

MORE STYLE

More style, that's the cry from one end of the country to the other. The more you know about style, the easier it will be to satisfy you that we are in closest touch with up-to-date clothing. When it comes to materials and making, the better you are posted, the more easier it will be to convince you that we can serve you well. But that isn't all—cost of selling is not so great where you have no rents to pay. Our stores are stocked with the best clothing money can buy and labor produce. Come in, we'll do our part to show you the style.

FUNERAL HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Remains of Mrs. Ellery L. Hammond Laid at Rest in Tioga Point Cemetery

The funeral of Mrs. Ellery L. Hammond, whose death occurred at the Packer hospital on Friday morning last, after having undergone an operation for the removal of a tumor, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home, No. 211 South Elmer avenue, the Rev. E. C. Petrie, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Rosencrans sang feelingly, and the pall bearers were Horace Frank, John Kincaid, G. S. Parker, of Sayre; J. M. Ballou, Cortland; Charles A. Ward, Athens, and Frank Burgess of Owego. The remains were taken to Tioga Point cemetery for interment. J. W. Grumme's undertaking establishment had charge of the arrangements.

WILL SAVE WOMEN MUCH LABOR

Patent Dish Dryer Invented by Waverly Woman Promises to be a Great Labor Saving Device

One of the latest labor saving devices, which promises to be of lasting benefit to women who are compelled to do their own housework, is a patent dish dryer, invented and patented by Mrs. Jennie Daly, of No. 125 Chemung street, Waverly, N. Y. Mrs. Daly, who is not in the best of health, has for some time been working on a plan whereby dishes can be nicely dried without the use of a towel, and after much hard work and persistent thought has at last perfected and placed upon the market a simple yet effective, article for doing this work. The dryer is about the size of a large pail, and has perforated sides. The construction of the dryer is based on a scientific principle, and its operation is so simple that a child can use it as well as a grown person. Those who are interested in the labor-saving device should either call upon or write Mrs. Daly, who will be glad to explain it in detail.

CHARGED WITH MAKING THREATS

Woman Says Holmes Broke Up Furniture and Then Threatened Their Lives

Thomas Holmes, who at one time ran a saloon in Athens and was possessed of considerable property, but who has recently given the police at Milltown considerable trouble, on account of his disposition to get drunk and tear things up, was before Justice C. S. Gay this morning on a charge of surety of the peace. The complainant in the case alleges that last night Holmes was at the home of Mrs. Sarah Puff, of Milltown, and that while there he proceeded to demolish the furniture, and not content with this he is alleged to have threatened the life of the inmates. Officer Sisson was called, but when he arrived Holmes had left the house and later was found lying along the street asleep. The officer placed him under arrest and brought him, to the lockup where he spent the night. This morning when arraigned he was in a deplorable condition. The prosecution was represented by District Attorney Mills, while Attorney Paul Maynard looked after the interests of the prisoner. At the conclusion of the hearing Holmes was held to the next term of court in the sum of $250 bail. M. H. Sawtelle qualified as bondsman and Holmes was released.

PERSONAL MENTION

Marvin Becker of Hornellsville was visiting friends in Sayre yesterday.

Mrs. G. S. Rounds has returned from a week's visit with friends at Elmira.

Attorney Paul Maynard is in Towanda today transacting business of a legal nature.

S. R. Lilley of Factoryville, this state, was the guest of E. M. Thompson over Sunday.

Mrs. M. W. Beisecker and two daughters went to Gettysburg this morning for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Bert Squires of Plummer street, who was injured by the fall of the grand stand last Friday, is better today.

Mrs. Jesse Hinkley of Elmira, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Hyatt, will return to Elmira this evening.

Miss Edith Wells, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. M. Bowman, for some time, returned to her home at Antrim, Pa., this morning.

Mrs. Fred Rockland of Waverly, John Clark of Rummerfield, and Mrs. Richard Emory of Sayre, were operated upon at the hospital this forenoon.

NIGHT PROWLING

There is no doubt that a large per cent of the degradation, disgrace, ruin and crime among the young springs from the habit of night prowling, corner loafing and kindred acts by both sexes, in city, town and hamlet all over this broad country. Any person who keeps his or her eyes open knows this. Hundreds of boys and girls are out at night and we all know that many influences for evil and none for good surround them continually.

MINISTERS' MEETING

The Ministerial Association held a meeting in the Church of Christ this forenoon. There was quite a large number of pastors in attendance and the session was a very interesting one. Rev. J. Petrie read a paper, the subject of which was "Jesus is the Preacher's Model."

SAYRE BALL TEAM WALLOPED KANE

Visitors Defeated in Saturday's Game by a Score of Eight to Two

A very interesting game of ball was played on the Riverside grounds Saturday afternoon between a local aggregation and the team from Kane, Pa., which is staying in town for a couple of weeks for practice. The home team proved to be superior in nearly every department of the game and defeated the Kancites by a score of 8 to 2. Cotter pitched a fine game for the locals and kept the hits well scattered. M. Madigan held down third base in fine shape, and made the only home run of the game by a long fly to right field.

The visiting team showed poor team work at times and made several errors when they were costly. The Sayre team played together well and succeeded in bunching hits when needed. After the game Cotter and Madigan signed with the Kane team.

ANGELL SAYS WOMAN PAWNED HIS WATCH

Causes Her Arrest on a Charge of Larceny By Bailee

This morning Floyd Angell of Milltown, caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of Sadie Gassner, a young woman who he alleges has converted his gold watch to her own use. Angell in his complaint says that about three months ago he let the Gassner woman take his watch, but that when he asked her to return it she said that the time-piece had been pawned. The woman was arrested by Constable Brougham on a warrant charging larceny by bailee, and when arraigned pleaded not guilty and demanded a hearing which was set down for Saturday afternoon.

ENCOUNTERING DIFFICULTIES

The Lehigh Valley railroad company is meeting with many difficulties lately. Wednesday traffic was blocked by the great cave-in at Barry's junction, and yesterday morning the forward truck of one of the day coaches jumped the track just after the train had cleared the cutting just west of Mahoney City. Many of the passengers became considerably frightened fearing that the train had left the rails entirely.

HOYT'S "A BUNCH OF KEYS"

Chas. Hoyt has ever wielded a keen but kindly pen in satirizing the fads of everyday life, but in none of them has he been happier than in the satire of hotel life. In this comedy from the entrance of the Harum Scarum Teddy to the final curtain he displays his keen wit and plays on the many eccentricities seen in the daily hotel life. The company presenting the most successful comedy, is one of the best that has ever been seen in it, and the management promises the engagement to be the laughing event of the season. At the Loomis Saturday, May 5, afternoon and evening.

JUMPED BACKWARDS

Pasquale Parropa, an Italian section hand, jumped backwards from a moving Lehigh Valley engine at Falls, Pa., this morning and sustained a bad crush of the left foot. He was brought to the hospital at this place this afternoon. While the foot is badly injured amputation is not considered necessary.
