LAST NIGHT'S SHOW

A BIG SUCCESS

Cinderella in Flowerland Was Creditably Presented by Home Talent

Athens—The entertainment "Cinderella in Flowerland," at high school hall last evening, called out one of the largest audiences we have seen in Athens, and they were highly delighted. Miss Ethel Gray, the musical instructor, was not only shown great proficiency in the musical art but she has demonstrated that she has the rare faculty of imparting this knowledge to those under her charge. The parts were so well mastered that the children performed them, in many of the most difficult passages, with out prompting or accompaniment. The costumes were rich and the stage settings natural, and when the children appeared in the woodland bower of evergreen and flowers, it looked like fairyland.

The chorus "Woodland Voices," by pupils of the three schools, it showed how well the voices had been drilled in time and melody. The Big Bass Drum gave evolutions in tactics that would make an old soldier envious. Miss Marguerite Stiles played the classical violin solo "La Sentementale," by Singer, with wonderful precision. The chorus "Bye-Lo-Land," by pupils of the Page school, was one of the sweetest of the evening. The children sang the harmony in three parts, blending their voices so perfectly as to fill the air with rapturous melody. Miss Ruth Leonard was a coy little "Cinderella," whose daisies set off her smiling countenance with enticing effect, and Miss Ora Heverly, the "Tiger Lilly," was a great success. But we can not mention all. They deserve it, for the parts were perfectly represented, and it was an evening of rare delight that will linger in pleasant memory a long time.

Miss Gray deserves the hearty congratulations of all who were present for the entertainment she gave them.
