PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. C. M. Brant of Tarentum, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. Helen Hull of this place.

Mrs. Harriet S. Gregg, South Elmer avenue, is spending a few days with Mrs. C. S. Drake, Paine street, Athens.

LOCAL MENTION

J. H. Murrelle, proprietor of The Valley Record, is moving today from Miller street to South Elmer avenue.

On account of the strike it is said that the price of coal will not drop this month. As usual the consumer will pay the fiddler.

A trolley car jumped the track at Hayden's corner about 6 o'clock this morning and before it could be retracked traffic was delayed for over an hour.

Sousa's band will be at the Loomis tomorrow, matinee only. This is the first time that the people of the valley have ever been afforded the opportunity of hearing the "March King," and a big house is promised.

The effects of the coal strike are already being felt. On account of it the Lehigh Valley has already suspended indefinitely a large number of operators. The D. S. & S. station at Drifton has been temporarily abandoned.

"The Ideals" repertoire company which is appearing at the Loomis this week is in every respect and giving excellent entertainments. Big crowds are in attendance and the engagement promises to be a most successful one.

A handsome Pullman coach belonging to the Canadian Copper company, was attached to Lehigh train No. 8 this morning when it passed through Sayre. The car carried a number of officials of the copper company who were bound for New York.

Theatre goers are more than pleased with the performances which are being given at the Loomis this week by "The Ideals" stock company. The company surpasses anything in the popular price line that has appeared at the Loomis this season.

BROUGHT THEM PARTNERS.

Kaiser Kept His Promise to Girls of "Crefeld."
CREFELD, Germany, April 4.—When Emperor William visited Crefeld in 1903 a group of girls complained to his majesty that they had no dancing partners and begged him to send a regiment of cavalry here. The emperor promised to do so, and Sunday a regiment of hussars arrived here from Dueseldorf, and with it came the emperor, who had decided to take part in the regiment's reception. The young women of the city enthusiastically acclaimed the soldiers and handed the staff officers heaps of floral offerings for his majesty. The latter, replying to the mayor's speech of welcome, said: "I have kept my word. Today I have given the town its garrison and the young ladies their partners."

The emperor's remarks were greeted with cheers. The city, which is the center of the silk and velvet industry, was joyfully decorated for the occasion, a mile of the principal streets being hung with decorations of velvet and silk. Since the emperor made his promise to the young women at Crefeld in 1903 the reichstag appropriated the sum of money necessary to erect permanent barracks here, which have been constructed for the accommodation of a regiment of cavalry. The emperor received the members of salvage corps of Herne, Westphalia, who have just returned from Courrières, France, where they assisted in rescuing the imprisoned miners and in recovering the bodies of the dead. His majesty expressed his thanks to the German miners and decorated them.

TWELVE ZULUS SHOT.

Resignation of Natal Cabinet Caused Home Government to Weaken.
PIETERMARITZBURG, Natal, Africa, April 4.—The twelve Zulus over whose execution for the murder of a number of policemen the department and the British colonial department and the Natal ministry arose, culminating in the resignation of the members of the Natal ministry, when an attempt was made by the home government to postpone the executions, were shot by order of a court martial. The trouble between the Natal ministry and the British government over the question of execution of the natives shot caused a great deal of bitterness. The twelve natives had been found guilty of murdering a number of policemen and were sentenced to death. The Natal ministry approved the sentence. Winston Churchill, undersecretary for colonies, telegraphed to Premier Smith to postpone the executions. The premier refused to do this, and the governor then postponed the execution. This caused the entire ministry to offer its resignation.

A roar of protest was raised by officials and citizens in Natal against the action of the government in thus intervening in the colony's affairs.

The outcry was so vigorous that Lord Elgin, the colonial secretary, was obliged to telegraph to the Natal authorities that the government had no intention of interfering further in the affair.

Belmont Man Succeeds Harriman.
NEW YORK, April 4.—Edward H. Harriman is no longer chairman of the finance committee of the Illinois Central Railroad company and that committee has been abolished, according to a statement issued at the offices of the company. The chairman of a new committee on law and finance is Walter Lutgen of the firm of August Belmont & Co.

To Develop West Africa.
A money maker's scientific expedition is off to West Africa to explore the rubber prospects. They hope to learn how to improve the quality of West African rubber in order to bring it up to the same standard as the similar rubber from other colonies, and how to protect and increase the present supply. An effort will also be made to discover new sources of oils, and to find means of increasing the supply by making use of the present waste. As regards the prospects of West Africa becoming a rubber producing country, there will be investigating in hemp, cotton, jute, and ramie growing, and also of new fibers.

Natural Mistake.
"As a general rule," said Uncle Henry Butterworth, "a candidate is trimmed to the wind so durned erratic that when you go to pat him on the back for taking a right stand for once, why he's switched clean around the other way, and you swat him slap on the jaw."—Kansas City Star.

Norway in Scotland.
Few people are aware of the fact that the Orkney and Shetland islands, strictly speaking, belong to the kingdom of Norway, a circumstance which has been recalled by the recent events at Christiania. Towards the close of the nineteenth century King Christian of Norway pledged the Orkneys and the Shetlands, over which his reign was undisputed, to King James III. of Scotland for the payment of the dowry of his daughter Margaret, who became queen of Scotland. The pledge has not yet been redeemed.

Had Not Soaked In.
A negro boy who had been converted and joined the church the Sunday before was up in police court for stealing coal. The boy pleaded guilty, but attributed his fall from grace to the fact that he had not yet been baptized. Upon the advice of the city attorney sentence was suspended until the prisoner could be baptized.—Chickasha (T. T.) Express.

Use Their Noses.
The negroes of Tahiti, one of the Society islands in the south Pacific, play the flute with the nose instead of the mouth.

Small Minded.
"Some folks," said Uncle Eben, "seems to 'magine dey kin make up fob deir own short-comin's by scoldin' at de children."—Washington Star.
