The Easter Millinery Turns Out in Full Flower

When our unusual opening occurs then we will display the gray chip, mushroom, tricorn of white chip, Milan straw, tuscan, neopolitan, Sis Hopkins, Peter Pan, Johnny Jones sailor and others. This will be a central exhibit of individuality in millinery. You will be able to pick with your eyes shut, and still get a correct style for the Easter parade. It isn't the wise woman who will put off her shopping later than today.

AT POPULAR PRICES

Eaton and Pony Suits

We have a motto of "Expansion and Betterment." This is illustrated in the exclusive yet elaborate line of suits we show this spring. They are invariably in the popular eaton styles, three fourth and full length, carefully tailored, new sleeves and finished in detail surprisingly well. Almost all colors and materials. You will want one for Easter and it's not too early to select it, while our stock is so complete. $8.87 to $30.00.

The Basement

Is full of housecleaning equipments. Scarcely anything can be asked for that we do not carry, and the price is always right.

Jackets of All Sorts and Sizes

In the wanted materials. Some with a touch of trimming here and there, giving them character, individuality and distinction, for which only you might expect to find at the Big Store. $3.87 to $11.87.

Silk coats in tourist style. Some of them two year guaranteed wear. Can't think when we showed such good value. $8.87 to $18.00.

Gent's Furnishings

New silk ties, wash ties, Manhattan shirts, gloves and light spring toggery at prices less than specialty stores can make. It's because we sell everything.
