ROOF GARDEN CRIME

Defense of Harry Thaw Will Be Insanity Plea.

SKYROCKET CAREER ENDS IN TOMBS

Young Pittsburg Admits Frankly Killing of Architect White—His Beautiful Wife Produces Letters From Man.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Harry Kendall Thaw of Pittsburg, who shot and killed Stanford White, the famous architect, on the roof of the Madison Square Garden, is in a cell in the Tombs. He is treated as any other man charged with murder.

At the prison, as at the station, Thaw was cool. He was very pale and looked worried, but his nerve did not desert him. In the courtroom he was greeted by several friends, among them Burr McIntosh. He was repre-

STANFORD WHITE, slain by Dan O'Reilly in the absence of Louis A. DeLofield, who is his regular attorney.

Thaw frankly admitted that he killed White, pleading in justification of the deed that White had ruined the life of his wife, the beautiful former chorus girl and artist, Florence Evelyn Nesbit. His counsel will offer the defense of insanity. The prisoner has been examined by eminent alienists retained on his behalf and by the district attorney's office. The coroner's inquest will be held tomorrow.

Not since the assassination of Colonel James Fisk, Jr., by Edward S. Stokes on the staircase of the Grand Central hotel more than thirty years ago has the metropolis been shocked by so startling and dramatic a tragedy.

Mr. Thaw, the pivotal figure in the murder, took to her husband's lawyers a sheaf of letters which are expected to show a direct bearing upon the motive for the shooting. Included in the bundle, it is said, is a certain letter which Stanford White wrote within the last few weeks to Evelyn Thaw—a letter which the defense will claim made a lunatic of the jealous young husband when he learned of it and sent him to the roof garden on his crazy errand of vengeance.

Thaw's friends will move heaven and earth in his defense, and money will be no object. He is a brother of the Countess of Yarnmouth and has many rich friends and relatives in Pittsburg and New York.

His father was a millionaire many times over, and money slipped through young Thaw's fingers like sand. His father, in his wisdom, inserted a clause in his will under which Harry was to have only $2,500 a year until he reached the mature age of thirty-five years, when it was presumed that he would have realized the value of money. But Mrs. William Thaw, the boy's mother, was executrix of the will and a dotting parent, so Harry got $80,000 a year.

Harry Thaw is now thirty-three years old. The limelight of publicity first threw its glare over Thaw when he caused a gasp of astonishment on figure over her fortune. When fifteen years old she began to earn her bread and butter by posing as an artist's model in the studios of New York city, and soon her unusual beauty was the talk of the artists.

According to George W. Lederer, the theatrical manager, Stanford White met and befriended the girl about this time. White was a first nighter, and found of pretty girls. He was a friend of many young actresses, whom he had helped to better themselves in their profession, and he gave the beautiful model a hand so that she was able to appear behind the footlights in "Florodora," not as a member of the sextet, but in the role of a flower girl. Then Thaw crossed her path. He paid the most constant attention to her.

When the model went to Europe three years ago to take singing lessons the millionaire sped after.

During Miss Nesbit's absence abroad it was reported in the foreign news that Harry K. Thaw "and wife" had been arrested in Switzerland for running down a peasant while automobileing.

Thaw, Evelyn Nesbit, her maid and seventeen trunks came here from Europe and were driven to the Hotel Cumberland, in New York. Thaw repeated his denials that he had married the model and show girl on the other side of the water and declined to sign "and wife" on the hotel register. By a vote of six to five the senate committee on interoceanic canals decided not to go to the isthmus of Panama and take testimony in the canal investigation.

The omnibus public building bill, carrying $22,000,000, was passed by the house, one hour having been consumed in its reading and consideration.

The house also adopted a number of conference reports, among them being the following:

The military academy appropriation bill, which sends it to the president for the control and regulation of the waters of the Niagara river and for the preservation of Niagara falls; amending the act authorizing the condemnation of lands or easements needed in connection with works of river and harbor improvement at the expense of persons, companies or corporations approved May 16, 1906.

The most interesting incident of the session was a conflict over a motion by Senator La Follette to enter upon the consideration of the bill limiting to six hours the time railroad employees engaged in the movement of trains may be employed consecutively. There was great difficulty in securing a voting quorum, but the requisite number ultimately was obtained. Several speeches were made on the bill.

The president has signed the post-office appropriation bill.

Congress will stay in session until its work is finished. This is the dictum of Speaker Cannon and his lieutenants and is being emphasized at this time to counteract any impression that the pure food bill at least might go over until the next session. There is also trouble on the most important railway bill, the "tie-up" on the immigration bill is also in conference, as are several of the appropriation bills.

All of these things must be worked out without any delay being set for adjournment.

two continents by giving a $50,000 "beauty dinner" in Paris to the stage beauties of the French city. Cleo de Merode was there, and so were many other celebrities. Next morning the newspapers were full of the story of that dinner and Harry Kendall Thaw had emerged from obscurity.

The dinner was four years ago. After it bohemian circles began to look with expectancy to the advent of young Thaw in America. He came, he saw and became infatuated with Evelyn Florence Nesbit. She was the daughter of a poor Pittsburg attorney who died about ten years ago, leaving an estate much involved. The girl found herself obliged to make her own way in the world. Her face and her

DOINGS IN CONGRESS

Senate Will Not Accept Report on Rate Bill.

LA FOLLETTE WOULD AID WORKERS

President Signs Postoffice Appropriation Measure—House Will Not Adjourn Until Its Work is Done.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The senate voted not to accept the conference report on the railroad rate bill, and Senators Tillman, Eikins and Cullom were reappointed to conduct a further conference.

The conference on the agricultural appropriation bill developed that the differences between the house and senate amendment probably will be sent back to the two houses for further action or for instructions to the conferees.

The senate representatives refused absolutely to consider the provision making an appropriation for the enforcement to pay the cost of inspection and insisted upon the retention of the provision in the Beveridge bill requiring that the date of inspection be placed upon cans of meat.

By a vote of six to five the senate committee on interoceanic canals decided not to go to the isthmus of Panama and take testimony in the canal investigation.

The omnibus public building bill, carrying $22,000,000, was passed by the house, one hour having been consumed in its reading and consideration.

UNDERMINING THE ARMY.

Douma Openly Discussed Disloyalty of Cossacks and Other Troops.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 27.—The session of the duma was openly devoted to the revolutionists' propaganda for undermining the loyalty of the troops. A score of speeches couched in ardent revolutionary tone were delivered with the direct object of their dissemination among the soldiers.

The authorities, who are able to concatenate papers containing telegraphic accounts of the ferment among the soldiery, are unable to prevent the publication of parliamentary speeches, and those delivered will be printed in every radical paper in the empire and so find their way into every barracks, camp and outpost.

The rostrum was abandoned almost entirely to Cossack representatives. The conservative Cossacks did their best to counteract the addresses of their revolutionary conferees. The lieutenants freely passed on both sides regarding the sentiments of the Cossack soldiers and their devotion to duty in spite of the utmost efforts of Prince Paul Dolgorokoff, who occupied the chair in the absence of President Muromtseff.

The revolutionary agitation in the guard camp at Kransnoye-Selo has reached such a pitch that War Minister Rudiger is contemplating breaking up the camp and scattering the disaffected regiments.

Several hundred members of the supposed ultra loyal Preobrajensky regiment are reported to have held a meeting and drawn up a resolution addressed to the regimental commander upholding all the actions of parliament and declaring that they want no more peace duty entailing the slaying of brother or father. Other meetings are of daily occurrence. The Cossacks at Rostov-on-Don are said to have refused to leave their quarters to suppress anti-Semitic disturbances unless their families are guaranteed pensions in case of death.

AGRICULTURE AND RAILROADS.

YELETS, Russia. June 27.—The agrarian movement is spreading through out this province, and the peasants and estate employes are making common cause against the landlords. The rural guards have had several encounters, in which many were wounded and killed.

Loved His Wife's Daughter.

FREDERICKS, Md., June 27.—Love for his wife's daughter is said to have been the cause of the suicide of George Barrett near Washington Junction. Barrett married a widow with four children, including a daughter, with whom Barrett subsequently became infatuated. This daughter was married recently, and her stepfather became dependent and took his life, leaving a farewell letter for his girl.

Captain Wynne's Sentence.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The navy department sent the record of the trial by court martial of Captain Robert Wynne, Jr., marine corps, to the president. The sentence is dismissal, but the department recommends that he be permitted to resign. Captain Wynne was recently tried at the New York navy yard for insubordination and other offenses.

Its Hundred Anniversary.

KINGSTON, N. Y., June 27.—The Ulster County Medical society last night celebrated its one hundredth anniversary. Addresses were made by Dr. Albert Vanluever of Albany, former Supreme Court Justice G. D. B. Hasbrouck and ex-Senator John J. Linson.

Nolla Won Debate Prize.

CLINTON, N. Y., June 27.—Merryn Humphrey Nolla of Johnston last night won the McKinney extemporaneous debate prize at Hamilton college, arguing in favor of the popular election of United States senators.

WORLD'S RECORD BY HALIFAX.

Swift Stakes at Sheephead Bay Won by Alexander Shields' Horse.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Alexander Shields' Halifax, carrying 119 pounds, made a new world's record for seven furlongs, circular track, when he won the Swift stakes at Sheephead Bay.

He was quoted at 7 to 1 in the betting and stepped the distance in 1:24.45, which is one-fifth of a second faster than The Musketeer's time, made at Saratoga in 1902, and Aero-naut's time, made this year at Belmont park.

The Swift stakes only brought three starters, with Brookdale Nymph favorite, at 6 to 5, and Ormondale next in demand, at 12 to 1, after being played down from 2 to 1, while Halifax was the despised outsider. Ormondale went to the front at the start, followed by Brookdale Nymph. This order remained unchanged to the stretch, where the leaders began to tire. Shaw then sent Halifax into the lead and won well in hand by two lengths from Ormondale.

Prince Hamburg in winning the first race equaled the world's record for six and a half furlongs of 1:15 2-5, held by Minola and Martinus. Red River won the Zephyr stakes. Two favorites won the Handicaps.

First Race—Prince Hamburg, first; Sir Lynwood, second; Cianna, third.

Second Race—Rye, first; Water Tank, second; Kilgusor, third.

Third Race—Red River, first; Sewell, second; Bat Masterson, third.

Fourth Race—Halifax, first; Ormondale, second; Brookdale Nymph, third.

Fifth Race—Francie Bird, first; Stimulant, second; Mary Morris, third.

Sixth Race—Maxuar, first; Miss Crawford, second; Aggie, third.

AKE BACK IN LONDON

Longworths to Be Presented at Edward's Court.

KAISER AT KIEL MOST COURTEOUS

American Ambassador Gives Grand Ball in Honor of President's Daughter and Her Husband This Evening.

LONDON, June 27.—Congressman Nicholas Longworth and Mrs. Longworth are back in London. They could have spent two or three days more at Kiel pleasantly had it not been for their London engagements.

They will be present at the ball to be given at the American embassy this evening and at the drawing room at Buckingham palace tomorrow, when they will be presented at the court of St. James.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth at Kiel met every one of distinction surrounding the German emperor and were many hours in his company. Mr. Longworth desired that their visit to Kiel should be regarded simply as part of their wedding tour. They are most pleased with all the courtesies shown them and found the emperor very kind, cheerful, attentive and complimentary to America. He sent messages to President Roosevelt, Prince August, fourth son of the emperor, who was Mr. Longworth's table companion at the dinner on the Hamburg, sent her his photograph with his autograph.

The emperor mentioned to members of his suit his pleasure over the opportunity he had to talk with the daughter and son-in-law of President Roosevelt and expressed the hope that they would take home agreeable impressions of Germany.

About 500 persons assembled at the railroad station at Kiel to see Mr. and Mrs. Longworth off. They remained in the royal waiting room with the American naval attaché, Lieutenant Commander William L. Howard, until a few minutes before train time. The crowd gave them three cheers as the train pulled out.
