A STRONG ATTRACTION

In offering the Cook-Church Stock company at the Loomis opera house all next week Manager Tobias has secured one of the strongest repertoire organizations now traveling, as his Easter week attraction. This company is in its tenth season and has played during that period in all of the principal cities, from which it comes highly endorsed by press and public. The bright little soubrette star, Ruby Erwood, is appearing in the leading roles and has been surrounded with a most carefully selected cast of clever people. The bill for Monday evening, April 16, will be Channing Pollock's success, 'A Game of Hearts,' and will be found to be a well constructed, interesting play, and will be brilliantly staged with its full scenic equipment. Between the acts an array of vaudeville acts are introduced headed by 'The Fryers,' singers, dancers and musical artists. Matinee Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Ladies' tickets Monday night 15 cents. Seats on sale. Popular prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. 'Amateur Night' Friday evening, April 20. Three cash prizes.

THIS REFORMER

NOT APPRECIATED

In Attempting to Regenerate the Community He gets a Black Eye

Waverly—A certain popular and well known young man of this village is nursing a badly discolored eye. In explaining how he happened to receive it he says that it is the result of striving to be virtuous, and working in the interests of public morality.

Yesterday afternoon he decided to become a social reformer, and proceeding in the usual manner, sought to reform some one else. So when he heard a young fellow indulging in language that imparted a delicate blue tint to the surrounding atmosphere, he reproved him gently. The reprimand was not received in a friendly spirit, and a stiff punch in the eye was the reply. He was about to chastise the pugnacious youngster, but when he considered his youth he did no worse than to shake him.

A third person witnessed the performance and proceeded to make objectionable statements to the reformer, who became angry and informed such third party that if he did not wish the contour of his visage altered, that he had better keep away a good safe distance.

All idea of regenerating the community has been abandoned, however, and he says that the place can go eternally to the bad so far as any attempt on his part to purify it is concerned.

THEY WILL EAT EGGS

Waverly—Charles Wheeler of East Waverly has a fine lot of white leghorn hens of which he is very proud. He has been telling fabulous stories of the number of eggs they lay every day. His stories have been subject to some doubt on the part of his friends, and to prove his statements he has invited them to his home tomorrow to indulge in the product of his henny.

The Rebekahs held their first meeting in their new hall last evening. Several members of the Sayre and Athens lodges were present.
