CONGRATULATE HAAKON.

American Delegation Received by Norwegian King and Queen.

TRONDHEIM, Norway, June 25.—The Norwegian-American delegations were received by King Haakon and Queen Maud, when the entire court was present. The pilgrims from the United States spent twenty-five minutes with their majesties.

Dr. Dan of Chicago read an address congratulating King Haakon on his accession to the throne and expressing assurances of the affection of Americans and Norwegians in America for Norway. He then handed the king the address, which is engrossed on parchment. King Haakon thanked the delegation, saying he was fully aware of the value to Norway of the moral support of Norwegians in America and that it helped him when entering upon the duties of his office to know that he had their friendship and moral support. He also expressed his gratification for the kindly sentiments of Americans.

F. G. Gade, Norway's vice consul at Chicago, then presented King Haakon with a portfolio, saying that this greeting also was from America and particularly from Norwegian musicians, artists and poets there. He reminded the king that the portfolio contained a poem written by the Rev. Mr. Borthine and set to music by Alfred Paulsen, which was sung at a public musical here. Mr. Gade then presented (Edin Benning of Milwaukee, composer of the coronation hymn, which also was embodied in the portfolio. King Haakon shook hands with Mr. Benning and thanked him for his work.

In replying to Mr. Gade the king expressed his warmest thanks for the portfolio and charged him to deliver a message of thanks to all who assisted in preparing or contributing to it. The king and queen then shook hands with the entire party and thanked the members for making the long journey from the United States to assist in the coronation.

Thousands of school children paraded before the palace at noon and were reviewed by King Haakon, Queen Maud and Crown Prince Olaf.

THREE FOUND DEAD.

Washington County Authorities Have Chapter of Crime to Work On.

WASHINGTON, Pa., June 25.—Three murders were reported to the Washington county authorities and as yet no arrests have been made. The body of Michael Prebika, a coal miner, was found in a tunnel of the Wabash road in Independence township. His skull had been crushed, and both legs were broken. He had been shot through the head and the body placed on the tracks to conceal the murder. When last seen alive Prebika had a large sum of money and was quarreling with a fellow Slav, Frank Ristat, for whom a warrant has been issued. Later the body of Joseph Simpson, another coal miner, was found beneath a railroad car at Burgettstown. He had wounds on his head and chest, apparently inflicted with a pick. His pockets had been rifled. The body of an unknown man which is still unidentified was found in the road near the Baltimore and Ohio tracks at Gilkison, ten miles from this place. The only indication of the cause of death was a bruise on the temple. Robbery was apparently the motive for this murder.

South to Indorse Bryan. WASHINGTON, June 25.—A statement issued by Representative Burgess of Texas declaring that Senator Bailey is not a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1908 is regarded as indicating that William J. Bryan will have the solid south behind him at the next national convention. The statement was issued after consultation with Senator Bailey, who gave it his approval. From expressions heard it would seem almost certain that the conventions in southern states will indorse the candidacy of Mr. Bryan.

Two Dead Under Falling House. ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 25.—Two men were crushed to death at Charlotte under a house which they were trying to move. The house belonged to George Baist, thirty-one years old, and had been set up on jackscrews preparatory to moving it on a new foundation. Baist and his father-in-law, William Steingraber, were under the house when two of the jackscrews tipped, and the house crashed to one side, falling on the men and killing them instantly. Baist leaves a wife and five small children.

Getho to Make Revelations. BOSTON, June 25.—Frank J. Getho, who on Thursday was expelled from the Massachusetts house of representatives after having been found guilty of attempting to bribe fellow legislators, says that to avenge his expulsion he will expose every member of the house who has been connected with any bribery proceedings.

Criminals' Condition Very Serious. NOROTON, Conn., June 25.—Dr. J. W. Avery, who is attending John D. Crimmins of New York, who is ill at his summer home here, has given out the following: "Mr. Crimmins is just about holding his own. There has been no practical change for the past twenty-four hours. His condition is very serious."

No More Women For Uncle Sam. CHICAGO, June 25.—United States Civil Service Commissioner Newton received instructions from Washington to allow no more women to take civil service examinations for postoffice positions, as Uncle Sam now has more women in the department than he desires.

Weather Probabilities. Partly cloudy; variable winds.

Love and Money. "If you love me send me $70," wrote one husband to his wife. There seems to be no doubt that this man married for money.
