridgebury, was arrested Thursday night on the charge of intoxication. He was given a hearing yesterday afternoon by Justice Hoagland. The justice was inclined to put him on the stone pile, but as he promised to return to Ridgebury and took an oath of eternal sobriety he was allowed to depart to his native ridge.

PETITION COMPLETED

Waverly—The Union party has secured the required number of names on their petition, and the party head and the names of the candidates will have a place on the ballot. There were 150 signers, each of whom made affidavit that he would support the ticket.

DR. STEVENS' CANDIDACY

Dr. C. L. Stevens of Athens has announced himself as a candidate for the state legislature subject to the rules of the Republican party. The name of Dr. Stevens is too well known to need extended comment. His standing not only in the ranks of his own profession but among the residents of this county generally is of a high character and scores of admiring friends will rally to his support at the polls.

DR. GRIFFIS' LECTURE

The High School Alumni Association met at the high school last night to make preparations for the lecture on the 16th. The subject of Dr. Griffis' lecture is "Sullivan's Expedition." The lecture includes a description of the Indian tribes, their methods of government and warfare; a description of the raids, and the steps taken by continental congress to suppress the five tribes.

LOCAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burlingame, Center street, have returned after visiting relatives at Laurel Hill for the past two days.

AUTOS IN GERMAN ARMY.

Corps to Be Recruited from Members of German Automobile Club.

The German army, which already has three battalions of telegraph operators and one of aeronauts, is to be provided in the near future with a volunteer corps of chauffeurs. At first, says the Scientific American, it was proposed to establish an automobile post or division, but the project was abandoned on account of the great cost it would involve.

WONDERFUL CANARY BIRD.

Singular Performances of Tiny Songster in Massachusetts Town. A wonderful canary bird belongs to a family in Everett. The little fellow has the freedom of the house, flying whithersoever he listeth at all times, says the Boston Herald.
