WHEELER MEMORIAL

Assembly at Atlanta Pays Tribute to Dead Leader.

HIS DAUGHTERS GUESTS OF HONOR

Corporal Tanner, in Brilliant Address, Spoke of High Qualities of General Idolized by Southern People.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 28.—Uniting in their tribute of veneration, honor and respect to the memory of General Joseph Wheeler, the leader in two wars, his comrades and foes in the sixties and his followers in the war with Spain gathered here and joined in such a celebration as is accorded to few men in military or civic life.

Moused to a pitch of enthusiasm by the words of General Wheeler's friend and associate in war and in peace, former Congressman John W. Maddox, the old soldiers shouted themselves hoarse.

The guests of honor were the daughters of General Wheeler—Miss Annie Wheeler, the "army angel" of the Cuban war; Miss Lucy Wheeler, Miss Carrie Wheeler and Mrs. Julia Wheeler-Harris.

Corporal Tanner paid a high compliment to the courage and ability of General Wheeler as shown on many battlefields, both in the civil war as a Confederate leader and in the Spanish war as an American commander.

He expressed hope that a monument to General Wheeler's memory would be erected, as is proposed, saying: "Many monuments have been proposed that have never been built."

Mr. Tanner also complimented the women of the south in high terms, saying: "The Union forces would have achieved success, in my opinion, eight months sooner than they did if it had not been for the women of the south."

DID NOT APPEAL TO ROOSEVELT

President Mitchell Offered Scale of 1905—No Agreement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 28.—When the joint conference of the operators and miners opened at Tomlinson hall here President Mitchell and Secretary Wilson of the miners, J. H. Winder, chairman of the operators; H. N. Taylor of the Illinois operators, H. I. Chapman of the Ohio operators and the delegates were present.

Mr. Mitchell denied a report circulated in the hall before the joint conference was called to order to the effect that the miners had asked President Roosevelt to use his efforts toward securing peace.

The report of the committee setting forth its disagreement was received and made part of the record. Following the adoption of the report there was silence in the hall for ten minutes, each side apparently waiting for the other to make the first move.

President Mitchell finally arose and said it was his expectation that some proposition would be made by the other side looking to a settlement of the wage difference. It was plain, he said, that the operators had not been able to agree among themselves.

The miners had gone out of their way to secure a settlement. If there was a disagreement the responsibility was with the operators. One large state had agreed to pay an advance in wages. He thought the operators of the other states of the district should make a statement in defense of their position.

He offered as a basis for settlement the restoration of the scale of 1903. An adjournment was taken without any agreement being arrived at.

SPRINGS GOT THE LIMIT.

Negro Convict Will Finish His Life in Sing Sing.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Bob Spriggs, the negro, whose Cornellia street girl cage for years held white prisoners at the pleasure and mercy of negro men, will serve the balance of his days at hard labor in Sing Sing.

Judge Cowing sentenced him to twenty years' imprisonment. This means a life sentence to the mullatto, as with all commutation for good conduct he faces an actual imprisonment of fourteen years, and he is forty-eight years old now.

His woman associate in the nefarious traffic, Sallie Bennett, a fat negro, was given a sentence of ten years.

Spriggs looked ill and scared when brought into the court, where a jury in less than eight minutes found him guilty of abducting Hattie Warren, one of the most miserable of his human chattels.

Most Damages the Regicides. BELGRADE, Servia, March 28.—M. Jovanovic, Serbian commercial agent at London, has informed the cabinet that Great Britain has stipulated as a condition preliminary to the resumption of diplomatic relations.

Following the assassination the night of June 10, 1903, of King Alexander and Queen Draga, King Peter, the successor to the throne of Serbia, appointed to high offices several of those who were concerned in the crime.

PERKINS IS ACCUSED

Charge Against Morgan's Partner by District Attorney.

NEW YORK LIFE CAMPAIGN GIFT ISSUE

Test Case Wherein First of Notable Insurance Chiefs Faces Criminal Prosecution—Warrant Issued on Technical Charge.

NEW YORK, March 28.—George W. Perkins, partner of J. Pierpont Morgan, will be the first of the notable men in the life insurance cases to face criminal prosecution. At the request of District Attorney Jerome, it is said, Magistrate Moss has issued a warrant for Perkins on a technical charge.

According to the programme, he will appear in the Center street police court today, and the warrant will then be served.

If the test case against Perkins holds good it is stated that Mr. Jerome will obtain warrants for others connected with "yellow dog" funds and insurance contributions to campaign funds.

On the morning of the day when the grand jury, acting upon the instructions of Judge O'Sullivan, expected to call upon him with a formal demand for the evidence he holds against the insurance grafters District Attorney William Travers Jerome began a prosecution on his own hook by means of police court warrants.

Regardless of the action by Jerome, the judges of the court of general sessions will push the investigation that they paved the way for. It looks like a fight to a finish between the district attorney's office and the grand jury room, with punishment for the insurance plunderers at the end of it by one means or another.

There was a scene when the grand jury reported to Judge O'Sullivan. Mr. Jerome started to say something, apparently for the jury's benefit, but the judge ignored him and sent the grand jurors about their business.

As soon as he reached the criminal courts building the district attorney hurried into the Center street court, where for half an hour he was in private consultation with Magistrate Joseph Moss. The two men were closeted in the magistrate's private office.

When Jerome and Moss issued from their consultation it was stated that at Jerome's request Magistrate Moss would at once issue warrants charging technical offenses against a man whose name had been prominently connected with recent life insurance disclosures.

Mr. Jerome at first asked the magistrates to give him several warrants off-hand. It is said that among those whom he wanted to arrest were George W. Perkins, Cornelius M. Bliss and George B. Cortelyou, but Magistrate Moss declined to issue any warrants unless depositions were first furnished to him.

Ten Arrests in Enterprise Bank Case. PITTSBURGH, March 28.—In the face of denials by government officials it was learned from an authoritative source that warrants have been issued for four other persons in connection with the collapse of the Enterprise National bank. HOCUS POCUS BEAT FAVORITE.

Good Sport at Benning Track—Four First Choices Defeated.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Two favorites, three heavily played second choices and one outsider won the races at Benning.

Tiekle, a strong second choice, won the first race, making a show of her field. In the second, a maiden affair, with fifteen starters, Lady Vera had little difficulty in demonstrating her right to the title of favorite, although she was pressed at first by Bontant.

The latter ran away before the race and finally could do no better than fourth. Disobedient, made the favorite in the fourth race, was beaten easily by Hocus Pocus. In the sixth race, a handicap for three-year-olds, the race ran true to form, Yorkshire Lad winging handily, with Northville second.

Summary: First Race—Tiekle, first; Darum, second; Bivona, third. Second Race—Lady Vera, first; Melting, second; Powder Horn, third. Third Race—Dalpke, first; Fiat, second; Hyperion, third. Fourth Race—Hocus Pocus, first; Disobedient, second; Watercourse, third. Fifth Race—Chertrain, first; Judge White, second; Parkville, third. Sixth Race—Yorkshire Lad, first; Northville, second; Phoebe, third.

Silver Inkstand For Renegade. ST. PETERSBURG, March 28.—Emperor Nicholas has presented a silver inkstand to Leo Tikhamiroff, who has just published a book in defense of the autocracy. Tikhamiroff formerly was the idol of the revolutionists and a member of the executive committee of the People's Will, which plotted the assassination of Emperor Alexander II.

His successful escapes from the Russian secret police form a thrilling chapter in the revolutionary history of the terrorist period. In 1887 Tikhamiroff renounced revolutionism and betrayed his former comrades, in return for which he was pardoned.

THE NEWPORT FIRE

Greatest Disaster in the City's History.

LOSS OF TWO MILLION DOLLARS.

New York, New Haven and Hartford Docks Destroyed With Fall River Steamer Plymouth—Other Vessels Damaged.

NEWPORT, R. I., March 28.—The most disastrous fire in this city's history swept that part of the water front owned by the Fall River line, causing a loss of $2,000,000.

The big Fall River line steamer Plymouth was burned to the water's edge, and the flames from her spread to the Puritan, the Priscilla, the Naugatuck and the City of Lowell, all of which narrowly escaped complete destruction.

The flames then spread to the docks of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, leaped from one end of the pier to the other, and when the firemen came they were confronted by a wall of flame which drove them back from the burning ships.

One life was lost, that of Louis Le Mont, a fireman on the Plymouth, whose home is believed to be in New York. His partially charred body was found in the bulk.

Sixteen caretakers on the five vessels, which were undergoing the annual overhauling, narrowly escaped the same fate.

Flames burst forth afresh from the hull of the Plymouth last night, and the boat was towed to a point between two piers, from which the employees of the line directed two streams of water. The ruins are smoldering, but there is no danger of further damage.

It is reported that the fire was due to a short circuit among the electric light wires on the Plymouth.

A watchman on the Plymouth was badly burned. One of the firemen had his leg broken and another has a fractured arm and broken collar bone.

The fire started on the Plymouth in the bow of the boat, deep in the hold, and soon flames were shooting forth and smoke was coming in blinding, suffocating clouds.

The men on the steamer were aroused and began to give battle to the flames. They were driven back as the fire gained headway, and then the cry of "Fire!" was raised. It was heard by the watchmen along the docks, and they echoed the alarm until it sounded out through the city.

The escape of three of the men was cut off. They dived off the starboard side of the vessel into the bay and were caught by the tide. One of the men could not swim, but his companions caught him and towed him to a raft, where they were rescued, staggering from exhaustion.

Suddenly the flames from the big Plymouth seemed to take possession of every part of her. They rose from the hold to the first, then the second and then the hurricane deck and shot toward the sky. They were caught by the wind and fanned in every direction, first one, then another, as if seeking to lick up the other steamers moored alongside. Some cut loose the Puriscilla, but she did not float out into the harbor until her white paint had been blistered and her stanch sides were scorched.

Then the Puritan and Naugatuck and the City of Lowell were freed from the big hawsers that bound them.

They did not float free, however, and but for the unexpected arrival of the ocean tug C. W. Morse, Captain Hershey of the Eastern Steamship company, all would have been burned.

By this time the flames had jumped to the piers. These burned like so much tinder, and many of them were completely destroyed.

Wood & Co., iron manufacturers, were placed on trial in the United States court here charged with accepting rebates from the Great Northern Railway company and the Mutual Transit company on shipments to Winnipeg.
