LIGHT ON REBATES President Cassatt Orders Clerk Boyer Discharged.

ANOTHER ACQUIRES $75,000 STOCKS McCrea, Vice President, Testified That Freight Rebates Stopped When Community of Interests Plan Started.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—New light was shed on the motives leading to the abolition of freight rebates by the railroads when James McCrea, first vice president of the Pennsylvania company, which operates the Pennsylvania railroad lines west of Pittsburg, appeared as a witness before the interstate commerce commission.

ALEXANDER J. CASSATT. from the lines of the company. He declared the company had concluded that the use of these cars was unwise. Mr. McCrea admitted finally that the rebating stopped when the community of interests plan started.

At the interstate commerce hearing Joseph K. Aiken, who has been chief clerk in the superintendent's office of the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania railroad, revealed almost as startling evidence as that given by Joseph H. Boyer before the commission on Wednesday.

NEILL DEFINES ODORS. Congressional Committee Hear Inspection Hearing at Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—At the most inspection hearing Mr. Neill denied that the unventilated rooms in the packing houses referred to in his report applied to the cold storage rooms, as indicated by T. E. Wilson, a Chicago packer.

"What do you mean by 'stinking'?" asked Mr. Wadsworth. "One would infer you meant a horrible, rotten, stinking condition."

"I thought so," answered Mr. Neill. Then, amplifying, he said he saw men there whom he believed to be tubercular. Mr. Neill denied that the working girls could sit down. "They may have permission, but there is nothing for them to sit on," he said.

A JOHNSTOWN FLOOD. Cloudburst Caused Much Damage in City and at Hooversville.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 8.—Hooversville, a town eighteen miles north of here, was visited by a cloudburst, and Stony creek at this point rose to eighteen feet in a short time. The lowlands are inundated, but no serious damage has resulted.

Portions of the lower part of this city are under water. Stony creek rose steadily and kept going up so fast that at Franklin street bridge, connecting the city with Keruville, where the creek narrows, it registered eighteen feet.

The water is up to the first floor in many houses, and business in the vicinity of Franklin bridge has been suspended. Near this point there is a large tenement which housed about twenty families, owned by P. J. Ferris. The waters made such inroads around it that Chief of Police Mullen ordered the people to vacate the premises for fear the building will be wrecked by the flood.

The aftermath of the one is almost equal to the foresight of the other."

of the sentence of Charles L. Tucker," Governor Guild says: "I have given to your petition and to the case of Charles L. Tucker the most careful consideration. I have read all the evidence presented in the lower court and the official stenographic report, 2,000 pages, of the proceedings in the superior court, together with various affidavits and reports submitted to me."

"I have given a lengthy hearing to the counsel for the prisoner and to all witnesses as to the facts whom they chose to summon, even when the testimony offered was such as could not be heard in a court of justice, recognizing that the governor on a plea of clemency is not bound by technical rules of evidence."

NEW YORK, June 8.—Closing with a great burst of speed in the final furlong, Go Between, backed down from 12 to 1 to 9 to 1, won the $10,000 Westminster handicap, one mile and a quarter, at Gravesend. Eugenia Burch an added starter and quoted at 15 to 1 for the place, was second and the hot favorite, Calmiron, third.

Later took the lead at the start and was leading by a length passing the stand the first time, followed by Von Tromp and Calmiron. This order was maintained to the half mile pole. Rounding the far turn Crimmins sent Eugenia Burch up. The mare went from seventh place to the lead and was in front as the field swung into the stretch. Meanwhile Shaw on Go Between, who was trailing his field for a mile, began to make his move.

Go Between responded gamely to the whip and, gradually overhauling his field, caught the leader, Eugenia Burch, near the finish and in a hard drive won going away by half a length. Eugenia Burch was three-quarters of a length before the favorite, Calmiron. Court Dress, odds on favorite, easily won the Criterion stakes. Soprano, an added starter, cut out the running to the stretch. Court Dress then took the lead and won by three-quarters of a length.
