

MORE STYLE

More style, that's the cry from one end of the country to the other. The more you know about style, the easier it will be to satisfy you that we are in closest touch with up-to-date clothing. When it comes to materials and making, the better you are posted, the more easier it will be to convince you that we can serve you well. But that isn't all—cost of selling is not so great where you have no rents to pay. Our stores are stocked with the best clothing money can buy and labor produce. Come in, we'll do our part to show you the style.

LOCAL MENTION

A slight rain fall during the night settled the dust in the borough streets.

Rain is badly needed especially in the farming districts. The ground is exceedingly dry and the growth of vegetation is being seriously retarded.

Don't pay a big price for a trashy account of the San Francisco disaster. The very finest "History of the San Francisco Horror" that it will be possible to obtain has been secured by The Valley Record, and you can get it absolutely free. Read the large advertisement concerning this work that appears elsewhere in The Record today.

LAY WENT UP THROUGH ROOF

Borough Lockup Was Not Strong Enough to Hold Man Who Assaulted Officer

Herbert L. Lay, the man who resisted Robert E. DeGroff, the officer, when the latter placed him under arrest yesterday afternoon, was held to court yesterday in the sum of $200 bail on the charge of assault and battery upon an officer of the law. Lay, who has been employed as a machinist in the shops, for the past month, in addition to striking an officer broke jail later in the afternoon. He had been placed in the borough lockup awaiting a hearing on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, but not liking the accommodations afforded by the town lockup he decided to go up through the roof, and go up through the roof he did. While he was breaking jail, however, Officer DeGroff swore out a warrant charging assault and battery. The warrant was placed in the hands of Constable Brougham and the latter arrested Lay at the Lehigh Valley station where he was attempting to get his pay for services performed for the company.

Upon being arraigned Lay pleaded not guilty, but after listening to the evidence of the prosecution, he admitted striking the officer and waived further examination for appearance to court.

Lay claims to have been in the army service in the Philippine Islands, and from the manner in which he acted while in court, it was evident that he has been there before. In default of a bondsman he was taken to the county jail by Officer Brougham yesterday afternoon.

When Towanda was reached Lay informed Constable Brougham that he would escape, but after he had been manacled he changed his mind. His case will quite likely come up before Judge Fanning some time next week, provided he will waive the formality of a grand jury hearing.

DAINGEROUS UNDERTAKING

A man considerably under the influence of liquor, but whose name is unknown, attempted to board an eastbound freight train at the station this forenoon. He tried to grab the handles on a freight car but missed his hold. Fortunately he did not fall under the wheels. Detective Johnson witnessed the act and dragged the man away from the train just as he was about to make a second attempt to board it. Officer Bob DeGroff was called and the man was taken to the lockup and a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct entered opposite his name on the police court record. He will be given a hearing late this afternoon.

HEARS FROM RELATIVES

W. S. Wright, the well known groceryman, has received a letter from his aunt, Mrs. Sarah Lawrence, who was a resident of San Francisco at the time of the great disaster. Mrs. Lawrence tells a vivid tale of the scenes of horror of the first three days following the fire. She and her family, consisting of eight members, succeeded in getting out of the doomed city on the third day. They went to Oakland. Mr. Wright also has a number of other relatives who were in the city and all are reported safe.

SELECTION UNSOLICITED

THE VALLEY RECORD has been designated as the official paper of South Waverly borough. The council of that borough at a meeting held last night unanimously named this paper absolutely without solicitation. This is simply an evidence that THE RECORD is recognized by the council of that borough as the leading paper in this end of Bradford county. The courtesy is duly appreciated by the publisher of this paper.

BUSINESS MEN ELECT OFFICERS

Nearly All the Old Officers and Directors Chosen at a Meeting Held Last Night

A meeting of the Business Men's Association was held last night and officers and a board of directors were elected for the ensuing year. The report of Secretary Taylor was read and the document proved to be an excellent resume of what the association has accomplished since its organization a year ago. While the membership has not grown to any great extent the report shows that the association is on an excellent business basis and has been of inestimable value to its members. The collections for the year have been as follows:

Membership dues	$ 780 00
10 deposit fee account of	60 65
Band money	219 50
For members' account of bills placed with association for collection	683 68
Total	$1,752 83

The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President, D. Clary; vice president, F. Seager; treasurer, C. L. Burlingham; secretary, F. J. Taylor. The directors are T. J. Leahy, J. W. Bishop, I. A. Samuels, G. L. Roberts, A. P. Wieland, F. J. Murphy, James Maney, Herman Bolich, J. W. Grumme, N. M. Stafford, W. H. Johnston and Dr. C. J. Cummings.

BOROUGH NEEDS LOCKUP BADLY

Present One is "Too Easy" for Prisoners Who Are Wise

The escape of Herbert L. Lay from the borough lockup yesterday afternoon is proof positive that this borough needs a place where prisoners may be confined with some assurance that they will be there when wanted. The manner in which Lay succeeded in getting out was simple indeed, and it is a wonder that others who have been heretofore confined in the borough "bug house" had not hit upon the plan before. Between the cells cells there is a thin partition, which a man with ordinary strength can easily break, and Lay simply threw himself against this partition until it gave away. The cell next to the one in which he was confined was empty, and as is the custom when there is no one occupying the cell the door is left unlocked. All Lay had to do when he found himself in the adjoining cell was to walk to the outside door of the lockup, turn the catch on the door and vamoose. Until repairs are made there is now no place in which prisoners may be confined.

JOHNSON'S TRIAL

The trial of Charles Johnson charged with the murder of Mrs. Maggie Johnson and Annie Benjamin will come up before Judge Fanning and a jury next week. Sheriff Griffin has summoned a panel of 70 jurors, and it is expected that before twelve men, good and true, can be secured to sit in judgment on the case that an extra panel will have to be drawn.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED

John Maloney, an old rounder, whose age apparently runs well up into the eighties, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was given a hearing this morning and sentence was suspended on his promise to get out of town.

HOLMES TAKEN TO COUNTY JAIL

Drink-Crazed Man, Under Bail on Charge of Surety of the Peace, Is Surrendered by His Bondsman

Drink-crazed Tom Holmes, who on Monday last was held to court in the sum of $250 bail for appearance to court on a charge of surety of the peace, was surrendered by his bondsman this morning and later taken to Towanda by Constable John R. Kasper and placed in the county jail, where he will remain until legally discharged. Holmes, who was arrested on complaint of a woman who resides in Milltown, loaded up with whiskey again last night and resumed his occupation of breaking up the furniture and threatening the lives of those who reside in the house. He went to Waverly and was driven out of the town by Chief Brooks. Chief Walsh of Sayre was on the lookout for the man and placed him under arrest.

DR. C. L. STEVENS FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Dr. C. L. Stevens of Athens, Bradford county, is a candidate for nomination for the legislature. It is a long stretch of miles from Erie to Athens, but we send our earnest hopes for his nomination.

The reason.—When we first threw our real tree school movement to the breeze Dr. Stevens heard of it and he wrote us some letters and the way he plied his "I want to know how and why" scalpel on us was a caution. [Dr. Stevens, who we do not know personally, is editor of the Pennsylvania State Medical Journal.] After his probing and dissection he came out strongly for the reform. With that basis to work from he would be an exceedingly valuable man to help Senator Edmiston carry through to success this great measure of tax relief, educational advancement, and equalization of taxation. The business of doctors makes them investigators and healers, and we hope the voters of old Bradford will send Dr. Stevens to Harrisburg to help enact this great reform movement into statutory law. This reform would save the taxpayers of Bradford county $170,708 23 every year. Isn't it worth while?—The Erie Echo.

INJUNCTION MODIFIED

Judge Fanning yesterday handed down a decision in the temporary injunction granted the Wysox township commissioners restraining the Lehigh Valley railroad company or its employes from laying a road across the fair ground near the east Towanda crossing and occupying the road. The decision of the judge permits the Lehigh to continue with the East Towanda improvements, but there are certain restrictions imposed which the company is bound to obey as long as the injunction is operative. The company must maintain a high fence along the narrow gauge road which it proposes to build and a watchman must be kept at that point. All operations must cease during the time of holding the Bradford county fair.

"A BUNCH OF KEYS"

The entertainment at the Loomis Opera House Saturday, May 5, will be all that the lovers of good music and dancing could expect. The "Bunch of Keys" is well known and always welcome. Manager Bothner has secured the pick and choice of the farce comedy favorites and has made many notable changes to make it perfect, artistically, and its appointments and its individual cleverness is well known to the playgoing fraternity and will repeat its former success. Among the special features introduced this season will be the Acme quartette, Matinee and evening.
