TRACTION COMPANY DIRECTORS MEET

Waverly—The directors of the W. S. & A. Traction Company held a meeting in the office of Attorney F. E. Hawkes last night. Plans for replacing the present light rails with heavier ones, and for general improvement of the system were discussed. No definite action was taken, however, and the meeting was postponed until Saturday.

BARN BURNED DOWN

Waverly—A barn situated near the Sans Souci cottage near Tioga Point and which belongs to W. C. Farley and other Waverly people, caught fire yesterday afternoon and burned down. Mr. Farley and several others were near the cottage at the time and saved a team that was in the barn, but could not save the building.

BOY TURNED OVER TO POOR AUTHORITIES

Waverly—A boy about 12 years old was taken in charge by Superintendent of the Poor, George Miller, this morning. The boy stated that he lived six miles north of Chemung, that his mother was dead, that his father had a woman living with him and they both got drunk very frequently and made things so hot for him that he could not stand it.

WAS SCARED OUT

Waverly—A postal received by Geo. Campbell from F. A. Briggs at Portland, Ore., states that the writer was in the very center of the San Francisco earthquake and that he was scared out of that city and did not stop until he got to Portland. The writer says the newspapers do not adequately describe the catastrophe, that the building he was in was wrecked and that a heavy piano danced all over the room.

UNPRECEDENTED OFFER!

Valley Record for One Year and a Complete, Graphic and Comprehensive 400-Page Book of the Great Disaster at San Francisco, All for the Regular Subscription Price of the Paper

FREE TO ALL SUBSCRIBERS

Read This Remarkable Offer From Start to Finish. It Is Without Question the Most Liberal One That Has Ever Been Made by Any Newspaper in This Section

Here is without question the biggest and best offer ever made to newspapers readers in this section of the country, or for that matter that has ever been made by any newspaper, big or little, in Northern Pennsylvania.

SAN FRANCISCO CALL BUILDING. San Francisco's Finest Skyscraper.

San Francisco, a city of 400,000 inhabitants has been almost totally destroyed by earthquake and fire; hundred have been killed; thousands have been rendered homeless; millions of dollars worth of property has been destroyed, and all in all the most terrible calamity that has ever visited the new world is now a matter of history.

The entire civilized world has been shocked by this appalling disaster, and an authentic story of the scenes and incidents connected with it will be read with avidity by the public.

Knowing that the people in this valley will be desirous of reading a correct and comprehensive account of an unparalleled conflagration that followed the earthquake's shock The Valley Record has entered into an arrangement whereby it can furnish to new subscribers, and old ones who pay arrearages and renew subscriptions, a 400-page book, containing a graphic account of the shocking calamity. This book is now being prepared by the Monarch Book Co. of Chicago, and will be ready for delivery in about two weeks.

The book will be complete in every respect, containing hundreds of illustrations made from photographs actually taken while the conflagration was in progress, together with many views of the city and its fine buildings before it was devastated by fire.

There are chapters giving thrilling personal experiences of the survivors and rescuers, the stories from eye witnesses, etc. In fact it covers the whole story and field of thought in this greatest of all disasters.

As fast as a corps of canvassers can be secured they will call upon each and every residence in this valley with a neat prospectus of the book, which will be ABSOLUTELY GIVEN AWAY FREE WITH EVERY YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION TO THE VALLEY RECORD.

The subscription price to The Valley Record is $3.00 per year, and the book is made to sell at the same price, but under the terms of The Record's offer you get both for the price of one.

The terms are easy. All you have to do when the agent calls at the door is to hand him one dollar, and agree to pay the remaining two dollars in two equal installments within two months. He will then enter your name upon our subscription books, and at the same time you will receive a voucher which will entitle you to a book.

These terms will not be changed; one dollar must accompany each order, which only covers cost of delivering the book. Mail orders will receive prompt attention but the entire amount, $3.00, with 25 cents additional, to cover cost of postage, must accompany all orders.

Don't delay but snap this up at once. Here is an up-to-date newspaper, containing all the local news of the day, carefully gleaned and correctly edited, and a 400-page account of one of the greatest disasters that has occurred in years, all for the price of one.

Mail Orders should be addressed to "Book Department," Valley Record, Sayre, Bradford County, Pa.
