FRED EMERSON BROOKS Athens—Our people will miss it very much if they do not attend the lecture to be given by Fred Emerson Brooks, at high school hall, Tuesday evening, April 3. Mr. Brooks was born in this valley and has delightful remembrance of pioneer days. He is a natural born poet, and has the rare faculty of working up incidents in verse that gives a peculiar charm to his subjects. There is no more patriotic poems in the English language than his "Pickett's Charge" and "Remember the Maine," and as you listen to him you are getting gems right from the fountain head that are original with him. Tickets now on sale at Sanford's.

PATRICK KELLEY Athens—Patrick Kelley died at his home on West Hill yesterday, aged 68 years. He was born in Ireland, but has resided in Athens for over fifty years, and has been a very active man and a familiar figure in Athens. He was unmarried. His funeral will take place tomorrow; interment at the Catholic cemetery, Sayre, Rogers & Miller, undertakers, in charge.

RAID ON BOOKIES. International Reform Bureau Makes an Arrest at Benning's Track. WASHINGTON, March 30.—The International Reform Bureau took its first active measures of attack on the Benning betting ring. A raid on the bookies was made, but only one bookmaker was molested. A squad of district officers visited the track between the second and third races. They made a careful survey of the betting ring and then served Bookmaker Sam Marks with a warrant. The bookmaker was charged with "bookmaking on premises upon which spirituous liquors are being sold." No other arrests were made. Marks was paroled on agreeing to appear on demand. The other bookmakers kept across the Maryland state line and on that account escaped trouble. Marks' stand has been inadvertently left in the section of the ring located within the confines of the District of Columbia. Later in the day the Washington Jockey club's interests and the authorities agreed on a compromise, with the result that an armistice now prevails for a short time. The Marks case will be used for a test case upon which both sides will rest. The raid on Marks' stand created excitement in the ring, but it soon subsided, and the betting went on as smoothly as on any other day.

Vote to Open Ballot Boxes. ALBANY, N. Y., March 30.—The assembly by a vote of 100 to 19 adopted the resolution authorizing the committee on privileges and elections to compel President Voorhis of the New York city board of elections to produce the ballot boxes from the Fifty-fifth election district, Seventh assembly district of Kings county, so that the committee may open them and examine the votes cast at the last election to aid it in deciding the contest over the seating of an assemblyman from that district. This is regarded as a great victory for the Independence league and William Randolph Hearst. Armed with the authority of the assembly, the committee will go to New York today and serve the necessary papers upon President Voorhis.

Persons to Succeed Depevo. NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 30.—A number of young Yale alumni are behind a movement to nominate Congressman Herbert Depevo of New York city to the seat in the Yale corporation to be made vacant in June when Senator Chauncey Depew's term as a fellow ends.

Dickens Character Dead. Joseph Jennings died lately at Colchester, England, at the age of 100 years. A lawsuit in his family over a disputed will was the foundation of Dickens' "Jarndyce vs. Jarndyce." On the tombstone of one of the litigants in a Colchester churchyard, is the text from Jeremiah: "Though death, they refused to know me."

HELD TO COURT Athens—Burt Bidlack, a fatherless boy, aged about 20 years, and weak minded, has been living with his uncle, Lester Bidlack, in Litchfield, while his mother has been employed as a domestic in the family of T. D. Wolcott. It is alleged that Philip Clark has been trying to get the boy to live with him, and that he made an attempt to get some of his things away from the Bidlack residence. Consequently Clark was arrested and had a hearing before Justice Johnson yesterday afternoon and he was held to answer to court under $200 bail.
