STOLE TRUNK

Waverly-Yesterday morning at an early hour, a trunk duly checked, which was outside the Eric station was stolen. The trunk was taken to a point west of the station and broken open, and after taking out part of the contents, they dumped the trunk and what remained into Dry brook. Yesterday about noon the trunk was dis covered and brought back to the freight house. The guilty parties are still at large, and none of the stolen goods have been found. The value of the property taken stores and offices. has not yet been ascertained.
