From the Start of This Business

We knew it would be only a matter of time until we would have more and more of the thrifty people with us. We have only engaged in methods that are right, kept our promises, made without hesitation; in fact kept breadth of our dealings fully up to the size of our establishment. Your own good judgment will determine our relative worth as distributors of merchandise, in the modern world of merchandising. It's the store patronized by thrifty people.

WILLIAM P. LANE

Athens—Notice of the death of William P. Lane of Owego, in last evening's Record, brings sadness to some of his old Athens friends who have known and respected him highly in earlier years. He was a talented musician, and took part in many of the events that stand out prominently in past times. He possessed a high tenor voice, such as is seldom met with among professional singers, and his services were sought for far and near. Mr. A. C. McCaslin was in Binghamton day before yesterday and had a talk with him about a half hour before he started out on his fatal fishing trip with his two little grandsons. He was in good spirits and anticipated great pleasure from his day's outing. Mr. Lane worked in Athens last summer as painter and decorator in a carriage manufactory.

BIG CROWD ATTENDED

Athens—There was a large crowd in attendance at the Catholic fair last evening. The rug was won by Minnie Warren of South Waverly, and the handsome sofa cushion by Mrs. W. E. Croll. The door prize of a ton of coal was awarded to Marion Sawtelle, and the five pound box of candy by Miss Anna Carroll of Sayre. There will be special attractions tonight and Hosmer's band will be present to enliven the hours with good music. There will be a social time for the young people after the exercises are over.
