BELMONT "CALLED DOWN" COUNSEL Furfman Examined In Case of Ex-

Treasurer Rasmussen, Who Is Ac-For Gambling Parposes.

NEW YORK, May 9,-After creating great excitement in the supreme court by assailing counsel for employing tactics which he called "indecent" August Belmout took the witness stand in the suit of the Housesmiths and Bronze Erectors' union against the Westchester Racing association for the recovery $1.685 lost at Morris park race track by F. P. Rasmussen, treasurer of the union.

Justice Amend ordered Lawyer Perdue to call Mr. Belmont as a witness after counsel for Rasmussen had fought vigorously to keep him off the stand. His contention was that _s be had subposnaed Mr. Belmont he had the right to call him when he wanted his testimony. Mr. Belmont publicly "called down" opposing counsel and gained the witness stand with the assistance of the proposition was made, he thought, by Sixth Race .- Tanagar, first; Econo-Wheelock. Q. Was any arrangement made at this time with the Metropolitan Turf association? A. No. The matter was entirely dropped.

Witness was unable to say whethe the association was told they could only contribute by purchasing tickets. Mr. Dolphin-I'm reading from your estimony in another case.

Mr. Belmont-Ob, very well. That's fresher than my memory. I think they arranged to purchase a certain number of tickets each day.

Q. How many did they buy each day? A. I could not tell you. I was not the treasurer. I was only a director. We did not know what one's expenses would be.

Q. Then your action depended on our expenses? A. No. We acted uniformly on all tracks.

Q. Did they contribute more than one admission? A. That I don't know. They had there an organization outside

Q. But you were assured a certain number would be bought? A. That I don't know. They made that arrangement themselves in their turf association. It was generally known, I should say, a common accepted amount arranged among themselves. I think spproximately afty-seven tickets for each man.

lic choices won, and the form players had most profitable raciug. Halton, favorite in the first race, was the only Brst choice to fall. The winner turned up in Round Dance, a 20 to 1 shot. Jockey Miller won half of the card, plloting Pater, Inquisitor and Lord of the Forest to victory.

Inquisitor after running in a good osition all the way closed strong in the stretch and won the Montague stakes by a head from Ormonde's Right, with Phil Finch third. De Mund, the best two-year-old shown this year, was sold to Paul Rainey of Cleveland, O., for the reported price of $45. 000. De Mund started once this year in a half mile race, which he won by ten or fifteen lengths. He stepped the distance then in 0.47 1-5. A week ago he worked a balf mile over the Gravesend track in 0:46 seconds flat.

Banasa, O'Nelli up, in the last race fell soon after the start, but ber rider escaped injury. The filly broke her leg and was otherwise badly injured and will be destroyed. Summaries:

PEOPLE THROWN FROM THEN, LEDS Farm Buildings Overturned, Windows and Dishes Broken and Clocks Stopped-Had Shock Three Years Ago. NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 8.-East. hampton, a small village a few miles east of Middletown, on the Air line division of the New Haven railroad, has been shaken by an earthquake. People thrown from their beds rushed into the streets, windows and dishes were broken, clocks were stopped and a stanli building on a farm in the out skirts was overturned. The direction of the sho k was from outhwest to northeast.

The tremor caused consteruation, and the people hurried from their homes scantily clothed. The disturbance was greatest along

North High street. Easthampton is in a district that has and earthquakes within recent years. The most recent shock was about three years ago. It was quite severe at Haddam, four miles south. When Charleston was partially detroyed nearly every town in Connecticut feit the shock. In the hilly sections it was particularly severe, people running from their houses in terror. Some of the earthquake shocks felt in the vicinity of Easthampton have been attributed to small landslips on the ridge running through central Massachusetts and Connecticut. They have nothing to do with the "moodus noises" which have occurred
