

MORE STYLE

More style, that's the cry from one end of the country to the other. The more you know about style, the easier it will be to satisfy you that we are in closest touch with up-to-date clothing. When it comes to materials and making, the better you are posted, the more easier it will be to convince you that we can serve you well. But that isn't all—cost of selling is not so great where you have no rents to pay. Our stores are stocked with the best clothing money can buy and labor produce. Come in, we'll do our part to show you the style.

CLIVIO CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

William Chase Is the Victim and He Causes the Arrest of His Assailant This Morning

William Chase, a bartender at the Brundage House, was the victim of an assault on East Packer avenue last night about 8 o'clock, and as a result has been going about today with his head swathed in bandages. Chase, accompanied by William Meadows and Charles Valentine, was walking east on East Packer avenue. Midway between Thomas avenue and River street, the three men who were walking abreast, encountered an Italian who was alone. The Italian was in the center of the walk and it is alleged that he bumped into the three men in a rather unceremonious and uncalled for manner, according to the statement made this morning by Chase. The Italian then ran toward the river and finally disappeared into a house near East street which is occupied by a number of Italians. The three men continued their walk toward the ball ground but when opposite a high board fence on the north side of the street below River street a half dozen or more Italians jumped from behind the fence and before the men were aware of their intentions the foreigners drew knives and proceeded to cut and slash. Chase fared the worst of the lot. He received a stunning blow on the side of the head which knocked him down and rendered him senseless. His two companions were also the victims of divers blows, but escaped serious injury.

The foreigners were finally put to rout and Chase, bleeding profusely from a wound about three inches long in the side of the head, was taken to the office of Dr. H. A. Haines.

During the fight several revolvers in the hands of the Italians were fired but none of the shots took effect.

This morning Chase appeared before a local justice and caused a John Doe warrant to be issued which was placed in the hands of Chief Walsh, who arrested an Italian laborer named Sam Clivio, who is charged with having hit Chase. It is claimed that one of Chase's companions can identify the Italian as the man who committed the assault. Clivio will be given a hearing this afternoon.

DIED THIS MORNING

Mrs. E. F. Mercereau this morning received a telegram announcing the death of her father, J. S. Cyphers, at his home in Falls, this state. The deceased has been ill in health for a long time and recently his condition has been critical. Some years ago Mr. Cyphers was a resident of Sayre, and there are many who will recollect him. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mercereau went Falls this noon. The funeral will probably be held on Saturday.

WITHOUT STOPPING

For some years engines have been taking water without stopping, and mail trains have been picking up mail sacks from posts without so much as a pause. Now an appliance for coaling engines without stopping has been invented, and experiments with it are said to have been highly satisfactory. The next improvement for the saving of time will be a device for throwing passengers on and off the trains without stopping.

ELECTED OFFICERS

The Epworth League of the Methodist church elected officers last night as follows: R. C. Taylor, president; Mrs. E. A. Williams, 1st vice; Miss Lottie Charter, 2nd vice; Miss Myra Druckenmiller, 3rd vice; Miss Grace Sherwood, 4th vice; Fred Welliver, secretary; E. B. Barbour, treasurer; Bernice Rumsey, organist; Byron Thompson, assistant organist.

WEDDED AT JERSEY SHORE YESTERDAY

Dr. M. C. Hunter and Miss Maud Randall United in Matrimony's Holy Bonds

Dr. M. C. Hunter, Sayre's well known physician, and Miss Maud Randall, a graduate nurse of the R. A. Packer hospital, class of '94, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's brother, Moses Randall of Jersey Shore, yesterday at high noon, the Rev. W. Emerson Karns, pastor of the Methodist church of that place, officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride. Dr. and Mrs. Hunter returned to Sayre today.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah Randall of Dushore and also a brother of Dr. William Randall of that place. She is a most estimable young woman who made many friends during her term at the Packer hospital as a nurse. The groom has resided in Sayre for the past eleven years, during which time he has built up an extensive medical practice and is numbered among Sayre's substantial and most reliable citizens. Both have scores of friends who will extend congratulations and wish them many years of wedded happiness and unbroken prosperity.

THE ANONYMOUS LETTER WRITER

He Is the Most Despised of Mankind and Is Sadly in Need of Brains

The Record is in receipt of the following letter, written in red ink, and profusely decorated with a skull and cross bones, bowie knife, revolver and a figure which might be taken for a flaming torch. The words are all printed and the epistle reads as follows:

"Sayre, Pa., April 30, 1906.
Jos H. Murrelle,
You had better SHUT OFF your POLITICAL TALK YOU ARE GETTING TO DAM CUNNING. A word TO the WISE is sufficient."

Since the receipt of the communication The Record and its force, from the proprietor to the office cat, have been enjoying life as of yore, eating three "squares" per day, and sleeping the sleep of the just at night. Whether the letter is the work of a practical joker or of an emissary of the disintegrated Republican machine is a matter of speculation. The chances are, however, that it was written by some despicable wretch who would do humanity and society a service by quietly going to some secluded spot and praying for brains, as from the manner in which the letter is constructed he stands much more in need of a well organized set of brains than The Record does protection against his threats.

The Record has placed the letter among a collection of its literary "jems" which it has been collecting recently, and later in life when we have retired on a comfortable fortune made out of the printing business, we will sit by our fireside, read the aforesaid "jems" to our grandchildren and try and impress upon their minds that the meanest and most despised of human kind is the anonymous letter writer.

TEACHERS' APPLICATIONS

On account of a lack of quorum there was no regular meeting of Sayre borough school board last night. A committee, however, consisting of Directors Thompson, Whittle, Cook and Maddock, met and took up the applications of teachers for positions for the ensuing year. With the exception of Ada V. Fancher, seventh grade; Edna Fearon, fourth grade, and May DeLaney, first and second grades, all the old teachers presented applications. Nearly one-half of those who applied demanded or asked for an increase in salary. The applications will be recommended to the new school board which will hold its first meeting and organize on the first Tuesday evening in June.

JOHN D. KINNEY

Ex-County Commissioner John D. Kinney died very suddenly at his home in Warren Center on Tuesday evening. He had been in poor health for some time but was able to be about the house, and a few minutes previous to his death expressed himself as feeling much improved. He was stricken at nine o'clock and passed away an hour later. The deceased was 66 years old and was highly respected. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the house.
