ATHENS.

The drillers at the gas well are now down 2,350 feet.

Miss Lottie Lilley visited friends in Towanda over Sunday.

The condition of Mrs. S. R. Payne is much improved.

Ray Finch of Bucknell academy is expected home this week.

Mrs. Edward M. Cowell entertained a few friends at dinner this evening.

Rev. W. H. Sawtelle is to preach his farewell sermon on Sunday morning next.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Haverly are in Towanda today visiting friends and relatives.

Rev. J. D. Tillinghast will spend the latter part of the week with Athens friends.

The subject of the afternoon's work of the Ladies' Library club was "Quebec."

Rev. Will A. Kelley, who has been quite seriously ill, is reported somewhat better.

Miss Lottie Lilley has resumed her duties at Carner's department store, after a brief vacation.

Any one who wanted to shovel snow had no difficulty in securing work in Athens this morning.

Fred Emerson Brooks will deliver the next lecture in the high school lecture course on April 3.

Miss Cecil French of VanEtten, who has been visiting Mrs. Sid Rowe, has returned to her home.

Street Commissioner Mulligan has a force of men cleaning the snow from the streets this morning.

The literary club did not meet at the home of Miss Laura Drake, Paine street, last night, owing to the bad weather.

A. E. Allyn of Bridge street goes to Philadelphia tomorrow. Mrs. Allyn will join him later and they will locate there permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Shaw, who have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. Edward M. Cowell, returned to their home at Wellsboro yesterday.

C. T. Hull, the representative of The Valley Record at Athens, is confined to his home by an attack of the grip. Mr. Hull's illness accounts for the shortage of news in the Athens department.

SOJOURNING IN ITALY

The Hon. Charles Hinman Graves, U. S. Minister to Sweden, and Mrs. Graves, are at present enjoying a stay in Italy.

WILL APPLY FOR CHARTER

This week an application will be made for a charter for a "Reliance Casualty League." This organization somewhat resembles the M. P. A., and among those interested in its welfare are Athens, Sayre and Binghamton parties.

Hard to Down. "He's so hard to down, and so enterprising," says a Billville exchange, "that I verily believe if a earthquake was to swallow him he'd grope around until he located a gold mine!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Beat the Doctors. In the first edition of the London Medical Credit Guide, shortly to be issued, will be the names of 20,000 living in London and vicinity who have forgotten to pay their doctors' bills.

Cruelly Selfish. Fellow criminals will probably have little sympathy for the man who escaped from the prison the other day when he locked the doors behind him so that the others could not get out.

Ever Notice It? The Doctor—You never can disguise the real thing. Culture will tell. The Professor—Yes; so will ignorance—but it generally uses more words in telling it.—Chicago Tribune.

CRISIS AT INDIANAPOLIS.

Miners and Operators Conference Today to Decide War or Peace.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 20.—That there will be a second joint conference of coal operators and miners of the central competitive district, comprising Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and western Pennsylvania, has been definitely determined.

Following the retirement of F. L. Robbins, president of the Pittsburgh Coal company, as chairman of the operators and the election of J. H. Winder of Ohio as his successor a resolution was adopted providing that the operators of the four states should elect their own spokesmen and that there be no official representatives of the four states collectively either in joint convention or joint scale committee.

Outlaw Shot by Police Officer. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 20.—Two men who, it is believed, may be members of the Wickliffe trio of Cherokee outlaws who have been chased in the Indian Territory just over the border from here for the past week came to Springfield, and one of the men surrendered to the local police after a desperate struggle.

German Sugar Men's Protest. BERLIN, March 20.—The Society of the German Sugar Industry has sent to the government and the reichstag a petition asking that in the forthcoming negotiations of a treaty of commerce with the United States provision be made to place German sugar on an equality with cane sugar in the American market.

Counterfeiter Released. LONDON, March 20.—William Barnash, who was sentenced three years ago to ten years in prison for counterfeiting notes of the Bank of England, in connection with which Joseph Stern was arrested in New York in 1902, has been liberated.

Steamer Cearense Floated. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 20.—The British steamer Cearense, from Para for New York, which went ashore near the Toms river life saving station last Friday, was floated late yesterday.

Ceylon Rubber. According to information supplied by the Institute of Tropical Research, recently founded in connection with Liverpool university, Ceylon has, in the last season, shipped 100,000 pounds of rubber, all produced from the island plantations.

A COMMON CRIME. It is rightly held to be disgraceful for a man to snore. It argues physical imperfection, just as profuse sweating argues moral imperfection. The man who snores is coarsely and loosely put together.

and an extremely beautiful girl, traveling under the care of the conductor. On the first night after leaving San Francisco a terrible case of snoring was developed. The snorer was apparently occupying a berth near the middle of the car, and his snoring was so loud and deep that it partially drowned the noise of the train.
