STILL WAR AT AQUEDUCT.

Was Won Union Stakes and Ben Crockett the Steeplechase. NEW YORK, April 18.—The second day of the war on poolrooms inaugurated by the Jockey club at the Aqueduct race track was marked by the same delay and strict censorship of all telegraphic messages which put the poolroom representatives in a panic at the opening.

In the city the smaller poolrooms, unable to withstand the burden of cost thrown upon them by the stoppage of telegraphic intelligence, it is said, reluctantly and one by one closed their doors, while the larger places of wagers by an elaborate system of relay runners from watchers in trees and on telegraph poles to leased telephone lines did a cautious but brisk business.

The track, stands and betting ring at Aqueduct swarmed with detectives, and during the course of the first two races they discovered several runners who obtained advanced information and the results of races and hurried the news out to confederates who had leased lines installed in farmhouses or who had paid a nearby telephone station to remain open for their sole use.

When the runners returned after the second race, however, they found their entrance barred. Then they were forced to give up the attempts to obtain advance information and confined their efforts to securing the bare results, the first, second and third in each race.

J. A. Drake's Wren, backed down from 7 to 5 to an even money favorite and making his first appearance of the year, easily won the Union selling stakes, one mile. The Drake colt jumped away in front at the start and, gradually increasing his advantage to the finish, won by ten lengths. The first steeplechase run over the Aqueduct course resulted in a victory for the split favorite, Ben Crockett, with Phantom second and the outsider, Saltine, third. Three favorites won. Summaries:

First Race—Fay, first; Clements, second; Mexican Silver, third.

Second Race—Ben Crockett, first; Phantom, second; Saltine, third.

Third Race—Dolly Dollars, first; Taddies, second; Scotts Belle, third.

Fourth Race—Wes, first; J. F. Deane, second; Monterey, third.

Fifth Race—Robador, first; Colossal, second; Workman, third.

Sixth Race—Clara, first; Bailot Box, second; Sahara, third.

Sutton Makes a World's Record.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The shortest and most exciting game of the world's championship 18-2 billiard tournament was played in Madison Square Garden concert hall last night, and a new world's record was established. George Sutton, formerly of Elmira and now a resident of this city, in defeating Willie Hoppe, the world's champion at 18-1 ball, in the fifth game of the tournament made 500 points in five innings, an average of 100, which constitutes the new world's record. George F. Blossom of this city maintained his lead over all the other players when he won his fourth straight game, having lost none. He defeated Albert G. Outler in the matinee game, the dual score being 500 to 340.

Defeat For Ivan the Terrible.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 18.—Ivan the Terrible suffered his third defeat of the meeting at Cumberland park. He and Fortunato fought it out in the first furlong in the William Gaston stake, at one mile. Fortunato winning by a neck. Gangsaw finished first in the second race, but was disqualified for averting across the track in the last sixteenth, causing Nicol to pull up. Two Beach, four outsiders won.

The Boston Horse Show.

BOSTON, April 18.—The ribbon contest at the horse show waxed keen, and the Boston entries, led by the champion Hinder of the Jordan stable, fought to the front as prize winners. The members of Troop K of the First United States Cavalry have arrived from Fort Ethan Allen, Vt. Their well known drills will be a feature of the show for the next few days.

St. Valentine at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 18.—Favorites and well played second and third choices divided the card at Montgomery park. St. Valentine won a fine race from Gold Enamel and Jake Sanders in the third event. Gold Enamel took the lead and led his field into the stretch, where St. Valentine came from the rear and won in the last few jumps.

Gloomy Gus, Favorite, Beaten.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Gloomy Gus, which won his last race at odds of 25 to 1, was made favorite at even money to win the fifth race at Oakland, but Bonar won at odds of 6 to 1. Roy del Mundo, heavily backed to win the second race, was partly ridden and failed to take a place. Early Hours took the event at odds of 16 to 1.

Sanscrit a Surprise.

BALTIMORE, April 18.—The opening race brought forth a surprise when Sanscrit, at 50 to 1, beat the favorite, Merrie Lassie, by several lengths. The favorite, Bobby Beau, fared very badly also in the fourth race, finishing two lengths behind Peter Paul, the second horse, the winner being Anna Smith, at 8 to 1.

Isolated Danish Colony.

A curious circumstance in connection with the death of the king of Denmark is the fact that one of the Danish colonies, Greenland, would not learn the news for three months, owing to the difficulty of ships reaching the land. In ignorance of the king's death, the Greenlanders will celebrate King Christian's birthday on April 8 in the usual manner.

New Lawnmower.

A lawnmower has made its appearance built on the lines of the agricultural reaper, which in itself suggests to the average mind the familiar barber's clippers. It is said for this machine that it does not mutilate the grass so much as the usual rotary knife lawn mower, which has a tendency to drag the roots and feeders.

Naturalistic Notations.

Fishes have no eyelids, and necessarily sleep with their eyes open; they swallow their food whole, having no dental machinery. Frogs, toads and serpents never take food except that which they are certain is alive. Serpents are so tenacious of life that they will live for six months or longer without food.
