

MORE STYLE

More style, that's the cry from one end of the country to the other. The more you know about style, the easier it will be to satisfy you that we are in closest touch with up-to-date clothing. When it comes to materials and making, the better you are posted, the more easier it will be to convince you that we can serve you well. But that isn't all—cost of selling is not so great where you have no rents to pay. Our stores are stocked with the best clothing money can buy and labor produce. Come in, we'll do our part to show you the style.

TRIED BEFORE A JURY OF SIX

Interesting Suit in Which Sayre Residents Are the Parties Was Heard at Towanda Yesterday

The suit of George L. Roberts vs. Asa T. Pritchard, both of Sayre, was heard in Towanda yesterday before six jurors, summoned by Sheriff Job Griffin, and the case involves an interesting proceeding in law. Roberts obtained a judgment before a justice at Sayre and an execution was issued against the personal property of Pritchard. This was returned by the constable as "nulla bona," or no goods, which means there were no goods attachable under the execution.

A writ of fieri facias was issued and a levy made thereunder on the real estate by Sheriff Griffin. Pursuant to the act of assembly the sheriff held an inquisition yesterday by summoning six jurors who were sworn to ascertain whether rents and profits from the land above a l reprises would satisfy the judgment within seven years. The jury found in the negative and accordingly "condemned" the property as required by the act. The sheriff will now make his return and the plaintiff will in all probability proceed to sell the real estate.

The six jurors summoned by Sheriff Griffin were J. T. Corbin of Athens, S. E. Sweet of Sheshequin and J. W. Keating, Otto Mayor, G. C. Hollon and A. C. Blackwell of Towanda.

NO POSTPONEMENT OF JOHNSON TRIAL

Charley Johnson will certainly face a jury at the approaching term of court at Towanda. A motion was made before the court yesterday by W. P. Wilson of Lilley & Wilson, his attorneys, for a continuance of the case to the next term of court. District Attorney Mills objected to the continuance on the grounds that the jurors had already been empanelled, the witnesses summoned, and all preparations on the part of the commonwealth completed for a trial of the accused man. He argued also that it would result in large expense to the county if the case was postponed longer. Accordingly Judge Fanning ordered that the case be brought to trial without delay.

HAS A BROTHER AT MAUCH CHUNK

This morning Chief of Police James Walsh received a telegram from the chief of police at White Haven stating that the parents of Patrick Burke who died in the Packer hospital on Thursday night, were dead, but that the deceased has a brother residing in Mauch Chunk. The local authorities will endeavor today to get into communication with the Mauch Chunk man and it is quite likely that he will come here and take charge of remains.

YESTERDAY'S GAME

The ball game yesterday afternoon between Binghamton and Kane resulted in a victory for the latter team, score 2 to 6. The game was an exciting one from start to finish but was witnessed by an exceedingly small crowd. The two aggregations were to have played again this afternoon but on account of the attendance the Binghamton players decided to cancel.

REPAIRING THE LOCKUP

The borough lockup is undergoing repairs. Since Herbert D. Lay wrecked the interior of the foul smelling, badly ventilated and vermin infested excise for a borough bastille, there has been no secure place in which to confine prisoners, and Contractor F. J. Johnson has been instructed to repair the damage. A force of carpenters began work on the job this morning.

MINER'S WILLING TO RESUME WORK

Submit Proposition That Will Put An End to Probability of a Coal Strike

Unless all signs fail, there will be no coal strike in the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania. From information received over the private wire of the Waverly stock exchange this noon it is learned that the miners have stolen a march on the operators, and the chances are that in a few days they will be back to work as usual.

In addition to the news contained on the first page of today's Record a later dispatch states that the subcommittee, to whom the entire strike matter was referred, has decided to submit a proposition to the miners' convention today recommending the resumption of work under the terms of the 1903 agreement. It is considered practically certain that the recommendation will be adopted by the convention this afternoon, and that the miners and operators will get together on that basis at a joint conference to be held on Tuesday.

AGENTS REPORT GREAT SUCCESS

Scores Are Taking Advantage of The Record's Great Book Offer

Agents in the employ of The Valley Record are reporting wonderful success in securing subscriptions in connection with the great book offer. Each agent reports at the office every day, and names are being added to our already large list by the score. Perhaps you have not yet read our offer.

With one year's subscription to The Valley Record, ($3.00) payable $1.00 down and the remainder $1.00 per month until fully paid, we give a 400-page book entitled "The San Francisco Earthquake Horror," which contains a graphic and detailed account of the greatest of modern disasters. The scenes and incidents are truthfully depicted and there is not a family in the valley that can afford to do without it. Think of it! The Valley Record for one year and this book all for one price. If the agent has not called upon you send in your name to this office.

BENEFIT CONCERT

Miss Lissa Treat, who will appear here on the 16th of May in a benefit concert to be given for the Baptist church, will graduate from the Ithaca Conservatory of Music next month. Miss Treat is acknowledged to possess one of the finest soprano voices that has ever entered the conservatory. Her voice has a rich sweetness, of high range, and is under excellent control. On the occasion of her former visit to Sayre those who heard her were delighted.

PLAYED EXCITING GAME

The altar boys of the Church of the Epiphany and a team of youngsters from Elmer avenue played an exceedingly exciting game of ball this forenoon. The score resulted in a tie, the score standing 12 to 12. A return game will be played next Tuesday. Willie Ryan is the captain of the altar boys and Eugene O'Neil is manager. Charles Hill is captain of the Elmer avenue bunch and Wilbur Flickinger is manager.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Frank Gibson of Owego, Edward Lewis of Athens, Peter Kelly of Ulster, and Mrs. James Arnold of Sayre, were discharged today.

Nicilo Pesina, an Italian, had his foot injured by dropping a rail on it, and was admitted yesterday afternoon.

OPEN AIR MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

Band of Christian Workers Begin a Most Laudable Undertaking

A band of christian workers of the Methodist church held an open air meeting on the corner of River street and East Packer avenue last night. The meeting was nearly in progress one hour and a half and attracted a large congregation composed principally of people residing in the neighborhood. It is understood that these meetings are to be continued each evening during the summer months and that they will be held at various points throughout the borough. The object is to reach a class of people who are not in the habit of attending any church and it is expected that a great work will be accomplished. The band of workers should have the encouragement and unqualified endorsement of every good citizen in this most laudable undertaking.

In connection herewith it might be well to warn any young men, and unfortunately older ones as well, who are inclined to in any way disturb these gatherings, that they are liable to arrest for disturbing and interfering with religious meetings.

D. S. ANDRUS & CO.

WORD-BUILDING CONTEST NOT YET DECIDED

The task of looking over the lists of the D. S. Andrus & Co. "Word Building Contest" has been herculean. It was expected that the result would be announced before this. The judges have been working day and night. They have found that it will be necessary to count every word, and to revise every list to insure accuracy in awarding the grand prize of the $4500 D. S. Andrus & Co., Cabinet Grand piano. Never was there more interest in a contest than this. The people realized that when D. S. Andrus & Co. announced that they were going to give away $4,325.00 in prizes they meant it. That is why there were so many contestants. The second prize of a $3500 Doylemarx Concert Grand piano is well worth winning. D. S. Andrus & Co. take this method of informing the public about the contest, and the result will be announced in this paper just as soon as possible. As D. S. Andrus & Co. have always stood for Reliability in business affairs, this contest must be conducted honestly, thoroughly and satisfactorily to all concerned.

The D. S. Andrus & Co. stores at Elmira, Williamsport, Sayre Ithaca and Painted Post have been kept more than busy answering queries about this great contest.

WILL ATTEND IN A BODY

The Bartenders' Union met in trainmen's hall yesterday afternoon and decided to attend in a body the funeral of Edward Leary which is to be held at the home of his brother in Waverly tomorrow morning. The bartenders are requested to meet at the hall at 9 o'clock in order to take the car which leaves Sayre at 9:27.

HOLMES GAVE BAIL

Tom Holmes, who was sent to Towanda on Tuesday to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of making threats against the life and person of a Milltown woman, returned to Sayre last night, having furnished the required security to effect his release.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER

On account of placing the new pipe organ the only service tomorrow will be the holy communion in the chapel 8 o'clock a. m., conducted by Rev. Herbert L. Hanale, who will arrive in Sayre this evening.

LOCAL MENTION

The time of the service at the Milltown chapel has been changed from 2 to 2:30 p. m.

The contractors expect to begin work on the Lehigh tracks at East Towanda on Monday.

The Towanda churches are preparing to take an offering for the Robert Packer hospital Sunday, May 13.

There were 33 candidates admitted to membership in the order of the Eastern Star at a meeting held last night. The work of organization was also perfected. This organization is starting out in a fine manner and promises to be one of the banner lodges in the valley.
