LOCAL BREVITIES

"New York by Night" at the Loomis tomorrow night.

Moving day is almost here and it is no April fool joke either.

The snow has entirely disappeared from the streets of Sayre and a thick, mushy disagreeable mixture, commonly known as mud has taken its place.

The Sayre Aerie of Eagles will meet this evening to initiate a large number of candidates. A smoker and first class vaudeville entertainment will follow. Refreshments will be served and a grand time is anticipated.

Longacre square, Astor hotel, and Harlem river bridge are picturesque scenes in the comedy drama, "New York by Night," by Henry Belmar, which is Manager Tobias offering at the Loomis next Friday evening. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

In order that the vaccination law may be upheld in Dauphin county preachers are being indicted along with the school teachers. The dignity of compulsory inoculation must be respected at all hazards. Verily, great is the majesty of the law!

At the Loomis Friday evening an original comedy drama with the title "New York by night," will have its initial production on this stage. Henry Belmar, its author, has written a play from incidents in real life, depicting characters as they really exist in the big metropolis. The principal scenes include Times square, Astor hotel, Harlem bridge at night and a mansion on upper Fifth avenue. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

BLAME PLACED ON THE TOWERMAN

Coroner Says Carelessness Caused the Death of James H. Dampman in Lehigh Valley Wreck Near Pittston

The coroner's inquest into the death of James H. Dampman, who was killed near Pittston on the Lehigh Valley in a wreck on March 12, has been finished and a verdict was rendered yesterday. Dampman was a flagman and was standing on a freight train when the engine of the eastbound Black Diamond crashed into the car. Dampman was buried beneath the debris, and when taken out was dead. The coroner held two sessions and several witnesses testified to the facts in connection with the accident. During the inquest it developed that the towerman had been guilty of carelessness in allowing the freight to pass over the main tracks when he saw that the Black Diamond was running late and liable to enter the block at any moment. The verdict of the coroner censures Thomas Harrop, the towerman, and says that he was guilty of gross carelessness. The verdict also censures the Lehigh Valley in not having the signal tower at the point near where the accident occurred located in such a manner that it can be readily seen by engineers. According to the verdict rendered by the coroner it would appear that the engine crew on the Black Diamond had been relieved of the responsibility for the wreck.

BUILDING PROSPECTS

Despite the fact that there is a growing and steady demand for houses in Sayre that will rent from $12 to $15 per month, but little preparation is being made for building this spring. At this season of the year there is usually considerable activity among the local contractors, but at the present time there is not much doing. A well known contractor said this morning that so far as he was able to ascertain there would not be many buildings erected here this spring. What the summer may bring forth no one is in a position to say, but one thing remains certain and that is the number of houses planned for erection are considerably less than in former years.

STRIKE IS PROBABLE

The operators and coal miners are as far from reaching a settlement of their difficulties as ever, and as the first of April approaches the prospects for a strike in the coal regions grow brighter. The miners yesterday unanimously refused to continue the present scale for two years. Another conference between miners and operators is being held today, and it is likely that no agreement will be reached. In the meantime the public stands helplessly by, knowing that in which ever manner it turns out it will have to settle the bill.

APPROPRIATION EXHAUSTED

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company conducts its business after the manner of a municipality, and making appropriations to the various departments of the corporation and suspending work when such appropriations are exhausted. This has happened to the work trains on the M. & H. division, and as consequence the employees of that division have been suspended for the remainder of the month.

BRAKEMAN INJURED

Thomas McLaughlin, a Lehigh Valley brakeman, was injured at Glen Onoko last night by falling against the stove in his caboose. He was badly burned and cut about the head. He will be off duty for some time.

LEHIGH STATION BROKEN INTO

Plucky Agent Captures Man While in Very Act of Committing the Robbery

Yesterday morning about 2 o'clock Station Agent McHugh at Freeland, a small town on the Lehigh Valley near Pittston, was awakened by the violent ringing of the burglar alarm in his residence, which is connected with the depot. He seized a double barreled shot gun and went into the waiting room where he discovered a man who was trying to get into the ticket office. He covered the intruder with the gun and compelled him to walk to the nearest police station. The man proved to be Manus Buttan, a local character, who has spent several terms in jail for robbery. The station at Freeland has been entered several times and it is suspected that Buttan did both jobs.

LISTEN TO 'EM YELL

The article in yesterday's Record relative to the meeting held by the "gang" in Athens on Tuesday evening has caused consternation in the camp of the "big boss." His handful of followers in this neck of the woods are yelling "hot air" until their vocal organs threaten to cease doing business. It fact the term "hot air" is the only word left in the vocabulary of some when they are brought face to face with the cold, hard truth. The article printed yesterday has touched the members of the "gang" in a tender spot, and now they say the meeting was held by the other fellows. The assertion comes too late. The Record's information came from a man whose veracity has never been called into question, and now that the nefarious and despicable scheme has been fully exposed, the remnants of the "busted" machine will screech "hot air" until they are blue in the face. In the meantime the citizen whom the "gang" expected to be an easy mark has decided that private life is good enough for him.

M. P. A. ENTERTAINMENT

Sayre lodge No. 1, Modern Protective Association, will hold an entertainment in their lodge rooms in the B. of R. T. hall on Saturday evening next. The entertainment will follow the regular business session, and the money derived from the sale of tickets will be used to purchase paraphernalia for the degree team. The play which will be presented is entitled "Going to the Races," followed by a number of sketches in which eleven skilled artists will take part. There will be something doing every minute, and as over 200 tickets have already been disposed of there will be a large crowd present. The price of admission has been placed at 10 cents, and this price will also cover the cost of light refreshments.

SOCIALIST LECTURE IS WELL ATTENDED

Mr. Goebel Proves An Interesting and Entertaining Speaker

The crowd that assembled last evening to hear the lecture by George Goebel, the Socialist organizer, filled the Howard Elmer hose room. Mr. Goebel proved to be a very interesting and entertaining speaker and kept the audience in good humor by his keen thrusts. He advocated the industrial freedom of the workingman and said that the only way to obtain this was for the laborer to own the tools of production collectively, and to take over all things which enabled one man to control another through being able to limit or increase his means of livelihood.

IN EVERYBODY'S MOUTH

Some of the men of Sousa's band preserve with much joy a copy which they made of a bill of fare that was displayed outside a Dublin restaurant on the day which marked the two farewell concerts in the Irish capital. The list of occult edibles read as follows, the names being based on the compositions of John Philip Sousa:

- "Bill of Fare This Day."
- "Looking Upward" for good dinners
- Soup
- "Beau Ideal" Soup.
- Fish
- From "Manhattan Beach."
- Entree
- A la "Imperial Edward."
- Game
- Shot by the "High School Cadets."
- Roast
- Enough for a "Loyal Legion."
- Sweets
- A la "Belle of Chicago."
- Coffee
- The "El Capitan" Brand.
- Drinks
- "The Thunderer" and "The Gladiator" kind.

Ring the "Liberty Bell" and come in with your "Bride Elect."

Sousa says that his concerts never had a better advertisement, for one of the Dublin papers remarked next day: "John Philip Sousa's music is so popular here that some of the people literally devour it." At the Loomis, April 5, matinee only.

HON. EDMUND M. TUTON

Hon. Edmund M. Tuton, of Bentley Creek, and a member of the legislature in 1877, has announced himself a candidate on the Republican ticket this year, subject to the primaries which are to be held in June next. Mr. Tuton is one of the best known citizens of Bradford county, having practically resided therein all his life. He has been engaged in business in his home town for years, where he is known as an honest and upright citizen, capable and energetic, and has a large following who will be glad to give him their support at the polls.

Notice to N. P. L. Members
