Kankakee Mother Finds Her Three Children Dend In Trunk.

KANKAKEE, III., June 1 .-- The tragdeaths of three little girls, aged eight, six and two years, who were found by their mother smothered in a trunk, has caused unusual excitement In this town.

The victims were daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Adelord Vanslette and had been missing from home when their bodies were found seated upright in an old truck in the attic.

The circumstances of their deaths are mysterious. Search had been made everywhere, the mother said. It was four hours after she had noticed their absence that she found the children dead

There was no evidence that they had nade any effort to release themselves The mother thinks the children crawled into the trunk while at play and that the lid accidentally closed and locked
