SAWED IRON BARS AND ESCAPED JAIL

Dr. Magee, Charged with Grand Larceny at Elmira Took French Leave on Monday Night

It now develops that Chief Cassidy, of the Elmira police force, was in Sayre yesterday afternoon endeavoring to get trace of Dr. George Magee, alias Dr. George Kurtz, who was to have been placed on trial at Elmira yesterday morning for grand larceny in having secured a $150 diamond ring and $500 in money from Mrs. George M. Sayre, of Horsesheds, while posing as a trance medium and fortune teller, but who escaped from the Chemung county jail on Monday night by sawing the iron bars of his cell window with a hack saw.

Magee is believed to have been assisted from the outside, and evidence was secured by the Elmira police to the effect that he was driven to Waverly in time to catch a Lackawanna train for New York at 3:27 yesterday morning.

Chief Cassidy came to Sayre yesterday and with the assistance of Chief Walsh of this place and Chief Brooks of Waverly, he received considerable information. Men who were at the Lackawanna station when the train arrived yesterday morning say that two men who had driven to a point near the station boarded it for New York. The description of one of the men tallies exactly with Magee. The police throughout the country have been notified and it is believed it will be only a matter of a few hours when the wily doctor will be taken in custody.

EXCELLENT PEOPLE SECURED

Messrs. Salisbury & Murray have been exceedingly fortunate in securing people for the summer stock company which is to open the park on Monday evening next. The following well known stage people have responded and are here for rehearsals, which began today: John Whiteside and Niel Hickey, of the Murray-Mackie company; George A. Seigman, of the Volunteer Organist company; Paul A. Carroll, of Himmlein's Imperial Stock company; Joe McEnroe and Mae LaPorte of the Irene Myers company, and S. M. and Addie LaPorte of the Guy Stock company; John M. Newman and Al Lonhardt, also actors of ability, have been engaged. Patrons of the park may expect some fine performances as the company will be first class in every respect.

MEMORIAL DAY

Heretofore it has been the custom of the G. A. R. Post to arrange for the observance of Memorial day, but this year a joint committee of the post and the P. O. S. of A. have the matter in hand and the post has turned the arrangements over to the P. O. S. of A. They will have charge of securing the music and the orator for the occasion. An orator has already been secured, Attorney C. C. Yocum having promised to be present in this capacity on this occasion.

TRADE IMPROVING

Commercial travelers have been in evidence considerable about Sayre during the past few days. The greater number of them claim they are not doing much business and that merchants are somewhat slow in adding to their stocks, placing only orders enough to carry them along. Local merchants report trade improving, but they say that it will take a pay or two to get it back to normal condition.

FORMER RESIDENT MARRIED YESTERDAY

Rev. Abram Sterling Barner and Miss Carrie Elizabeth Andre United in Wedlock.

Rev. Abram Sterling Barner and Miss Carrie Elizabeth Andre were married last night at eight o'clock at the Prospect church, New Orange, N. J., in the presence of a large number of invited guests and friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The groom is the son of Abel Barner, Sayre's well known citizen and a brother of Mrs. Horace Chilson of West Sayre. He was born in Towanda and is well known throughout this section as a man of the highest character and integrity. His bride is one of New Orange's most estimable young women. After June first Rev. Mr. Barner will go to Brooklyn where he is to become the pastor of one of the well known churches of that city.

PERSONAL MENTION

G. S. Parker, of the novelty store, and Earl Hammond, of the local postoffice clerical force, left town this morning. They were armed with fishing tackle of every description, and it is said that they really entertain the idea of catching a few trout.

Mrs. Llewellyn Simonds, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Snow, on Keystone avenue, returned with her little daughter, June Louise, to their home in Southbridge, Mass., where Mr. Simonds is superintendent of one of the largest optical works in the United States.

NEW SWITCH TOWER

The Lehigh Valley Railroad company is contemplating the building of a new tower and interlocking plant at the junction where the Ithaca branch crosses the E. C. & N. near VanEtten. It is to be one of the Taylor pattern and will operate all the switches in the yard by electricity from the tower. Several new switches will be put in to add to the safety and convenience of trains. Part of the material is already on the ground and from appearances the work will commence soon. The new tower will necessitate another day and night operator.

TEACHER WHIPPED BOY SEVERELY

At Least It Is So Alleged by the Lad's Parents

The parents of a ten year-old school boy consulted a local attorney this morning with reference to a whipping which the boy is alleged to have received yesterday afternoon at the hands of one of the female teachers. The boy's back and arms are said to be covered with black and blue marks, a ruler having been used as a weapon of chastisement.

According to the statements of the boy it appears that he had been caught chewing gum, and as this is not tolerated by the rules of the school he was called to account by the teacher. The teacher says that the boy has been a persistent offender against the chewing gum rule and that she was obliged to make him understand in some manner that he could not repeatedly break the rule. Then she took him in hand and applied the ruler to his back, probably with more force than she was aware of, as the boy's back is rather a sorry looking sight today.

This boy's father took the lad to an attorney, where a consultation was held. It is not likely that proceedings of a legal nature will be instituted as the boy's father refuses to make a criminal complaint. In the meantime, however, the boy has been returned to school and the superintendent has promised to see that he is protected from a further application of the ruler.

MARVELOUS ANIMAL ACT

One of the special attractions with the Cummins Greater Wild West and Indian Congress which will open in Waverly, May 26, under the direction of Walter L. Main, are the educated wild beasts which have been brought together from the four quarters of the globe and trained to act and play together in perfect accord. Lions, tigers, leopards, pumas, hyenas, wolves, bears, baboons, sheep and goats, are shown grouped together in utter, or apparent unconsciousness of the fact that in their natural wilds they are respectively hereditary enemies. A novel feature of this one attraction of many, in the most stupendous tented amusement enterprise ever launched, will be the appearance of one of the largest lionesses in captivity and her two cubs, which were born in the Winter quarters at Geneva, Ohio, three weeks ago. That these young cats, timid and playful as young kittens, can grow up and be happy in the narrow quarters of a cage, may appear strange to many people, but it is a fact, according to animal trainers, that when animals, no matter how ferocious they may be in their native haunts, are born in captivity, they round out, and their natures remain gentle. The treatment they receive is the best and that has much to do with it. They are carefully looked after, kept clean, well bedded and the good food given them daily and regularly helps them toward adapting themselves to the strange conditions. In the matter of food the lions, tigers, pumas, leopards and others of the cat tribe get the best fresh beef, in fact the fresher it is the better for the animals. They are given a neck piece of beef containing a bone which constrains the animal to tear off the meat in shreds, and in pieces of such a size that they are forced to chew it, which obviates attacks of dyspepsia to which all members of the cat tribe in captivity are prone.

AWARDED CONTRACT

F. H. Johnson, Sayre's well known contractor, has been awarded the contract for the building of the new county clerk's office at Owego. The bids were opened yesterday afternoon. There were several other bidders but as Mr. Johnson's bid was considered the lowest and best he was given the contract. His figures were $11,723.
