PERSONAL MENTION

Emma Bunting at the Loomis tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Jersey golden potato chips. They have no equal, at W.S. Wright's. 266-3

On account of the storm, trains passing over the Lehigh Valley were materially shortened.

It might be remembered that it is no disgrace to shovel off your own sidewalk while it is to leave it piled high for pedestrians to wade through.

PHILIP HACKETT IS STILL MISSING

Man Who Is Alleged to Have Escaped From An Officer at This Place Yesterday Has Not Yet Been Found

The disappearance of Philip Hackett from a Lehigh Valley train here yesterday morning remains as much of a mystery as ever and the local police authorities have thus far been unable to obtain the first clue as to his whereabouts.

Hackett was in charge of a trusted agent of the Hudson River Day Steamer Line, but what he was charged with no one here knows. All the information that the police have in the matter was made known in the telegram which Chief Walsh received yesterday, and that was vague indeed. It is believed by some that Hackett did not escape at this place at all, but that he left the car farther down the line while the man who had him in charge was peacefully sleeping. Then it is thought that the man who had him in custody reported the escape as occurring in Sayre in order to square himself with his superiors. At any rate Hackett has not been apprehended and the chances are that he never will be, at least by the police in this section of the country.

LIBRARY CLUB MEETING

The Ladies' Library club met yesterday afternoon at the library building in Athens, and those present listened to a very entertaining talk on Quebec, the St. Lawrence River and the Gulf of St. Lawrence, consisting not only of historical points of interest but picturesque ones as well. The talk was given by Mrs. Howard Allen, and she held the interest of her auditors from the beginning to the conclusion. A humorous selection was read by Mrs. Franklin Carey. The musical program was of an exceptionally fine character and consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. O. L. Haverly, a piano solo by Miss Mellie Weaver and a piano trio by the Misses Weaver, Williams and Flory. The list of new officers to be balloted for next week was offered by Mrs. Louise Murray, chairman of the nominating committee. Owing to the snow storm which prevailed yesterday the attendance was not as large as usual.

EXPECTED HERE TODAY

Government Inspector Gorman is expected to arrive in Sayre this afternoon to investigate the case of Kelley and Meade the two men who have been held here for several days on suspicion of having come into possession of a quantity of postage stamps in an unlawful manner. The men are still inmates of the borough lockup and unless the inspector arrives here today, according to agreement, it is quite likely that they will be liberated, as the case against them appears to be somewhat weak.

SHIPPING TROUT FRY

Trout fry are being shipped from the various hatcheries to points throughout the state. A week or more previous to their shipment letters are sent out notifying the applicants of the date and hour of shipment so as to be prepared. If no answer is received the fish are not shipped, because in past years thousands of fry died owing to the fact that there was no one to receive them at the stations.

PLAY BALL!

Signs of the approaching base ball season are multiplying. The first score has made its appearance; umpires are buckling on their armor; fans are giving their vocal organs a liberal amount of exercise, and in less than a month the two major league champion contest will have started. Play ball!

HAVE MODIFIED THEIR DEMANDS

Lehigh Valley Men Now Await An Answer From General Manager Cutter

Like the miners, the Brotherhood of Trainmen and Conductors of the Lehigh Valley railroad have modified their demands and await a hearing on them from General Manager Cutter.

The trainmen and conductors were to present their demands as a federated body, but General Manager Cutter refused to treat with them as a federation, and it was decided to confer with him on their respective demands as separate bodies. The conductors and trainmen, when they adopted their demands last October at Buffalo, decided to stand together in presenting them, but certain influences have been brought to bear on the conductors, with the result that they evinced an indisposition to stand by the federation proposition. There is now every prospect of a new wage and employment agreement being decided on at an early date. Since last December both sides have been endeavoring to reach a settlement but after a conference had been held nothing resulted therefrom. Finally the demands of the employees were modified and they are now in a fair way to be accepted by the company.

BRAKEMAN BEATEN BY A TRAMP

A Lehigh Valley Employee Is the Victim of a Cowardly Attack from a Hobo

Charles Mulligan, a Lehigh Valley brakeman who resides at Hazleton, was cruelly beaten by a hobo on Monday evening and is now lying on a cot in the state hospital suffering from concussion of the brain.

Mulligan was in the flagman's shanty at Hazleton putting coal in the stove when a hobo entered and before Mulligan was aware of his intentions the man hit him a stunning blow over the head with a blunt instrument. Mulligan was found later by a railroad man. He was in an unconscious condition and was immediately hurried to the hospital.

It is said that the railroad men incurred the displeasure of the hobos because they would not allow the knights of the road to occupy the shanty.

It is thought that Mulligan will recover.

ARE NOT SAYRE WOMEN

Three women giving their names as Maud Williams, Dora Combs and Florence Rolf were committed to jail at Owego recently to await trial. At the time of the arrest it was stated in one of the Owego papers that one or two of the women came from Sayre. A search of the directory does not reveal the names of any of the women, and it has since been learned that the trio were from Smithboro.

BROKE RIGHT ARM

C. Malcom Myer, mail agent on the Lehigh Valley running between Jersey City and Buffalo, fell while going down the steps of his North Main street home at Towanda, on Monday night and broke his right arm. Mr. Myer was just leaving the house to go to the upper station when the accident occurred.

APPOINTED ARBITRATORS

E. J. Ayers, M. J. Long and Charles P. Welles, all of Towanda, have been selected as arbitrators in the suit for damages of William Ackley vs. the Lehigh Valley railroad company.

FREE ANTI-TOXIN DOING GOOD WORK

Not a Death in the State Where It Has Been Used Promptly.

A short time ago Dr. Samuel Dixon, state health commissioner, announced that by the free use of anti toxin among diphtheria victims who were too poor to pay for the serum the death rate had been reduced to 88 per cent. Now, Dr. Dixon announces, that for the four months just passed, November and December, 1905, and January and February, 1906, according to the records compiled in his department, there has not been a single death from diphtheria where the free anti-toxin provided by the state has been used within twenty four hours after the onset of the disease and in doses recommended in the circular sent out by the commissioner.

Dr. Dixon attaches great importance to this and hopes that the same results will be secured in a far larger number of cases by physicians throughout the state using free anti-toxin more promptly. This prompt use of the anti-toxin has been urged by Health Commissioner Dixon from the start of the free distribution. He has urged it in his correspondence with fellow medical men and the local boards of health throughout the state, and especially in the circular which is contained in every package of the state's free anti-toxin.

EMMA BUNTING

Theatregoers of Waverly will be pleased to learn that the Emma Bunting Co. has by special arrangement been booked for a return engagement at the Loomis Opera House on March 22 for a matinee and night performance. The company made a very favorable impression on their previous visit here this season and will no doubt attract large audiences on the return. The matinee bill will be "The Girl from the West," one of the most pleasing society dramas ever written. It is modern in every way, the scenes and story of the play being laid in California. Beautiful costuming is to be seen throughout. In the evening one of the greatest sensational comedy dramas ever presented on any stage will be seen. It is entitled "The Sidewalks of New York," and as the name infers, every type familiar to frequenters of the metropolis will be seen. The story is thrilling and interesting throughout, introducing many sensational climaxes. The vaudeville features which proved so enjoyable during the company's previous visit, will be seen in entirely new acts.

TOWN HALL PLANS

The town hall committee of the borough council will probably hold a meeting in a few days to take action on the several sets of plans which have been furnished by the architects. Five sets of plans in all have been received but it is quite likely that the committee will reject all of them. The best features of each set, however, will be taken and entirely new plans prepared which will be recommended to the council.
