NAPLES, April 16 .- The somewhat breatening condition of Mount Vesuvius Saturday night having subsided with the ejection of enormous clouds cutting off the view from Naples, only the outline of the base being visible. Professor Matteucci, director of the Royal observatory on the mountain, issued the following bulletin:

"My instruments are now most calm. The emission of sand continues in less abundant quantities, and I wait serionely a satisfactory termination of the eruption."

The sudden renewal of alarm Satur day night has given way to the celebration of Easter with unusual fervor. The gravity of the situation has now shifted to Ottajano and San Giuseppe, where the recovery of the dead from sensational development occurred during the work of salvage at Ottajano when the searchers unearthed two aged women still alive, but speechless, after their six days' entombment. They were among the hundreds who were crushed beneath the falling walls dur-

Three Negroes Hanged by Springfield Rioters.

SOLDIERS TOO LATE TO SAVE THEM

Antinegro Crowd Wrecked Jail and Sheriff's Home and Burned Prisoners In Public Square-Fourtoon Jalibirds Escaped.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 16 .-State militia, re-enforced by 200 deputy sheriffs, guarded the streets of Springfield last night against possible renewed action by a mob that has lynched three negroes in the public square. There are hundreds of strangers in Springfield, and the antinegro feeling still runs high.

Although no untoward move was made, many threats were heard, and Sheriff Horner, fearing a fresh outbreak when darkness should fall, telegraphed Governor Folk early in the day for aid. The governor responded promptly, and within a few hours six companies of militia were on guard in Springfield from various parts of Mis-

Any persons who did not contribute, and these were few, passed in without hindrance. Deputy Police Commission er O'Keefe, with his secretary and several policemen, were present, but there was no interference on the part of the authorities. The commissioner said that he saw no cause for interfering, as there was no infraction of the law as far as he could judge.

Five thousand persons witnessed the game, which was played on a rain soaked diamond and outfield.

The feature of the game was Lum ey's home run bit in the fourth inaing. Boston scored its fourth consecutive victory over Donovan's men. Score, 5 to 3. Batteries Needham and Young; Berger, Pastorius and Chicago Won, 8 to 5. CINCINNATI, April 16.—The game went ten innings, in which Umpire Johnstone allowed Steinfeld a three base bit, which, he said, went into the crowd, although Odwell said he stopped the ball before it reached the rope. Chicago won by a score of 8 to 5. Wildness marked the work of the three pitchers that took part in the game.

Pittsburg Won at St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, April 18.-Pittsburg won the second game of the series from St Louis by a score of 5 to 3. Hoelsketter was hit hard, and base running on the part of the home team was poor. In the ninth inning Karger was hit hard, and Liefield was substituted.
