DINNER TO ELLEN TERRY.

Choate Sends Best Wishes From America—Fund Reaches $43,920.

LONDON, June 18.—A dinner was given at the Hotel Cecil Saturday night in honor of Ellen Terry. The 200 guests included persons prominent in the theatrical world. Winston Spencer Churchill during the course of a brilliant eulogy of Miss Terry's genius said he considered it regrettable that Great Britain had no national theater.

Miss Terry replied to Mr. Churchill's remarks and to other complimentary speeches and after thanking all persons concerned in the testimonial to her, both in Europe and America, said she believed the overwhelming testimony of affection and homage she had received was due greatly to the intention of the public to honor Sir Henry Irving and herself together.

A message from Joseph H. Choate was read which expressed best wishes on behalf of America and stated that Miss Terry's interesting and brilliant career would always be cherished in the memory of all American lovers of dramatic art.

It was announced that the total sum realized for the Terry jubilee fund, including the receipts from the benefit performance at Drury Lane theater and subscriptions raised by the Tribune and in America, amounts to $43,920.

Chauffeur Killed at Asbury Park.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 18.—Henry Isaacson, chauffeur for Peter A. Fogarty of New York, was killed here when the automobile in which he and his employer were riding was in collision with another automobile driven by Isaac T. Strauss, a leather manufacturer of Newark, N. J., who had as his guests Misses Rena and Augusta Belasco, daughters of David Belasco, the playwright. Both of the young women were bruised by jumping when the crash came. Isaacson struck on his head and suffered a fracture of the skull. Fogarty and Strauss were held Senate to Vote on Sea Level Canal.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—In preparation for the vote on the sea level Panama canal bill, which is fixed for next Thursday, the senate will devote much of the time this week prior to that date to the consideration of the bill. Senator Knox is scheduled for a speech today in support of a lock canal, and he will be followed by other senators for and against the bill as it stands.

Banker Held For Homicide.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 18.—William Herring died at Spring Lake hospital of injuries received by being struck by the automobile of J. K. Newman, a New York banker who is living at West End for the summer. It is said Herring was about to board a trolley car at Belmar and became confused. His skull was fractured.

LILLEYISM IS DEAD

Stevens and Moscrip will represent Bradford county at the next session of the Legislature. Both gentlemen were elected by overwhelming majorities at the Republican primaries held throughout the county on Saturday afternoon and evening. As a nomination on the Republican ticket in this county is equivalent to election it means that Messrs. Stevens and Moscrip will be sent to Harrisburg as representatives of the people of this county for two years. The result of the primaries was most gratifying to the friends of both men. Weeks ago it was conceded that Hon. L. T. Hoyt, the present incumbent, was out of the race, and he was advised by his friends to withdraw. This he refused to do and he stayed in the fight to the finish. His friends put up a vigorous campaign, especially in this end of the county, the hot bed of the strife, but Mr. Hoyt went down to defeat with a large majority registered against him. Hoyt was looked upon as a member of "the gang" and a henchman of the Hon. Mial E. Lilley, and his defeat was inevitable. Tuton, another candidate for legislative honors, who was looked upon as a Lilley man was also snowed under, and will remain home. The result of the primaries is decidedly significant. For a long time the political status of the Hon. Mial E. Lilley has been on the decline. Within a year a strong following has deserted him, and today there is scarcely a corporal's guard that can be rallied to his support. His antics in the Sayre postoffice fight and the final outcome finished Lilley in this end of the county, and there is a general and widespread belief that he can be defeated for congressman this fall. Mial's political grave has been dug and should he by a mere chance be sent to congress in November, the honor will be an empty one. It is believed that the time has arrived when Republican politics in Bradford county will be conducted by some one other than Lilley. The prospect at least is cheering.

INTERESTING SERVICE

Waverly—Owing to the inclement weather it was not possible for the Odd Fellows to carry out the program that had been prepared for yesterday. At 3 o'clock the members listened to a fine address by Rev. C. L. Lewis of Nichols at the Baptist church. He spoke of the purposes of Odd Fellowship, and told how that and kindred orders supplemented the work of the churches by ministering to man's physical needs. A choir of 12 male voices furnished the music and prayer was offered by Rev. Alanson Tilden. Details from the lodge decorated the graves at Glenwood, Forest Home, East Waverly, Ellistown and The Rest.

IN POLICE CIRCLES

Waverly—Yesterday morning a man named Will Brink was arrested by Chief Brooks on Pine street for being drunk. He was locked up until sober and fined $3 which he paid.

Notice was received yesterday that three young fellows had caught a freight out of Elmira. They were captured at Waverly but the circumstances were such that they were allowed to go on a suspended sentence.

EMMA C. THAYER

Waverly—The funeral of Mrs. Emma C. Thayer, who died last Friday night was held this morning. There was a short prayer service at the house and the remains were then taken to Barton for burial.

Deceased was 68 years old and had been an invalid for a number of years. The primary cause of death was paralysis. She is survived by her husband.

The books, entitled "The San Francisco Horror," which The Record has been giving away with each yearly subscription, have arrived and are ready for distribution. The book contains over 400 pages and is in every detail exactly as advertised. Our agents will be ready to deliver them in a few days.
