LOCAL BREVITIES

Circus at Waverly tomorrow.

Harvey Gray's dance at the Eighmey hall this evening instead of tomorrow evening. Loomis opera house orchestra in attendance.

The shifting crews in the Packerton yards have been reduced to one man, and there is said to be some dissatisfaction among the employes.

Baggage traffic on the Pennsylvania division of the Lehigh is something enormous these days. The heavy traffic is due to resumption at the coal mines.

There was a break in the water main on South Elmer avenue last night and a force of men under the supervision of Superintendent Loetzner worked the greater part of the night to repair it.

Vegetation in this locality is growing rapidly. The recent rains have been of inestimable benefit to all kinds of crops. Other localities are said to be suffering from dry weather, but such is not the case hereabouts.

Cheer up, O despondent one! The huckleberry crop is to be a large one this year. Those who have visited the woods say that the bushes are laden with blossoms and that the berries are likely to be plentiful.

Scenic Gardner, Dempsey, is busy shipping flowers from the hot houses here to various points along the line of the Lehigh. The flowers this year are even handsomer than in previous years and bear every evidence of being taken care of by a man who thoroughly understands his business.

The members of the G. A. R. and P. O. S. of A., will attend divine service at the Methodist church on Sunday evening next at which time the Rev. J. F. Warner will deliver the Memorial Day sermon. The seats in the front part of the church will be reserved for members of the visiting organizations.

THREATENED TO SMASH HER HEAD

Mrs. George Case Says She Fears Her Husband Will Do Her Injury and Causes His Arrest

Last night Mrs. Nellie Case of North Lehigh avenue, caused the arrest of her husband, George Case, alleging that he had threatened to do her bodily injury. Mrs. Case says that her husband has been drinking lately, and that on Wednesday night he remained away from home. Yesterday morning she went in search of him and found him near the old ice cream factory on lower Lehigh avenue. At this point is where the threats are alleged to have taken place. Mrs. Case says that when she asked her husband to go home with her, he replied by saying that he would smash her head with a stone.

Case was arrested last night by Chief Walsh in the early part of the evening, and later gave bail before Justice Carey for his appearance at a hearing to be held on Monday afternoon next. T. P. Maney qualifying as bondsmen Case has retained Attorney C. C. Yocum, who waived the reading of the complaint, entered a plea of not guilty, and will put up a fight for his client.

ALUMNI BANQUET MONDAY, JUNE 4

Final Preparations for the Event Were Made at a Meeting Held Last Night

The Sayre high school alumni association held a meeting at the high school hall on last evening, and made final preparations for the annual banquet.

It was decided to hold the banquet on Monday evening, June 4, in Talmadge's hall on South Elmer avenue. The banquet will be served by the ladies of the Episcopal church, and an excellent menu has been prepared for the occasion.

It was decided that each member of the association, which includes all who have graduated from the high school, shall be entitled to bring one invited guest, provided that such guest shall accompany the member and be seated with him at the table.

WANT DAMAGES

Two damage suits were commenced yesterday against the Lehigh Valley, both growing out of the same accident. H. W. Montgomery wants $15,000 for injuries alleged to have been received while driving across the company's crossing between Drifton and Freeland Montgomery was driving with John Fisher and the latter claims $1,000 damages for a bay horse which was struck and killed by the alleged negligent manner in which the defendant company operated a train.

MAY COME TO SAYRE

There is a strong rumor afloat to the effect that the Lehigh Valley store house at Packerton is to be removed to Sayre. The rumor could not be confirmed today, but the Hazelton Standard says that the change will probably be made before the end of the present year. The newspapers in that section are already entering a protest as it will mean a reduction in the Lehigh's working force at that point of nearly 250 men.

SEWER COMMITTEE MEETING

The sewer committee of the borough council will hold a meeting this evening, at which time the question will be taken up for discussion. The borough council meets one week from Monday evening and it is hoped to have the matter in shape for a report of some nature.

IDENTITY OF MAN NOT YET KNOWN

Victim of Car Wheels May or May Not Have Been a Soldier

The identity of the man who was ground to pieces by the cars west of Geneva some time during Wednesday night has not yet been established and the detectives who have been trying to obtain a clue are as much in the dark as ever. Detective Doty of the local special officers' force, spent yesterday at the scene of the accident but the only clue that he was able to find was a note which read as follows:

"May 23, 1906 Conductor: This soldier says that he lost his ticket in depot at Buffalo. Take him back and see if it has been found." (Signed) J. M. Halter.

J. M. Halter was the conductor on train No. 6, which carried the soldiers over the Lehigh on last Wednesday. He will be communicated with today and it is possible that he may be able to shed some light on the matter. Detective Doty is not inclined to believe that the man was a soldier, but was some fellow who was trying to get over the road without a ticket. Doty says that the man's body was literally cut to pieces and the remains scattered along the tracks for a distance of over 400 feet. There was nothing remaining by which the body could be identified.

BROKE INTO CAR

Three Italians, two men and a woman, were arrested at Coxton yesterday by Lehigh Valley detectives, charged with breaking a seal on one of the company's freight cars. For some time the company has been troubled considerably by persons breaking into cars and many articles of merchandise have been missed. Recently the company detectives have been instructed to keep a sharp lookout for the persons doing the mischief, with the result that two men and women were taken in custody. They were taken before an alderman at Coxton and fined.

ITALIANS ON STRIKE

Seventy-five Italian laborers, employed by the Lehigh Valley near Easton, went on a strike Tuesday morning. They wanted a raise of ten cents per day. County Detective Johnson went to the scene of the trouble and with the aid of four interpreters induced the men to return to work, and a conference will now be held with the officials.

HE WAS A BATTLE SCARRED VETERAN

Worked Sayre for Food and Drink and Departed for Athens Last Night

On Wednesday last there blew into town a battle scarred veteran of the Civil War, at least he claimed that he had fought with the Army of the Potomac from the time it was organized until the surrender of Lee at Appomattox. He was accompanied by a woman whom he said was bound to him by the ties of matrimony. He also claimed that he was a member of the G. A. R., and as he and his companion were sadly in need of funds and particularly of something to eat he applied to members of the local G. A. R. post for assistance. He got it. He and his companion were sent to the hotel for the night, and the landlord was instructed to feed them well and send the bill to the post. The veteran told a tale of woe that would make tears come to the eyes of a wooden Indian, and the tale enlisted sympathy. Yesterday the man and woman left town. They were assisted board a car going in the direction of Athens. Both carried most beautiful jugs and, from their appearance had been well entertained during their visit in Sayre. Athens citizens will in all probability receive a visit from them today. They will tell the same tale of woe, acquire another jug and move on to green fields and pastures new.

OFFICER DOTY RESIGNS

Officer Jesse Doty, who has been connected with the local Lehigh Valley detective force since the death of John Caskey, has tendered his resignation to take effect on June 1. Mr. Doty has made an excellent official and he retires from the service for the purpose of entering another line of business. It is not known who his successor will be.

WORTH SEEING

The show window of W. S. Wright's grocery store is profusely decorated with hawthorne blossoms, grown by Mrs. W. B. Wicks of East street. The hawthorne is not generally grown in this section but Mrs. Wicks appears to have been very successful in cultivating them and the display in the window mentioned is worth going to see.

Now that the burgess has issued orders relative to the curfew ordinance, and those prohibiting ball playing on the public streets and street corner loafing, it is the duty of the police to see that the ordinances referred to are obeyed. Unless the orders of the burgess are misunderstood he proposes to see that the three ordinances are obeyed to the letter.
