THE OLYMPIC GAMES.

Ray C. Ewry, New York Athletic Club, Won Standing Long Jump. ATHENS, April 27.- Ray C. Ewry of the New York Athletic club won the standing long jump at the Olympic games here.

Gouder of France won the pole jump. Lieutenant Hawtry of England won the five mile run. Racing away from his opponents, he finished with half a lap to spare; time, 26 minutes 11 4-5 seconds. Sanderg of Sweden was second, and Dahl of Sweden was third.

The finals in the swimming and diving contests of the Olympic games were postponed owing to the weather When the competitors reached Phale rum they found that a full gale was blowing and the sea was so rough that It was determined to postpone the

In the foils finals the French team beat the English by 9 to 6 points. The weight lifting contest produced a sensational incident. Champion Tofalos' most formidable competitor was an Austrian giant of the name of Steinbach, against whom the populace were angered by an unfounded allega tion that he was a professional.

When Steinbach appeared the audi ence hooted him down, and after valuly protesting against the disturbance Steinbach retired from the contest leaving the Greek the victor. The Greek flag baving been raised amid tremendous cheering, Steinbach caimly re-entered the arena and picked up the weight which Tofalos had raised with difficulty and raised it above his head several times with the greatest ease. Then he left the Stadium with a sarcastic bow to the wondering audience. The most interesting event of the day was the javelin throwing, in which Swedes distanced all competitors, record of 53.90 meters, arousing enorus enthusiasm. Tofalos, Greek, won the weight lift ing contest, his mark being 144.40 kilo-
