There was a desperate battle in the Italian colony on North street yesterday, one fellow was so badly used that Dr Holcomb was sent for. When the doctor arrived he told them they had better take the wounded man to the hospital to have him mended up. The story is that the Italian has refused to pay his assessment into the Mafia treasury.

Carl Holcomb has completed his course of medical study at the University of Pennsylvania and was awarded the degree of M. D. June 13. He is now qualified to practice medicine and has passed a competitive examination and has been chosen as interne for the Moses Taylor hospital at Scranton. He will enter upon his duties January 1, 1907.

DIED SATURDAY

Athens—Mrs. Laura Merchant Estabrook died at the home of F. L. Estabrook, East Athens, Saturday at 10:40 o'clock a. m., aged 75 years. Her maiden name was Laura Merchant and she was born in Newark Valley, N. Y., June 19, 1830. She was a woman of the highest moral qualities and in social life she had a sunny way that attracted everyone to her. Her christian character was sincere, earnest and deep and she was always doing some act or speaking words of cheer to help those around her. She has been foremost in the work of the Presbyterian church and her labors will be a bright remembrance to all who knew her. Her husband, George L. Estabrook, died in 1899, but she has continued to reside in the family home up to the date of her death. She had been on a visit to Mr. C. B. Estabrook's home in Washington but her health became so feeble that she longed for her home on the Susquehanna and she was brought here a little over a week ago. She has one surviving brother, W. H. Merchant, residing in Lawrenceville, Pa., and her step children in Athens and Washington. Her funeral took place from her late residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. W. H. Sawtelle officiating, assisted by Rev. A. F. von Tobel. Interment in Tioga Point cemetery, in charge of Rogers & Miller, undertakers.

Robert Archer spent Sunday with his family in East Athens returning to Picture Rocks this morning where he has charge of the carving department of a furniture manufactory. He intends moving his family there soon.

Harold Lindsay of St. John's military academy, returned home Saturday. He has just completed a march of 100 miles and comes out of the journey with blistered feet and a general used up condition in his getting seasoned to soldierly duties.

GRAND AUCTION SALE

CHOICE BUILDING LOTS! AT "THE HIGHLANDS"

SALE DAYS:--To-Morrow TUESDAY, JUNE 19, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, THURSDAY, JUNE 21, FRIDAY, JUNE 22, SATURDAY, JUNE 23. At 1:30 Each Afternoon, Rain or Shine.

"The Highlands" is located on West Lockhart Street and was formerly known as the Lambert Property; only 8 minutes walk to the Postoffice, Schools and the Business Center, and just far enough from the noise and smoke.

THE HIGHLANDS is that beautiful tract of land formerly known as the Lambert property and has been sub-divided into building lots of desirable size. Elegant streets and sidewalks have been made at a great expense, and we ask you to look the tract over. The location is beyond doubt the finest in Sayre. It is close to all business, schools, churches, and the ideal spot for a home site. Every lot will positively be sold to the highest bidder, without reserve or limit. There will be bargains and you want to be there.

Remember the Opening Day

HOME SEEKERS and INVESTORS—Now is the time to buy at your own price, and the chances are very few where you can do it in Sayre; but you will have the chance next Tuesday, June 19, when you can buy these high class building lots. And remember you pay just what you think they are worth. Make your own price; you BUY, we SELL. Invest the money you are now paying for rent in a home of your own and be your own landlord. We will be glad to help you. We shall make very easy terms.
