 Waverly—The following persons will take part in the play, "Charles's Aunt," which will be presented Thursday and Friday, June 21 and 22, at the Loomis opera house under the auspices of the Cayuta hose company: Miss Grace L. Snook, Florence Swartout, Edna H. Peck, and Myrtle J. Gillan, Messrs. Thos. O'Farrell, Chas. A. Woodin, Dr. Theodore Snook, Robert MacGuffie, Wm. Bouton, and Wm. Howe.
 The members of the Cayuta company have worked hard and about 800 tickets have been sold. The diagram will be at the Western Union on Monday, June 18, when all tickets may be reserved.
HOSPITAL NOTES
 Mrs. James W. Hurst of Camp-town, and H. R. Butman of Berkshire, N. Y., was operated upon at the hospital this forenoon.
 James Barry of Sayre was discharged this forenoon.
 While working in section gang a in the Sayre yards this forenoon, a rail slipped from the hands of Steven Patrick, an Austrian, and struck on his foot, causing a compound fracture of the right great toe.
 A fakir, whose name was in accord with his name, flim flammed the people last night. He was apparently selling 15c handkerchiefs for a quarter but when you got the bundle it contained only 7 or 8. The boys made it so interesting, however, that he quit business.
 The Red Men will be out on parade this afternoon in full Indian uniform. They will also go to Sayre and Athens and be accompanied by the Athens band. They will go on an excursion to Binghamton tomorrow morning and the Hosmer band will accompany them.

AT THE PARK
 "Master and Man," an intensely interesting melo-drama of the old school, was the attraction at the park last night. The piece which is of intense interest and containing many startling situations, was played in a most creditable manner by the members of the summer stock company. The largest crowd of the season was present and it went wild with delight. The specialty program was changed again last night and the new numbers were much appreciated. The performances at the park grow better each evening. The manner in which the plays are presented show great care on the part of the stage management, and the entertainment offered is equal to that usually given by high price houses.
ENTITLED TO CREDIT
 E. J. Connelly, the well known Republican leader, and W. B. Salisbury, of the firm of Murray & Salisbury, are entitled to considerable credit in inducing the Barnum & Bailey agent to bill the show for this place. Heretofore the show has always stopped at either Elmira or Towanda, but this year the agent was shown what we have in Sayre. He is a good business man, and after looking the situation over, decided that this was the place to stop.
MUST KEEP WALKS CLEAN
 Waverly—Chief Brooks notified all business men who have signs, bicycle racks or any other obstructions on the sidewalks that they must be removed. This is in accordance with a village ordinance which forbids the placing of any such things on the sidewalks.
