Snake Story from India.

Five Big Pythons Dragged from a Single Hole by Mysore Hunters.

An extraordinary adventure befell Charles and William Theobald at Mysore while out shooting game for the Prince of Wales, writes a Madras correspondent of the London Express.

Coming across a cavity in the bank of a stream one of them peeped in and saw something lying there, which after a few seconds was recognized as a python.

The mouth of the hole was enlarged to admit the head and the snake's tail was seized and both men tugged at it till the python was dragged out. Then it was seized by the head, around which a piece of cloth was tied.

The Theobalds had another peep into the hole and were surprised to see another python. This also was soon captured and placed with the first.

They were about to leave the place when a man called out that there was yet another python in the hole. This one, after some tugging, was pulled out and tied, and, to the surprise of the two young men, they found that there was still more left. They hauled the remainder out with the exception of one, which retreated inward and could not be reached.

Five pythons were captured in all, and they were with difficulty carried to a dog cart and brought into Mysore. They are all young and about 15 to 12 feet long.

Papuan Dwarfs. That very curious race of "web-footed" short-legged Papuan dwarfs, the Agalambos, is not quite extinct. Capt. Barton, an official in New Guinea, describes a visit he paid at the end of last year. "A rumor having reached Cape Nelson that these interesting folk had all been massacred, it was gratifying to find a few of them still living. Six males and four females were seen and examined. They averred that they have no children living, and it seems likely that in a few years the tribe will have wholly died out."

Habits of Fallieres. M. Fallieres, the new president of France, is a capital billiard player, having succumbed to the fascination of the game long ago. He is the first president to adjure tobacco, but he has a fine taste for music, which Loubet, Faure, Grieg, MacMahon and others who were all smokers, notably lacked. President Fallieres shares M. Loubet's enthusiasm for shooting, and is a better shot than President Carnot, who once at a shooting party in Rambouillet severely "peppered" Gen. Braganza.

THIS BOY CAME BACK

Waverly—Much excitement was caused last night by the report that the band of Gypsies that spent some time in Waverly yesterday had kidnapped a small boy named Galloty, who resides on Erie street. His mother was greatly excited and searched all over town, and a party searched all along the Chemung river to no effect. The Gypsy band was located in Owego and Chief Brooks telephoned to that place this morning and had the authorities search the camp, but they did not find the boy. This morning a farmer drove into town with the boy in his wagon and stated that he found him out in the country. The boy claims that he rode out with the Gypsies and they let him along the road. Another theory is that the boy's mother had whipped him the night before and that he ran away to get even.

MUSICAL RECITAL

Waverly—One of the pleasantest events of the week was the recital given last evening at the home of Mrs. William E. Johnson in Park avenue. The piano pupils of Miss Edna Mixer and the vocal pupils of Mrs. William Boyd Stamford united in presenting a very pleasing program. While each number was of unusual excellence for a student's recital, those given by Miss Tucker and Mr. Muldoon deserve special mention. Master Carl Ott also played surprisingly well for a boy of his age. The excellent technique of all the piano pupils and the artistic interpretation of the vocal numbers were particularly noticeable throughout the entire program.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION

Waverly—A most enjoyable reception was given to her many friends last Tuesday evening by Mrs. Howard W. Crydenwise, at her pleasant home on Park avenue. An orchestra rendered an excellent musical program, which was highly gratifying to all present. Delicate refreshments were served. The dining room was artistically decorated with ferns and geraniums and was presided over by Misses Eva Blizzard, Frances Lyons, Christina Scott and Edna Eisenhart. The reception lasted from 8 to 11 o'clock in the evening.

Political Announcements

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Jury Commissioner on the Republican ticket, subject to the rules governing the Republican primaries to be held June 18th next. S. A. BLISH, Sayre, Pa., May 15, 1906.

To the Voters of Bradford County:
I herewith present my name as a candidate for Representative in the Pennsylvania Legislature, subject to the Republican rules. I stand for the enactment of laws giving a straight, uniform two cent fare on all railroad lines. That trolley roads shall have the vested right to transport freight. A revision of our tax laws to the end that corporations shall contribute to relief of local taxation and be compelled to bear their just share of the burden of tax. The same to be used for free schools or such other purpose as our people may desire. All laws to be drawn plain, clear and distinct so there shall be no doubt as to intention and purpose.

GILLES M. COONE,
Edmund M. Tuton,
Bentley Creek, Pa.

To the Republican voters of Bradford County:
I hereby announce myself a candidate for Representative, subject to the Republican rules. I have always stood for clean politics, a fair ballot and an honest count, and I believe in "a square deal for all." If elected I will vote and work for such laws as will further these ends. I favor the passage of laws making passenger rates two cents a mile, also for more liberal appropriations for schools to the end that local taxation for that purpose may be reduced to the lowest possible limit, and for such additional aid for road building and maintenance as the best interests of the people demand. I particularly favor the enactment of laws that will equalize taxation and compel corporations to bear their proper share of the burden, the granting of freight privileges to trolley companies, and a libel law that is just and equitable. Pledging myself to the interests of the people, I respectfully solicit their support at the coming primaries.

GILLES M. COONE,
Canton, Pa., May 10, 1906.

To the Republican Voters of Bradford County:
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Representative to the Pennsylvania Legislature from Bradford county, subject to the rules of the Republican party.

If elected I will work for and vote for the enactment of laws allowing trolley roads to carry freight, establishing a two cents a mile fare on steam roads, compelling corporations to bear their proper share of taxation, providing for the entire expense of the public schools from the state funds, and for such other measures as may be demanded by the people of this county.
