EARLY SPRING

Farmers are looking for an early spring, notwithstanding the recent snow. They say that snow protected vegetation at a time when it would otherwise have been very seriously frozen, and that even now under the drifts that remain grass is growing nicely.

DIED AT HOSPITAL SATURDAY NIGHT

Zachariah T. Henninger, Succumb to a Stroke of Apoplexy Sustained on Tuesday Last

Zachariah T. Henninger, one of the best known Lehigh Valley engineers employed in this section, died at the Packer hospital on Saturday night at 8:40 o'clock, after a few days illness. At his bedside were one brother, Henry Henninger, of Auburn, two sisters, and his uncle, Frank Daniels, the Lehigh engineer, who resides at this place. The deceased was stricken on Tuesday morning last at his room in the Wilbur house. He did not rise for breakfast, and at noontime one of the dining room girls went to his room to ascertain why he did not get up. She found him lying in bed in an unconscious condition. Dr. Theodore Wright was immediately summoned and found that Mr. Henninger was suffering from a stroke of apoplexy. For a time he seemed to improve, but on Thursday his condition became such that it was deemed advisable to take him to the hospital. He sank gradually, and his death occurred as stated above.

The deceased was born August 14, 1848, and came to Sayre in 1872. He commenced work for the Lehigh Valley railroad company as a brakeman, and later was promoted to fireman, at which occupation he was employed for a number of years. Recently he had been employed running the electric motor which operates the turntable at the Lehigh Valley round house. He was a general favorite among the railroad men from the fact that he was genial and wore a pleasant smile.

The funeral occurred this afternoon from the Lutheran church, the Rev. E. N. Beysler officiating. The burial took place at Tioga Point cemetery.

LOCAL MENTION

On account of the day being Sunday the April fool joker was not much in evidence yesterday.

A large number from this place attended the performance of "Ben Hur" at Elmira on Saturday evening.

John McAsee, formerly of the Park hotel, is now at Leahey's in Athens. John is a first class fellow and has a large following in the three towns.

The various ward assessors are distributing notices among the taxable inhabitants of the borough notifying them of the amount of the valuation of their property and their tax rate.

Newspapers are always glad to get all the news that is obtainable, and The Record is no exception to the rule. If you cannot bring or send your news items to the office, use the telephone. Call 128x.

The reading from the "Prisoner of Zenda" given by Miss Maud Willis in the high school building on Saturday evening was well attended and greatly enjoyed. Miss Willis is a pleasing elocutionist, and her visit to Sayre has made for her many friends.

The borough council will hold a meeting this evening. It will be of a most important nature as several questions which have been agitating the city dads for several months are likely to come up for discussion and it is expected that some of them may be finally disposed of.

The local M. P. A. gave a fine entertainment in Trainmen's hall on Saturday evening. Local talent furnished an excellent program consisting of farces, recitations, vocal and instrumental music, and at the conclusion ice cream and cake were served. A large number were in attendance and thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

MOTHER AND CHILD DIED LAST NIGHT

Infant's Death Quickly Followed by It's Mother's Demise

Mrs. Mary Brown, wife of Charles Brown, a Lehigh Valley brakeman, died last night at 9 o'clock at her home on Thomas street. Death was due to consumption, of which the deceased had been suffering for some time. Four hours previous to her death her baby boy, which was born on Wednesday last, also died, and the mother and child will be buried in one grave at Meshoppen on Wednesday next. Recently Mrs. Brown suffered an attack of typhoid fever, but she had recovered from its effects. Consumption, however, had in the meantime made rapid progress, and after the birth of her child she failed steadily.

The deceased was 27 years old and came here with her husband from Meshoppen about one year ago. She is survived by her husband and a little girl about three years old. The remains of the dead mother and her child will be taken to Meshoppen on Wednesday morning next. The funeral services will be held in that place and they will both be buried in the same grave.

SWINGING DOOR DAMAGED COACH

Lehigh Valley Passenger Train No. 8 Met With Accident Near Batavia This Morning

A Pullman coach attached to Lehigh passenger train 8, which is due at Sayre at 8:50 a. m., met with an accident this morning near Batavia which resulted in one of the windows near the front end being completely demolished while the side of the car was badly damaged. Just after the train pulled out of Batavia it passed a freight train. On one of the cars of the freight train a side door had become detached and was swinging to and fro. The door crashed against the Pullman, smashed out a window, and defaced the entire side of the car. Fortunately there were no passengers seated near the window and no one was injured.

FUNERAL OF FRED COX

The funeral of Fred Cox, who was killed in the Coxton yards on Friday morning, was held from the Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. F. Warner, pastor of the church, officiated and the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors had charge of obsequies. The remains were taken to Tioga Point for burial.

BUSINESS MEN'S MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Business Men's association will be held Tuesday instead of Wednesday evening of this week. It is earnestly hoped that every business man in town may be present as business of vital importance to Sayre is to be transacted. The directors will meet this evening.

TONIGHT AT THE LOOMIS

"The Ideals," under the management of John A. Himmelein, will open a week's engagement at the Loomis this evening. The company will present a repertoire of first class plays during the week, beginning tonight with "The Sultan's Daughter," a screaming farce comedy.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Thomas Spellaney of Waverly, Mrs. George Hart of Candor, and George Frisbie of Towanda were operated upon this morning.

PARROT TAUGHT ORIGINAL STUNT

Tax Collector Will Use the Bird in His Business

John L. Plumstead, tax collector for Sayre borough, has moved his family from No. 132 Chestnut street to rooms in the old post-office building on Desmond street. Mr. Plumstead will have his office in the front of the second floor of the building, where all who may have business with him will be able to find him at any hour of the day. Within the past few months Mr. Plumstead has been perfecting a plan by which he hopes to call the delinquents to the fact that their taxes must be paid. In his household he has a parrot. The parrot is an exceedingly clever bird and has already learned to talk as fluently as a woman. Mr. Plumstead, however, has decided to utilize the bird in his business and for the past two months has been teaching it some original stunts in handling the king's English. The bird will be confined in a handsome cage which is to be hung up in Mr. Plumstead's new office rooms on Desmond street, and when a visitor enters the door it will wink its other eye and yell: "Pay your taxes!" Everybody will look alike to the parrot and Mr. Plumstead hopes to be saved a lot of vocal exercise himself.

PERSONAL MENTION

H. C. Creveling of Towanda was a Sayre visitor yesterday.

Attorney C. C. Yocum is in Towanda today on legal business.

Mr. James Mather of Ulster is the guest of Mrs. E. F. Mercereau.

Maggie Maroney and May Enright visited friends in Wilkes-Barre yesterday.

John Umpeby, who has been spending a week with friends in Ithaca, returned home last night.

E. J. Connelly is on a business trip to Rochester and Buffalo. He expects to be absent for several days.

Marvin Corser of Geneva was the guest of friends in town yesterday. Mr. Corser's visit here was ostensibly for the purpose of inspecting new postal cars.

E. F. Mercereau, district manager of the N. P. L., and who was recently elected secretary of the local organization, will go to Wyalusing this evening to install the newly elected officers of the lodge at that place. The Wyalusing lodge now has over one hundred members.

WILL OPEN WEDNESDAY

M. Procas, the Greek confectioner, will move from lower Desmond street on Wednesday next to the store formerly occupied by C. U. Ingham & Co. Mr. Procas has caused the interior of the store to be entirely transformed and he will open one of the finest confectionery stores in this section. The store will be absolutely clean from top to bottom and the stock of candy and fruit will at all times be of the best. Attend the opening and get a carnation free.

APPLES ARE HIGH

Apples are so scarce that they are a luxury and sell at $2.50 per bushel. This is probably the highest price ever paid for the fruit in this section. A year ago apples were sold at fifty cents a bushel and dealers found difficulty in getting rid of them at that price.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED

A truck breaking on a freight car caused a freight wreck at Auburn Junction this forenoon. A large number of cars is said to be piled up and the wrecking crew has gone from this place to clear away the wreckage.
