HOW TO MANAGE A WIFE.

Kansas Man Thinks He Has Got the Right Idea to Insure Success.

A great many persons have suggested methods as to the best way to manage a husband, but it remained for a Eureka man to reduce to writing a set of rules for the successful management of a wife, says the Eureka (Kan.) Herald.

The following rules were handed to a reporter after much persuasion and many promises not to reveal his identity by a business man who claims to have followed them to the letter during the last year and says they have never been found at fault in a single instance during that time.

Never contradict her. You are right, of course, nine times out of ten, and she knows it, but to tell her so makes her always unmanageable.

Never oppose her. When she suggests that in the absence of the cook you get up and light the fire do so at once, willingly and cheerfully. If she wishes you to walk the floor with the baby obey with alacrity.

Never deny her. Possibly she will exceed her allowance, but this is always your fault, because you are not man enough to support her.

Never be cross. When you come home at night, having failed once or twice during the day or being annoyed by a total stranger, or with a large, powerful pain in your stomach, laugh it off and conceal your real feelings.

Never tell her the truth. When she asks you how you like her new hat or cloak wear that you think it is the greatest thing for the money you ever saw. When she shows you her new gown be lost in admiration. When she is cross and irritable tell her she is an angel.

Never disagree with her. When she suggests that you have a cold and need a hot mustard plaster grin and bear it. When she tells you she needs a change tell her you are glad she mentioned it.

Never interrupt her.

This is the only way to manage a wife.

When the Eyes Grow Dim.

When a man begins to hold off his newspaper at arm's length like he was afraid it would bite him it is a sign he has started down the western slope and that the afternoon sun is shining in his eyes.—Jewell (Kan.) Republican.

Cleric Paupers.

In the last ten years 103 clergymen have been admitted to almshouses in England as paupers. One of them was a D. D. Others held the degree of M. A. Six thousand English Episcopal clergymen earn less than $20 a week, most of them much less.

Solemnity Flouted.

Old Tom Corwin, as he was familiarly known, governor of Ohio, United States senator and secretary of the treasury in Fillmore's cabinet, used to say: "Be solemn—all the monuments are raised to solemn asses."

Sport in Spain.

Spain's bull fighting season lasts six or seven months out of each year. It is that time between 2,500 and 3,500 Castilian bulls are done to death for the sport of the mob.

PRaises THE NEW PIANOS

A Pennsylvania Clergyman and Musician of Note Recommends the D. S. Andrus & Co. and Doylemarx Pianos—the Two Instruments to be Given Away in the Great World Building Contest

It is with a manifest degree of satisfaction and pardonable pride that D. S. Andrus & Co., the old reliable piano and music house, give the testimonial of the Rev. W. Stillman Martin of Wyalusing, Pa., in regard to the D. S. Andrus & Co. and Doylemarx pianos. The reverend gentleman is an accomplished musician, a composer, and a pleasant gentleman to meet. Mr. Martin highly recommends both of these pianos. By the way, these are the two pianos which are going to be given away as the grand prizes in the great D. S. Andrus & Co.'s "World Building Contest."

The person not now owning an upright piano, who sends in the largest correct list of words from the firm name of "D. S. Andrus and Company," will receive absolutely free a $450.00 D. S. Andrus & Co. Cabinet Grand upright piano. The second largest list will be given a $350.00 Doylemarx Concert Grand Upright piano. Then there are other prizes aggregating nearly $4,000 for lists of correct words. The interest in this contest is intense. The daily mail and telephones are kept constantly busy answering queries. These pianos are manufactured by D. S. Andrus & Co., who for over 40 years have been dealing in pianos and musical merchandise in this vicinity. Every piano sold by D. S. Andrus & Co. must be as represented or money refunded. Reliability is their watchword. Their easy payment system assists every family of means to own a piano. It will help you. All communications about the "World Building Contest" must be addressed to D. S. Andrus & Co., 114 Baldwin street, Elmira, N. Y.

California Cherries Bring $105 Each. PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Probably the highest prices ever paid for California cherries were realized at a local commission merchant's establishment when a box of the fruit was sold at auction for $2,440. The money was added to the relief fund for the earthquake sufferers. The cherries were the first received here this season from California, and a box of them was sold at auction, each cherry being offered for sale singly. The first cherry was sold for $105, and the others sold for amounts ranging from $100 down.

Catskills Covered With Snow. KINGSTON, N. Y., April 24.—Snow fell here for eight hours, and the Catskills are covered. In this city warm rain following removed the snow from the streets.

Sontag Skated. Skating was tabooed for women in Berlin until the prima donna Henrietta Sontag set the bold example.
