SAYRE SLEIGHING PARTY TIPPED OVER

One Young Woman Was Rendered Unconscious and the Others Were Rudely Shaken Up

Miss Carrie McKinney and Miss Gertrude Ashton of Sayre, accompanied by two young men friends, were taking a sleighride in Athens last evening at about 6 o'clock and when at the corner of Payne street the horse became frightened at a passing street car and shied out on the sidewalk, tipping the cutter over and throwing the occupants all out. Miss McKinney struck on her head and was rendered insensible and it was some time before she regained consciousness.

All of the parties suffered somewhat from the accident, though none were seriously injured. The young man who was driving succeeded in holding the horse, and thus averted a runaway. A thrill was broken and the party were obliged to return to Sayre in the street car.

RAN AWAY FROM HOME

Harry Utter, a boy perhaps ten years old, was taken to police headquarters last night by Officer Vogel, and held for a time to await word from the lad's parents who reside at Chemung. The boy, it is said, ran away from his home in that place a few days ago, and was located here yesterday. The boy does not want to return home. He says that he has a stepmother, and that since she came to his father's home that the latter does not treat him as a father should. The boy was taken charge of by his sister and will probably be returned to his home at Chemung.

MRS. PHEBE HULETT

The death of Mrs. Phebe Hulett occurred this morning at her home at No. 401 Cayuta street. The deceased was 75 years old, and had been ill for nearly two years, but was confined to her bed for only one week. She had resided in Sayre for 20 years, and was one of the oldest residents. She is survived by two sons, Elmer Hulett, councilman from the third ward, Charles S. of Sayre, and a sister, Mrs. Harriet Mingle, who resides at home. The funeral will occur Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the house, burial at Tioga Point cemetery.

W. C. T. U. RECEPTION

The W. C. T. U. gave a reception last evening at the home of W. H. Delancy on Cayuta street, in honor of Mrs. Manchester, who has been the president of the local union for several years. During the evening she was presented two fine pieces of silver. Mrs. Manchester will leave for Los Angeles next Monday.

FAILED TO SUSTAIN ROBBERY CHARGE

Patrick Walsh Causes Arrest of Jesse Withey on a Charge of Larceny

Jesse Withey, who resides at Oneonta, N. Y., but who for the past two months has been working in Sayre, was arrested this forenoon by Chief Walsh on the complaint of Patrick Walsh who alleges that Withey took $16 from his pants pocket while they were hanging in a room which both men occupied at a boarding house on Desmond street. The theft is alleged to have occurred on Thursday night, and according to statements made by Walsh, Withey had only been a boarder in the house for one day. The morning following the night on which the money is alleged to have been taken, Withey paid the boarding house keeper his bill and left, saying that he was going to Oneonta to see his mother, who was very ill. Shortly after he departed Walsh discovered that his money was missing.

This morning he caused a warrant to be issued and after he had been taken in custody Withey demanded a hearing which was set for 1 o'clock this afternoon. The evidence being insufficient to hold him Withey was discharged.

WILL INVESTIGATE POSTAGE STAMP MEN

Inspector Lucas Will Arrive Here Tomorrow to Look After Meade and Kelley

Charles Meade and Edward Kelley, two suspicious characters who were arrested here yesterday by Chief Walsh and Officer Bob DeGroff, in order that the authorities might have opportunity to investigate their attempting to sell postage stamps, are still inmates of the borough lockup.

Last night Chief Walsh received a telegram from H. E. Lucas, the postoffice inspector for this district, stating that he would arrive in Sayre tomorrow morning.

Since the arrest of the men it has been learned that the postoffice at Bernice was broken open a few nights ago, and it is now believed that Meade and Kelley may be able to tell something concerning the job. The thieves who broke into the Bernice office secured a quantity of stamps but no money.

WAS A FINE LECTURE

The high school hall was filled last evening with the large crowd that gathered to hear the lecture on Sullivan's expedition by Wm. Elliot Griffiths.

The lecture proved very interesting, and held the attention of the large audience throughout.

The speaker gave a very full account of the Indian country, of the causes that made the expedition necessary, giving many interesting details, and exploding many false impressions in regard to it.

He emphasized the suffering and labor that it invoked, and the good things that we enjoy as the result of the sacrifices of our forefathers. He made an appeal to the patriotism of his listeners, and urged they erect some monument to commemorate the great event, and call the attention of the citizens to the fact that this very place had a share in one of the most important events of the Revolution.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The regular services will be resumed at the Church of Christ tomorrow. Communion, 10:30, followed by sermon; theme, Church Federation. Sunday school, 12:00; Junior Endeavor, 3:30; Christian Endeavor, 6:00; meeting led by the pastor. Evening worship, 7:00; theme, Seeing Jesus. All are welcome. M. B. Wood, pastor.

IRELAND'S PATRON SAINT PATRICK

An Outline Sketch of the Chief Events of His Life

Somewhere about the year 398 A. D., a youth was carried from Gaul into Ireland and sold into bondage. This slave was none other than Patrick, who later became the celebrated christian and saint.

Though a slave, Patrick learned to love Ireland and to hold her people dear to his heart. He was no common slave, however, and after a brief servitude he made his escape and journey to France and then to Rome. In the latter city he became a teacher of the gospel. His earnestness and zeal soon placed him foremost among the greatest expounders of the faith. During his sojourn in Rome, however, his heart yearned for the children of the Emerald Isle, but it was not until he reached advanced years that his heart's desire was gratified. Upon his return to Ireland he began his work as a teacher of the gospel. Others had taught the christian faith, but with little success. Patrick found the field almost wholly to himself, and under his teachings christianity spread with amazing rapidity. His charm of person, his noble life, spent in a noble cause, made converts everywhere.

For many years Ireland was known as "The Isle of Saints," being as it was, the especial home of christianity.

Poetic legend has brought many pretty tales concerning St. Patrick, among them the familiar story of his having cast the snakes and toads out of Ireland.

When St. Patrick died—the exact date being in dispute—his body was tenderly and lovingly laid to rest in the land he loved so well.

INJURED IN A SHINGLE MILL

John Brown, a resident of Litchfield, was brought to the hospital at this place at about 7 o'clock last night suffering from a crushed wrist which he received while operating a shingle mill at Windham yesterday afternoon. Brown was in the act of shifting a belt when his arm got caught between the belt and pulley and before he was released his wrist and forearm were badly lacerated. The bones in the wrist were crushed and amputation may be necessary.
