REEK WITH SLANDER

Chicago Beef Trust Men Are Maligned, They Say.

GREAT HARM DONE MEAT INDUSTRY

Effects of President's Message and Nell Report Shows in Preened Cleaning Up of Big Packing Houses.

CHICAGO, June 6.—Following a long meeting of the representatives of the Chicago packers in this city a categorical denial was made of the declarations set forth in the president's message and the reports of J. B. Reynolds and Charles P. Nell. The following statement, prepared at the meeting and signed by the packers, was given to the public:

"For weeks newspapers throughout the country have fairly reeked with slander, all tending to create the belief that the large packers of this country are in the business of selling condemned and diseased meat to the public. These slanders have done incalculable harm to the meat industry and to the general public, which has been prejudiced with suspicion of its daily food. The question raised by these slanders as to whether diseased meats

UPTON SINCLAIR

[Whose book, "The Jungle," started the "meat investigation."] are sold from the packing houses is the question on which the whole world wants the facts. The truth must be told, and told emphatically, if the entire meat and live stock industry is to receive justice from the government and the public.

"Our packing houses are kept clean. Our methods of manufacture are sanitary. Our products are wholesome. On all of these points we have over and over again satisfied doctors, chemists, sanitarians and official investigators from practically every civilized nation on earth, and in doing so we have made a worldwide market for American live stock products. "We have steadily and persistently endeavored to improve our methods. We claim that we are doing everything that can be done and as fast as it can be done to secure the best possible methods and the best possible results. In the light of what we have done and are doing we have a right, we believe, to protest against hasty and empirical judgments that serve only to put weapons into the hands of foreign competitors of the American live stock and meat producing industry."

The effects of the president's disclosure of packing house conditions is seen in a frustrated attempt in at least three of the big plants to remedy the conditions condemned in the report. Toilet arrangements were renovated, floors cleaned, walls scraped and light and ventilation improved. Surroundings of the workers in these plants were improved 50 per cent in one day. It is said that the packers knew of the report Sunday night and that early in the morning gangs of men were taken from their work and placed at various cleaning and whitewashing jobs to prepare for visitors. The general manager of one big plant spent the morning in a downtown plumbing establishment picking out the latest sanitary plumbing.

A variety of signs were put up all over the plants enjoining cleanliness. One of these in red letters read: "Keep clean. Foremen must see that employees wash hands and keep clean." Foremen were told that the rule against expectoration must be enforced or discharge would result.

Storm Cut Off Western Union Wires. CINCINNATI, June 6.—A storm that approached a cloudburst in severity struck Cincinnati and vicinity. The blowing in of a window and the subsequent flooding of the operating room of the Western Union offices compelled the cutting out of the batteries, and for more than half an hour Cincinnati was cut off from communication with the rest of the world as far as Western Union wires were concerned.

Noted Theater Architect Dead. NEW YORK, June 6.—John Bailey McElfrick, architect of many American theaters, died suddenly last evening in his offices in the Knickerbocker building from heart disease following pneumonia. Although seventy-seven years old, he was in active conduct of his business, in which his only son was a partner, and had been in his office all day.

Dancing Masters' Congress. FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 6.—The International Association of the Masters of Dancing, in session here, represents a membership of 200 in the United States and Canada.

WELLMAN AT PARIS.

His Arctic Expedition to Utilize True Seamanship of Arctic Sea.

PARIS, June 6.—Walter Wellman, the American arctic explorer, lectured last night before a crowded attendance of the French Meteorological society.

Mr. Wellman presented the greetings of Professor Willis L. Moore of Washington, chief of the United States weather bureau. The lecturer declared that his expedition, which will shortly attempt to reach the north pole by airship, was the first one based on study of arctic meteorology. The problem of aerial navigation, he said, had been solved and the limitations of speed and distance overcome by means of prudence and carrying a big cargo of petroleum on board a strong airship. The arctic region, Mr. Wellman declared, was more favorable to airship work than France or the United States because of the constancy of the temperature about zero and continuous daylight and also because of the practicability of using guide ropes and drag anchors in the absence of houses, forests and other impediments.

The Wellman expedition, he said, will utilize the true seamanship of the arctic sea, and not depend on a raft, as Andre did in his aerial attempt.

VERDICT FOR $65,000.

Lawyer Delahanty Wins Suit Against Richard Canfield.

NEW YORK, June 6.—With a verdict for $65,000, the full amount claimed, the suit of John Delahanty against Richard A. Canfield for legal services growing out of the memorable raid on the latter's gambling house by District Attorney Jerome in February, 1904, was brought to an end. From the gross amount is to be deducted $5,000, which Delahanty received in cash, and $14,500 due Canfield for money borrowed by Delahanty, leaving the net amount of the award $45,000.

Delahanty was called in rebuttal when the trial was resumed and denied that he advised Canfield on the night of the raid that he need not remove the gambling apparatus stored in the fourth floor of the house. The rest of the day was devoted to summing up by counsel, who exchanged bitter accusations of misrepresentation and perjury, and a brief charge by Judge Newburger.

ON BRINK OF NIAGARA.

Fire Fighter Risked Life to Save Would Be Suicide.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., June 6.—A well dressed man walked into Niagara river 100 feet above the brink of the falls and was swept toward the precipice. He caught on a ledge of rock ten feet from the brink and clung there. Ropes were thrown to him, which he refused to grasp.

A fire department truck was called out and a ladder thirty-five feet long shoved out into the river. Twenty men sat on the shore and while Patrolman Harry Heets walked out on it and Fireman Thomas Conroy walked in the river bed clinging to the ladder. Together they dragged the man to the shore. He was taken to police headquarters. He gave his name as Amos Switzer, but declined to talk further. He is about twenty-nine years of age.

Morales Threw Bomb at Paris.

BARCELONA, Spain, June 6.—A number of anarchists, including the director of the modern school, have been arrested here on suspicion of complicity in the bomb outrage of May 31 at Madrid. The police have discovered that the attempt on the life of King Alfonso in Paris on May 31, 1905, and that of the Calle Mayor on May 31 this year were organized by the same person. The school director, it has been ascertained, was in communication with Morales. Morales, the would be regicide, and received from the latter translations from works on chemistry. The prisoner, who has been subjected to a rigid examination, will be detained in custody pending further investigations.

Dankards Bar Phones and Autos.

DAYTON, O., June 6.—At the annual convention of the Old German Baptists, commonly known as Dankards, the rite of bar phones was observed in the usual manner. Several hundred people not members of the order witnessed the exercises. At the business session it was almost unanimously decided that telephones and automobiles should be let alone. A query regarding the use of traction cars, however, met with sympathy, and this mode of travel may be used.

Father Conrardy Aids Humanity.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Rev. L. L. Conrardy, the companion and successor of Father Damien, who for many years had charge of the leper settlement at Molokai, in the Hawaiian Islands, was presented to the president by Rev. A. P. Doyle, head of the Paulist mission house at the Catholic university. Father Conrardy has served humanity and his church in many parts of the world. When he left Molokai there were 900 lepers in the settlement.

NEWBURG, N. Y., June 6.—Trinity Methodist church, one of the finest church buildings in the New York conference, was badly damaged by fire last night. ALL FOR TEMPERANCE

National Liquor Dealers' Congress Condemns Drunkards.

LOOK UPON INTOXICATION AS A CRIME

Saloons and Cafes Should Be So Conducted That Men Would Not Heitate to Visit Them With Their Wives and Children.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 6.—The National Liquor Dealers' association, which opened its annual convention here, has issued an address to the people of the United States, in which the belief of its members in temperance is expressed, obedience to the law is endorsed, the work of the various temperance societies is commended and the statement made that intoxication should be considered a crime.

The address says in part: "From time to time during the past seventy-five or hundred years waves of public sentiment antagonistic to the manufacture and sale of wine and spirits and other alcoholic beverages have passed over this country, leaving in their train state, county and municipal legislation of a more or less drastic character—legislation entirely out of sympathy with the spirit of American institutions, legislation that was bound to fail of its purpose in practically every instance—and this because the sentiment engendered by agitation and totally unripe for its enforcement."

"Experience has shown that when a man votes for prohibition it is invariably for the benefit of others and not for himself, for no man seems really to believe that society can order his life more wisely than he can order it, and for this reason all prohibitory laws, be they passed by the people of Maine or of Kansas or Iowa, have in each and every case become dead letters on the statute book, demoralizing to order, destructive of revenue and at war with common sense and good citizenship."

The white ribbon movement, the blue ribbon movement, the prohibition movement and the antislavery movement were or are protests upon the part of good men and women against two of the greatest evils connected with our civilization, drunkenness and those saloons which are conducted in a disreputable manner or else in such a way as to demoralize rather than to elevate those who patronize them, and we, the delegates to this convention of the wine and spirit trade, desire to express our entire sympathy with the efforts that have been put forth to exterminate the evils and our willingness to lend co-operation and assistance.

"We believe that wines and spirits are blessings per se, intended by an all-wise Providence to bring health and happiness to mankind."

"We believe that the legitimate manufacture and sale of wines and spirits is an honored trade and one that should be respected by society and by the laws."

"We believe that the saloon and cafe should be so conducted that men would not hesitate to visit them accompanied by their wives and children and that the atmosphere of such places should be beneficial to both mind and body."

Big Warship Discussed in Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The senate passed the naval appropriation bill and also gave considerable attention to the conference report on the railroad rate bill. The only important amendment made to the naval bill was one requiring the secretary of the navy to submit the plans for the proposed big warship to congress before proceeding with its consideration. The provision for the vessel supplied the basis for the only discussion in connection with the measure. The bill carries a total appropriation of $163,117,670.

Cassie Chadwick's Testimony Secret.

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—Cassie L. Chadwick's testimony in the suit of Mrs. W. C. Jutte against J. W. Friend and F. N. Hoffstot, which is said to contain some sensational information relative to the financial operations through which Mrs. Chadwick is serving a sentence in the Ohio state prison at Columbus, was presented to the court here, but was not made public and from present indications it is possible that its contents will never be disclosed.

VAN CORTLANDT HANDICAP.

Aeroplanist, 7 to 1 Shot, Captures First Money at Belmont Park.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Aeroplanist, a 7 to 1 shot, won the Van Cortlandt handicap at Belmont park. The time, 1:25 for seven furlongs on a circular track, equals the world's record, which was made by The Musketeer at Saratoga in 1902.

Radtke broke Aeroplanist off in front, and he set a fast pace. In the stretch Dolly Spunker, the favorite, made a determined challenge, but Radtke, clearly outdaring Miller on Dolly Spunker, headed his mount a winner by a short head. Game Cock, an added starter, won the Meadowbrook Hunters' steeplechase.

Orton Dobbie landed the private sweepstakes, four furlongs, easily by three lengths from Victory Belle, who was played down from 6 to 1 to 7 to 5, favorite. One favorite won. Radtke rode two winners. Summaries:

FOR BRYAN AND FOLK

Democrats at Jefferson City Boom Nebraskan.

NEXT PRESIDENT, SAYS EX-GOVERNOR

"When I See Cleveland in Missouri Talking For Bryan I'll Take Back All I Ever Said Against Him," Said Senator Hall.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 6.—At the Democratic convention here ex-Governor Francis made a telling speech, after which former State Senator David Ball of Pike county was called on.

He pronounced William J. Bryan the greatest private citizen in the world. "When I see Grover Cleveland in the rear end of a train in Missouri talking for Bryan I'll take back everything I ever said against him," he declared.

Former Governor Hookery was the next speaker. He urged the convention to stand by Governor Folk and everything he had done as governor, "whether you like it, gentlemen, or not," he said. He spoke of Bryan as "the next president." An invitation was sent to the capital asking Governor Folk to address the convention.

Governor Folk responded and was enthusiastically cheered. He declared that Bryan would be nominated for president in 1908 and would be elected. He said the principles which Bryan had advocated in 1888 were then considered anarchistic, but now are considered the acme of patriotism. He concluded by speaking on law enforcement in Missouri.

MINES AN ARMED CAMP.

A Thousand State Troops Hold Dillon Colliery District.

DILLONVALE, O., June 6.—With a total of about 1,150 members of the Ohio national guard, comprising the pick of two regiments of the state militia, on guard quiet reigns in this and other mining villages of this section. The troops began arriving at an early hour. The main body of them are bivouacked on the hills surrounding the Bradley mine, the property of the United States Coal company, one and one-half miles south of Smithfield. The soldiers are under the immediate command of Brigadier General J. C. Speaks, who has established headquarters just outside the mining village of Bradley. At the offices of the coal companies it was announced that all of the guards or "private detectives," whose presence at the mines is alleged to have been the cause of the riot Sunday night, have been relieved of duty and that the military will be in full control of the mines till further notice.

There was no outward display of hostility on the part of the miners on the arrival of the state troops, and officials of the miners' organization say there will be no trouble between them and the soldiers. No effort has yet been made to operate the Bradley mines, and it was claimed by the miners that a canvass of the entire local miners field showed only two men who were inclined to accept the offer of the operators. At Plum Run mine and the Rush Run mine a considerable force is employed, but as only a few of those at work are experienced miners little headway has been made and no coal is being shipped out.

Pateron Anarchists Plotted Regicide.

LONDON, June 6.—According to a dispatch from Vienna printed in the Daily Telegraph this morning, the Italian police learned that Italian anarchists living at Pateron, N. J., decided upon an attempt on the life of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy at the opening of the Milan exposition and dispatched one of their number to make the attempt. This anarchist, the correspondent relates, was followed through England, France and Switzerland and arrested the moment he set foot on Italian soil at Como, but the whole affair was kept secret from the public.
