DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED

Athens—The Mrs. Nicholson suit against the borough for damages to her lot on account of the guard bank was settled this morning, Borough Attorney Mills giving his check of $500 to C. C. Yocum, Mrs. Nicholson's attorney. This case has been in litigation a long time, Mrs. Nicholson obtaining a judgment for the above amount over a year ago, and two attempts were made in court to have the judgment set aside. After the judgment was obtained the house was destroyed by fire and Mrs. Nicholson got $500 insurance. There has been a legal technicality as to who the house belonged to and the borough attorney claimed that payment had been made in full when Mrs. Nicholson received her $1,000. I. N. Evans and C. C. Yocum were attorneys for Mrs. Nicholson and L. T. Hoyt and C. E. Mills for the defense.

They hold themselves ready night and day to respond to the summons when our property is in danger, and they should have full recognition. Give the boys a lift.
