KINNAN INQUEST OPENS.

Neighbor of Murdered Woman Almost Saw the Tragedy.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The scene at the old Stenton mansion in the Bronx and the events immediately following the murder of Mrs. Alice Kinnan were described in a graphic manner by Mrs. Glad, the first witness called by Coroner McDonald when he began his inquest into the mysterious crime that has puzzled the authorities for two weeks.

MRS. LOUISE STENTON.

with terror. She saw the aged mother on the piazza, saw two men rush in and raise up the form of Mrs. Kinnan and saw Mrs. Shippey, the Italian woman who lives in the basement run up the steps. She declares she saw man run away from the place, she would have seen one if he had done so.

The coroner is conducting his investigation behind closed doors, believing that the interests of justice demand that he act secretly.

Sixty witnesses have been subpoenaed, including Burton Gibson, the attorney for the murdered woman. Aged Mrs. Stenton has not been summoned. She is not physically fit to appear. It is said, and can be seen whenever it is necessary at the home of her friends the Millers, who live in Bedford Park.

Although the Kaiser's automobile is the only one without a number in Prussia and consequently is not taxed, nevertheless his majesty is taxed for carrying a gun. He has just paid for his annual license, which reads as follows: "Valid for one year. Twelve months shooting license for his majesty the Kaiser and King living at Berlin—from December 1 till November 30, 1906. Von Borries, chief of police, Berlin."

Good to Servants. Lady Diana de Vere Haddleston, who died in London recently, left a will bequeathing $50,000 to her servants and directing that her ashes after cremation should be placed in the oak shrine awaiting them at Couthe's bank and buried with those of her husband, which she had carried with her wherever she went for 15 years.

HAYES AND PALMER SENT TO OWEGO

They Forged Woman's Name on Order for Groceries. Waverly—Two young men were arrested here about eight o'clock last night and the charge was placed against them in this state was intoxication. Their names were Martin Hayes and Samuel Palmer and their arrest was brought about by groceryman Ropp of the South side, who alleges that they brought an order for groceries to his store and that he gave them two dollars worth of merchandise.

The order was signed by Mrs. Zel Palmer, one of his customers, who resides in Milltown. He became suspicious and telephoned Mrs. Palmer and she said she had given no such order.

Mr. Ropp's store is in Pennsylvania, and it is up to the authorities of that State whether the matter will be pressed.

They were given a hearing before Justice Hoagland this morning, when Hayes was given 90 days and Palmer 30 days in the Owego jail.

Beautiful Lake Keuka. Keuka is justly entitled to the reputation it bears, that of being the most beautiful lake in New York state. Its shores are lined with countless cozy cottages. Those who are unable to secure cottages, find excellent accommodations at the several large hotels at Grove Springs, Keuka and Osborns. If you enjoy fishing, no other place offers greater attraction, the lake having been annually stocked for several years with various species of trout, black bass, pike and pickerel from the State Fish Hatchery, located but five miles from Hammondport at the head of the lake. The season is now open and excellent catches are daily reported. Keuka Lake is reached via Erie Railroad, whose agents will gladly furnish information regarding trains, rates, etc. A beautiful illustrated booklet will be mailed on application to J. H. Webster, Dir., Penn. Agt., Elmira, N. Y. 28-dly-8-1

THE FARCE COMEDY DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

Delightful and Sparkling Production of a Well Known Play Occurred Last Night. Waverly—The description "delightful," "Sparkling," to be found on the program at the head of the cast of the play, "Charley's Aunt," describes it accurately. A fair sized audience witnessed the production last night and everybody was delighted. If you have a bad case of the blues which you want dispelled be sure to attend this evening. The incidents of the play are very amusing and the plot holds the attention from start to finish. To this add the fact that each member of the company handles his part in a masterful manner, and you have a combination that will please the most exacting.

The parts were so well taken that it is hard to make a choice for first place, and the acting was such as would reflect credit upon many professional troupes. The play is for the benefit of the Cayugas, and will be repeated at the Loomis tonight.

"NO CAUSE OF ACTION" Waverly—The case of F. E. Lyford & Co., vs. George Painton came up this morning at the town hall before Justice Brooks and a jury. The following jury was drawn: John Osborne, E. Rhodes, W. L. Watrous, Mr. Horton, James Rhodes and Harry Westfall. F. E. Hawkes appeared for Mr. Painton and Attorney Edgar Seabring for the plaintiffs. Miss Mame Clark acted as stenographer. Several witnesses were sworn. Mr. J. M. Lyford was the first one. He said that when Mr. Painton's policy expired he, according to general custom, made out a new one and left it at Mr. Painton's bakery. About 60 days later he presented the bill and Mr. Painton refused to settle and surrendered the policy. The suit is for a premium of about four dollars which occurred before the policy was surrendered. Mr. Painton swore that he had previously told Mr. Lyford not to renew policy when it expired. The jury brought in a verdict of no cause of action.
