HADN'T BEEN FED

Waverly—A farmer residing at Barton took advantage of his wife's absence, came to Waverly last night and acquired a large sized jag. He ran across a member of the police force who put him in durance vile. He stayed over night and told the justice, when given a hearing this morning, that his stock had not been fed last night. The justice suspended sentence and told him to go home and feed his stock.

CHURCH ASKS FOR PASTOR'S RETURN

Waverly M. E. Congregation [is] Desirous of Retaining the Services of Rev. M. S. Godshall

Waverly—The quarterly conference of the Methodist church convened last evening with Presiding Elder Dresser in the chair. A petition with many signers from the congregation was presented asking for Rev. Godshall's return for another year. The following resolution was unanimously passed:

"Whereas our church has been very prosperous under the pastorate and leadership of Rev. M. S. Godshall, Ph. D., the attendance at the preaching of the Word being larger than in many years past, the prayermeetings, classmeetings, Epworth League and Sunday school exceptionally well sustained, and Whereas, because of the excellent condition of the church in all of its departments, therefore be it Resolved, That we, the members of the quarterly conference, respectfully request Presiding Elder Dresser to ask the Bishop of the Wyoming conference to return brother Godshall to this charge."

The reports of the different departments of the church were received and showed that there was plenty of money to pay all indebtedness.

W. T. Harris was given authority to act as local preacher and W. H. Denslow as exhorter. H. B. Graf and E. T. Perkins were appointed to fill existing vacancies on the official board of the church.

FIRE OFFICIALS CHOSEN

Waverly—The fire department convention was held last evening in the parlors of the Spalding hose company. The members consist of three members from the three hose companies, three from the hook and ladder company and three from the fire police. David T. Tillman was chosen chairman and T. P. Snook, secretary. The following department officers were chosen subject to the approval of the village board of trustees: Chief, James P. Clohessy of the Cayugas; first assistant, Wm. Rolf of the Spaldings; second assistant, Fred L. Maxwell of the Hooks.
